Semester Exchange Study Abroad

Program:

Kristianstad University

Sweden:

One of the five largest countries in Europe, Sweden offers much for international study. Kristianstad University, surrounded by water and green oasis, welcomes about 200 international students each semester to mix with 7,000 Swedish students.

Courses:

Kristianstad University offers courses in Behavioral Sciences, Business, Engineering, Health Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences, Mathematics and Sciences. Course listings are available through the Isabella Cannon Centre for International Studies website. Grades earned count toward an Elon GPA.

Dates/Applications:

Fall semester - Mid August to late January

Spring semester - Late January to early June

Students must complete the Elon University Study Abroad Application by the published deadline. Initial approval is granted by Elon and final acceptance is granted by Kristianstad University. Applications are accepted one semester in advance.

Housing:

Students will live in student housing, International House or Björkhem, where Swedish students and international students live together.

Eligibility:

A minimum GPA of 2.5 is required. Sophomore, junior or senior standing is also required.

Cost:

Cost details are on the next page. Need-based and research-based scholarships are available.
