General Costs

The cost of attending Elon University is purposely held at a reasonable level. The chart on the following pages gives the particular charges for resident and commuter students. Please note that there are special tuition rates for part-time students.

All students are reminded that payment of tuition and fees is your responsibility. Billing statements are available online at <https://ebill.elon.edu>. This site allows you to view bills and make payments 24 hours a day. Fall semester bills are posted the first of July and always due the first Friday in August. Spring semester bills are posted the first of December and always due the first Friday in January. Students not paid in full by registration day may have their class schedule deleted.

Payment of tuition bills with Mastercard, Discover and American Express cards will be assessed a 2.75% convenience fee. Visa credit/debit cards are not accepted as payment for the tuition bills. To avoid the fee, use online check/ACH, personal checks, wire transfers or other payment options. If you have questions, contact the Bursar's office at 877-729-3566 or bursar@elon.edu.

Costs Covered by Tuition

Included in the tuition fees are costs of registration, use of the library and recreational facilities, admission to home athletic events, admission to campus cultural events, student publications, post office box, regular laboratory fees and 12 to 18 semester hours of work, inclusive each semester.

The tuition, fees and estimated book expenses do not include fees for special courses and special laboratory work which depend on the course of study undertaken. Personal expenses vary with the individual student. For the student who must earn money toward his/her university expenses, a number of work opportunities are available through the Office of Career Services.

Students may take up to four (4) semester hours during Winter Term with no additional tuition charged provided that the student is full time during fall semester. (Students attending winter abroad will have separate trip costs charged to them). Students who do not attend Winter Term are only credited meal plan amounts not used during this time. Students who are not full time during the fall semester and register for winter courses will be charged winter tuition, which is calculated by the hour. If a student is full time for the following spring semester, then the full amount of the winter tuition (up to four hours) is credited to the student account.

The Meal Plan

All resident students are required to purchase a meal plan. The cost of the meal plans is established each spring, and students are notified in the summer. Students living off-campus are also welcome to purchase a meal plan, use the Phoenix Card (a debit card for use in dining halls, the Campus Shop and select off-campus locations) or purchase individual meals in any of the campus dining locations. The meal portion of the student's meal plan will roll over from semester to semester. This means that meals will roll over from fall to winter and winter to spring within the academic year.

For the spring semester, any unused meals from fall and winter semester will roll over to the spring semester after a two-week period as long as the student purchases the same meal plan or a plan of a greater value. Example: The meals a student receives during the first two weeks of spring semester will not include the rollover meals from the previous semester. After two weeks, the rollover meals will be added to the student's Phoenix Card and will be available to use. If the student reduces their meal plan, no roll over meals will apply.

Please remember that students have two weeks from the beginning of each semester to change their meal plan from one choice to another. Students may however add a new meal plan, if they did not have one before, at any time during the semester. After the deadline, a student is obligated to that meal plan for the academic semester unless leaving the university as the result of a withdrawal.

Book Expenses

The estimated cost of textbooks is $900 for the academic year, including $325 needed for purchases from the campus bookstore at the opening of fall semester.

Room Change Charge

Students changing rooms without permission of the Director of Residence Life are charged for both rooms.

Federal law requires the university to automatically refund any credit balance from a student account that was created by Title IV financial aid. Title IV aid is Stafford, Perkins, and Plus loans as well as SEOG, Pell and Contract grants. Credit may remain on your account to be applied to the next semester charges if you indicate so in writing. However, this credit can only be held on the account during the academic year (loan period) in which the aid was awarded.

If you do not wish to keep a refund, please return the refund (or remit payment online) along with written consent to Bursar's Office P.O. Box 398, Elon, N.C. 27244. Refunds cannot be applied back to your student account without this form signed and returned. For questions, please email bursar@elon.edu or call toll free 877-729-3566.

You may withdraw this authorization at any time. Upon such notice in writing, Elon will refund any excess back to you within 14 days. Refunds of Federal financial aid to the Department of Education in the case of reduced credit hours or withdrawal will be processed in accordance with regulations related to excess funds from the disbursement of federal Title IV grants and loans.

Financial Aid

Elon University is committed to assisting eligible students in securing the necessary funds for a college education. To the extent possible, eligible students receive aid through careful planning and various forms of financial assistance.

In order to receive any type of university, state or federal aid, students must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of degree requirements. No financial aid is offered until an applicant has been accepted for admission to Elon University; however, prospective first-year students should not wait to be accepted before applying for aid.

Financial aid programs vary by source, eligibility criteria and application procedures. While every effort is made to meet each student’s financial need, that is not always possible due to a limited amount of aid available. Students will be offered a financial aid “package,” which is an award consisting of one or more of the following types of aid: scholarships, grants, low-interest loans and campus employment. Scholarships and grants are “gift assistance,” which do not have to be repaid, while loans and work are referred to as “self-help.” Financial aid packages may consist of all self-help or a combination of self-help and gift assistance. Applying early for financial aid improves chances of receiving the maximum aid for which the student is eligible.

