Teacher Education Program Mission

The mission of Teacher Education at Elon is to prepare quality teachers who are knowledgeable, responsible and thoughtful professionals. The conceptual framework, "Thoughtful Practice in a Community of Learners," reflects an intention to create a learning environment in which teacher candidates inquire, collaborate and construct the knowledge, skills and dispositions for professional practice.

Special Education with Dual Licensure in Special Education (General Curriculum) and English Education

The Special Education/English Education Dual Licensure Program is committed to preparing quality teachers who are:

- Knowledgeable of the learning characteristics of exceptional students who access the general curriculum (students with learning disabilities, mild mental retardation and emotional/behavioral disorders)
- Knowledgeable of instructional strategies, curricula and assessment methods appropriate for exceptional students
- Knowledgeable in literature, language and writing.
- Professional in meeting responsibilities both within the university and in the field.
- Adept at using inquiry to enhance their learning and development.
- Committed to and respectful of the communities in which they live and teach.

STEPS TO TEACHER LICENSURE

I. Sophomore Year or Earlier
1. Declare the major. Complete forms in Academic Advising, Duke 108.
2. Apply for admission to the Teacher Education Program in the Teacher Education Office, Mooney 102.
3. Determine whether Praxis Series/PPST (Pre-Professional Skills Test) is required. If combined SAT score is 1100 or greater, the PPST is not required. If one part of the SAT is 550 or greater, that section of the PPST is not required.
4. If PPST is required, obtain registration information for the test from the Teacher Education Office.
5. Have PPST scores sent to Elon University and to the Department of Public Instruction in Raleigh.
6. Have an overall grade point average of at least 2.50. Maintain at least a 2.50 GPA throughout the program.
7. Be screened by the major department.
8. Attend the School of Education Induction Ceremony.
9. Only after a student has been unconditionally admitted to Teacher Education may he/she enroll in Education (EDU) courses at the 300-400 level.

II. Semester Prior to Student Teaching
1. Have an overall GPA of at least 2.50.
2. Apply for student teaching. Forms are available in the Teacher Education Office.

III. Semester of Student Teaching
1. Submit focused unit via Livetext.
2. Submit a professional portfolio via Livetext.

IV. At End of Student Teaching
1. Obtain licensure forms from the Teacher Education Office.
2. Clear all requirements with the Office of the Registrar.
