It is strongly recommended that Political Science majors, in consultation with their advisor, select a sub-field or topical concentration of at least 12 semester hours at the 300 level and above. Sub-field and concentration courses will be chosen from among the 24 elective hours. With the approval of the student's advisor, up to four hours from outside the Political Science and Public Administration department may be applied toward the concentration. No more than eight (8) internship hours may be applied to the major.