Financial Assistance Based on Need

There are a variety of need-based financial aid programs. The federal government, some states (including North Carolina) and the university itself offer grant, loan and work-study programs. Grants are funds which do not have to be repaid; loans to students are generally repayable only after the student is no longer enrolled; and work-study funds are earned through employment on campus. Many students use work-study funds to meet their personal financial needs during the school year.

All need-based financial aid is renewable up to four years provided the same level of need is demonstrated each year, the student maintains satisfactory academic progress as defined by the university for financial aid purposes, and the funds remain available. Renewal cannot be assured to those students whose financial aid application files are completed after mid-March of any year.

Federal Programs

Federal Pell Grant

For students with a high need, Pell Grants provide from $602 to $5,730 annually, subject to Federal appropriations.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants

Federal funds are given to and awarded by the university to students demonstrating high need. Preference is to students receiving Federal Pell Grant. Amounts vary.

Teach Grant Program

Up to $4,000 per year for students who intend to teach in public or private elementary or secondary school that serves students from low-income families.

Federal Stafford Student Loans (Subsidized)

Moderate interest loans are awarded directly to students by the Department of Education. First-year students may borrow up to $3,500 annually, sophomores up to $4,500 annually and juniors and seniors up to $5,500 annually. These loans are federally guaranteed, and no interest accrues nor is any payment due until six months after the student ceases to be at least a half-time student. Separate application is required.

Federal Perkins Loans

If available, these federal funds are given to and awarded by the university to students demonstrating high need. No interest accrues, and no payment is due while the student is enrolled at least half-time. Repayment begins nine months after the student ceases to be at least a half-time student. Amounts vary.

Federal Work-Study

Awarded to students with need who work on campus and who are paid according to hours worked. Awards vary based on amount of need. Students awarded Federal Work-Study are not guaranteed a job, and work-study earnings are not paid in advance, so they cannot be used to pay the direct costs (tuition, room, board) of the semester in which they are awarded.

State Programs

NC Need-Based Scholarship

The North Carolina Legislature appropriates funding for North Carolina residents who attend private colleges and universities. A student is automatically considered when they complete the federal FAFSA. The state of North Carolina determines eligibility and will notify Elon of the recipients and scholarship amounts. Scholarships range from $2,100 to $7,500 per year.

Pennsylvania, Vermont, Maryland and Rhode Island State Grants

Students who are residents of these states may receive these grants. Amounts vary. Please check with your State Department of Education.

Elon University Programs

In addition to the numerous federal and state programs, the university offers its own need-based assistance. Funds for these programs are provided directly by the university as well as through donations and gifts to the university by many individuals, businesses and foundations. All students who apply for need-based aid and who demonstrate need are automatically considered for these funds.

Institutional Grants

University grants are based solely on demonstrated need. Amounts vary in accordance with need.

PACE Program

Elon created the PACE program in 2011, to respond to the need for more financial support and allocated institutional funds to provide campus employment for students selected for the program. The earnings eligibility is $3,000 per academic year. A limited number of PACE positions are available. Further details are available at elon.edu/pace.

Need-Based Endowed Scholarships

Watson and Odyssey Scholars Programs

There are a number of need-based scholarships for incoming first-year students. Specific criteria must be met in order to receive one of these scholarships. Each of the scholarships listed below is housed within the Watson and Odyssey Scholars Programs. Students complete one application and are considered for all scholarships for which they are eligible. For consideration, students must submit the Watson and Odyssey Scholars Program application and recommendation form to the office of Admissions by February 10. Application and further details are available online at elon.edu/watson_odyssey.

In addition, each recipient will be awarded a $4,000 Elon Experiences grant to use for the Elon Experiences: research, study abroad, internships, service or leadership.

Financial Assistance Not Based on Need

There is help available for students and families who do not qualify for need-based aid. This help is in the form of scholarships, grants, loans and work-study. Listed below are some of the opportunities available from Elon, state and federal governments and outside sources.

UCC Ministerial Discount

$2,000 per year ($1,000 per semester) is awarded to full-time students who are legal dependents of full-time ministers in the United Church of Christ. Documentation of eligibility is required annually.

Presidential Scholarships

Presidential Scholarships of $4,500 will be awarded to approximately the top 15 percent of first-year students entering the fall semester of 2014. The awards are based on high school course selection, grades, SAT/ACT scores and class rank, if available. No separate application is needed. Scholarships are automatically awarded to students who meet the necessary criteria when the completed admissions application is reviewed. All Presidential Scholarships are renewable for a total of four years pending acceptable academic performance.

