LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

A minor in Latin American Studies requires 20 semester hours selected from the following list of courses and others approved by the program coordinator. No more than twelve hours may be chosen from any one discipline. Up to twelve hours of study abroad courses that emphasize Latin American subject matter may count for the minor, as approved by the program coordinator.

20 sh

ANT 364  Inequality and Development in Latin America
ENG 335  Latin American Literature and Culture
GST 342  Gender and Environment in South America
HST 341  Modern Central American History
HST 350  History of Brazil
HST 351  History of Mexico
HST 353  Colonial Latin America
HST 354  Modern Latin America
POL 368  Latin American Politics
SPN 334  Latin American Civilization
SPN 335  Latinos in the U.S.
SPN 352  Survey of Latin American Literature
SPN 354  Studies in Latin American Literature
LAS 491  Independent Study
LAS 481  Internship in Latin American Studies
LAS 499  Research

TOTAL  20 sh

Language Proficiency:

Intermediate proficiency in the Spanish language is a concurrent requirement for the minor. This requires students to either pass the Spanish placement exam at the SPN 122 level, or pass SPN 122 for an additional 4 hours, or pass SPN 121 and SPN 122 for an additional 8 hours beyond the 20 hours required for the minor. Students using these courses to meet the concurrent requirement are advised to take them as early as possible.