The Elon Engagement Scholarship

Every first-year applicant is a candidate for a $3,500 Elon Engagement Scholarship, which is renewable annually. In addition, each recipient receives a one-time $2,000 grant to be used for an approved Elon Experience or project, which is designed by the student. Selection is based on high school academic record, standardized test scores and application essay. The Elon engagement Scholarship is renewable annually pending acceptable academic performance. This scholarship may not be combined with the Presidential Scholarship.

Engineering Scholarships

Incoming first-year students who plan to major in Elon's dual-degree engineering program may compete for two $7,000 engineering scholarships awarded annually. A special application is required and must be postmarked by January 10. Selection is based on academic performance, letters of recommendation and an interview. Engineering scholarships are renewable annually and are awarded in addition to any Presidential Scholarship award already received. Contact the Office of Admissions for more information or an application. Applications are available online at elon.edu/e-web/admissions/engineering.xhtml.

Fine Arts Scholarships

The Departments of Music and Performing Arts award scholarships to outstanding first-year students on the basis of audition. The scholarship amounts vary. Contact the Departments of Music and Performing Arts at 336-278-5600.

Athletic Scholarships

In compliance with NCAA Division I regulations, athletic scholarships are awarded by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics in each sport offered at Elon. The awards are based on performance, and the amount varies. Contact the Athletics Department at 336-278-6800.

Reserves Officers' Training Corps (ROTC)

The U.S. Army and Air Force offer three- or four-year scholarships, which cover the costs of tuition and books. The scholarships are awarded according to merit, not financial need. The three-year scholarships begin paying sophomore year and students are responsible for all expenses the first year. Some scholarships have a tuition cap, which is below Elon University's tuition. Students will be responsible for the difference in tuition costs. In addition, Elon provides ROTC scholarship recipients, who are living in campus-based housing and have a meal plan, with a room and board grant equivalent to the cost of a double room and the All Access +7 meal plan during the time the ROTC scholarship pays tuition.

For more information, contact your high school guidance counselor or local Army or Air Force recruiter.

Yellow Ribbon Program

Elon University participates in the Post 9/11 G.I. Bill Yellow Ribbon Program. Ten $4,500 Yellow Ribbon Scholarships are awarded to incoming first-year students based on the order of Veteran's Administration Certifications received by the Office of the Registrar. When awarded, the Veteran's Administration then matches with an additional $4,500 in scholarship. The eligible veteran must first register with the Veteran's Administration for the Post 9/11 G.I. Bill and be deemed qualified for 100% benefits, and then contact the Office of the Registrar to certify for the Yellow Ribbon Program.

Private Scholarships

Foundations, service clubs, churches and corporations give away millions of dollars in scholarships each year to worthy students. Many Elon students receive this type of scholarship help in addition to other types of help they may be receiving.

Students generally seek these scholarships on their own. A good place to start is by asking your high school guidance office about community and other scholarships with which they may be familiar. Then ask about the availability of scholarships at places where family members are employed and through any organizations to which family members belong. Finally, go to the public library for guidebooks to scholarships from foundations, corporations and government agencies, or search the Internet for information on scholarship sources.

Fellows Scholarships

Elon's Fellows programs offer challenging academic and personal growth opportunities beyond the scope of the usual college experience — opportunities like travel grants, special courses, guaranteed internships or paid research assistantships. In addition, each of the Fellows programs offers scholarships to selected incoming Fellows. To be considered for one of these scholarships, students must apply and be admitted to the Fellows program. The scholarships are renewable for a total of four years provided that all program requirements are met. A student may apply for more than one Fellows program but will only be admitted to one program. In several Fellows programs, Fellows scholarships are awarded in addition to any Presidential Scholarship that has been received.

To receive more information and an application for the Fellows programs, contact the Office of Admissions or visit elon.edu/admissions. Applications must be postmarked by January 10. The admissions application must be submitted by the same date.

Honors Fellows Scholarships

Forty scholarships of $12,000 are awarded to first-year Honors Fellows each year.

Each year one outstanding incoming Honors Fellow will be named the Kenan Honors Fellow and receive a scholarship award covering full tuition. The Kenan Award replaces previously awarded merit scholarships. The Kenan Fellow will receive a one-time grant up to $3,000 for a study abroad experience as well as funding for one Pre-Orientation experience sponsored by the Office of Student Life for the summer before the freshman year.

Two Fellows from either the Honors, Elon College or the Isabella Cannon Leadership Program, who intend to major in the sciences and complete medical school, may compete for a $3,000 Baird Pre-Med Scholarship.

Elon College Fellows Scholarships

Fifty scholarships of $4,500 are awarded to incoming Fellows each year. All Elon College Fellows must major in the arts or humanities, social sciences or natural, mathematical or computational sciences. In addition, Elon College Fellows who intend to major in the sciences and complete medical school may compete for a $3,000 Baird Pre-Med Scholarship (See above).

Business Fellows Scholarships

Five scholarships of $4,500 and two scholarships of $4,000 are awarded to incoming Fellows each year. Business Fellows must major in either entrepreneurship, finance, international business, international economics, management, marketing, economics, international economics or accounting.

Communications Fellows Scholarships

Five scholarships of $4,500 are awarded to Fellows each year. Students must major in journalism or communications with an emphasis in either broadcast and new media, cinema, strategic communications or communications science.

Teaching Fellows Scholarships

Teaching Fellows awards are made to outstanding students who intend to pursue a career as educators. The Elon University Teaching Fellows scholarship is $4,500 annually, renewable for a total of four years. In addition, students participate in numerous special travel-learning experiences, including a semester in either London or Costa Rica. Twenty Teaching Fellows will be selected annually. Teaching Fellows recipients may retain the Presidential or Elon Engagement Scholarship if previously awarded.

Isabella Cannon Leadership Fellows Scholarships

Five scholarships of $4,500 are awarded to first-year Leadership Fellows each year. In addition, Isabella Cannon Leadership Fellows may compete for a $3,000 Baird Premedical scholarship.

Campus Employment

Many Elon students pay for some of their university living expenses by working a part-time job, either on or off campus. The opportunities for campus employment at Elon are available both to students who qualify for need-based assistance and to students who do not. Both IWSP- and FWSP- eligible students are responsible for securing their own jobs. The Elon Job Network, managed and operated by the Student Professional Development Center, contains postings of jobs for both FWSP and IWSP positions. Through this system, students may search and apply for jobs on campus and with outside partnering agencies. All students have access to the EJN system, which is found on the SPDC website.

Students in part-time jobs gain valuable experience, learn time-management skills, build friendships with the office personnel and, in certain cases with the approval of the Director of Experiential Education, receive internship credit.

Loan Options not Based on Need

Several sources of long-term loan funds are available that are based on credit worthiness rather than need.

Federal Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

Parents may borrow up to the cost of education (at Elon $41,914 for tuition, fees, room and board and $3,500 for books and miscellaneous expenses for 2014-15) less any other aid per academic year for each dependent enrolled at least half-time. The interest rate is fixed at 6.41 percent. Repayment is not deferred during the student's period of enrollment.

Federal Stafford Student Loans (unsubsidized)

This is available to all students regardless of need. Loan amounts are the same as for the need-based subsidized program. However, under this program, borrowers do not qualify for federal interest subsidy payments, thus interest accrues while the student is in school. Repayment of principal begins six months after the student is no longer enrolled half-time. The interest rate is currently 3.86 percent. Separate application is required. Note: Students must file an application for need-based financial aid to be considered for one of these loans. A determination must first be made that the student is not eligible for a need-based subsidized loan. (See “How to Apply for Need-Based Financial Aid.”)

How to Apply for Financial Aid

Note: The following filing dates will help you meet our priority deadline of mid March. Applications will be accepted after these dates, but funding cannot be guaranteed.

- As soon after January 1 as possible, but before mid February, complete and submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). All students applying for any kind of federal or institutional financial aid (except PLUS loans) must file the FAFSA. Elon’s federal Title IV School Code is 002927. The FAFSA is completed at fafsa.gov.
- If you wish to be considered for all aid programs (not just federal programs), you must complete the CSS Profile. You should complete and submit the application as soon after January 1 as possible, but no later than mid February. Elon’s CSS Code is 5183. The CSS is filed only as a freshman unless there are extreme financial changes. The CSS can be completed at profileonline.collegeboard.com.
- Complete an Elon University Financial Aid Application. This form may be submitted at any time but, like the forms listed above, it should be submitted before mid February. The form may be completed at elon.edu/finaid.
- First-year students wishing to apply for need-based endowed scholarships should refer to the information on page 23.
- Certain applications may require that Elon University request additional information. Respond to these requests as soon as they are made.
- Notify Elon’s Office of Financial Planning of any scholarships, grants, loans or other assistance you will be receiving from any source other than Elon University. Such notification is required by federal regulation as well as institutional policy and failure to do so may affect previously made financial aid offers.

Need-based Financial Aid Application Process for Continuing Students

Students must reapply for financial aid each academic year. Continuing students currently receiving financial aid will be sent a renewal financial aid packet sometime during late fall. The packet will contain those forms necessary to apply for aid for the following academic year. The CSS Profile is not required if a Profile was completed when the student was an entering freshman or transfer student. Specific instructions will be included as to how and when to complete the application process.
