Southern Documentary Fund (Durham, NC): Southern Documentary Fund (SDF) is a nonprofit organization that supports filmmakers and artists in the creation of documentaries made about the American South. This internship will offer a variety of tasks, including maintaining their social media sites, assisting with the planning and promotion of events and managing SDF’s project database. This is a wonderful opportunity for cinema and media arts students. This position begins in January and will run for 4-6 months. If interested, please send your resume, cover letter and three references to SDF Executive Director Rachel Raney at Rachel@southerndocumentaryfund.org

North Carolina Department of Administration (North Carolina, varies) PAID: The North Carolina Department of Administration is now accepting applications for the 2015 State Government Internship Program. This program provides students with experiences in their field and in public service. This internship is available to permanent North Carolina students who have completed their sophomore year of college. Deadline: January 16. For more information about this program, please visit: http://www.doa.state.nc.us/yaio/documents/interns/2015_Internship_Program_Booklet.pdf?id=635545982792292590

AP Global News Internship (varies) PAID: The Associated Press is offering editorial internships in 19 major cities throughout the world. This 12-week internship program is a tremendous hands on opportunity for students interested in pursuing a career in journalism. Interns will contribute to AP’s text, video, photo and interactive report by conducting interviews, tracking down information, maintaining social media accounts and contributing to the production of video stories. Juniors, seniors and graduate students are encouraged to apply. Please apply through this website: http://ch.tbe.taleo.net/CH09/ats/careers/requisition.jsp?org=AP&cws=1&rid=3938

Regan Communications (Boston, MA): Regan Communications has summer internships available to students interested in public relations, video production, graphic design and social media. This is one of the largest public relations firms in New England that has a range of advertising and marketing capabilities. For details on each internship program, please visit http://regancomm.com/contact-us/internships/

Sondheim Maryland Nonprofit Leadership Program (Maryland) PAID: This leadership program provides students with full-time paid internships at nonprofit organizations throughout Maryland. Each student will be advised by a mentor and attend seminars teaching them various leadership skills and techniques. Interested students should apply at http://shrivercenter.umbc.edu/nonprofitleadership/application/
Seacrest Studios (Charlotte, NC): Seacrest Studios is looking for enthusiastic summer interns who have prior experience in radio and broadcasting. This hands-on program allows interns to provide on-air content by conducting interviews, hosting shows, editing and designing graphics for the live shows created for patients at Levine Children’s Hospital. To apply, send a resume and cover letter to Mamie Shepherd at Meredith.Shepherd@carolinashealthcare.org

360PR (Boston, MA) PAID: 360PR has a digital media internship opportunity for students with strong creative and analytical thinking skills. Interns will assist in measuring success of campaigns, analyze data and help execute measurement plans for client projects. To apply, send a resume and cover letter to Debbie Grubstein at dgrubstein@360pr.com

WJLA (Washington, DC): WJLA has internships available in the news department: general assignment, sport, weather, production and web operations. This station located in Rosslyn will allow broadcast students to experience all phases of a television station’s day-to-day operations. This internship is available to junior or senior undergraduate students. Interested students should see Mrs. Tonkins and apply at https://sbgtvopenhire.silkroad.com/epostings/index.cfm?fuseaction=app.dspjob&jobid=2131&company_id=17011&version=1&jobBoardId=3338

BWR (New York, NY): The TV department at BWR is looking for an intern with an interest in entertainment public relations. Interns will assist with the collection of press clippings, update social media channels, provide press support at events and assist with daily managerial duties. If interested, please see Mrs. T and contact Sheryl Dennis at Sheryl.Dennis@bwr-pr.com

Trailblazer Studios (Raleigh, NC) PAID: Trailblazer studios is an award winning production, post and sound facility in Raleigh. This 8 week internship program is available to juniors and seniors and gives students experiences in each department (development, production, audio and post) due to a rotational schedule. At the end of the program, interns will collaborate to write, produce, edit and mix a short-form project. To apply, send your resume, cover letter and two letters of recommendations to intern@trailblazerstudios.com

5WPR (New York, NY): 5WPR is looking for summer public relations interns. In addition to the daily public relations responsibilities, interns will attend learning seminars throughout the programs duration. Any student interested in this great opportunity should send their application materials to internship@5wpr.com. For more details, go to http://www.5wpr.com/about5wpr/prfirminterns.cfm
Other News:

Hearst is accepting applications for their Journalism Fellows, who will begin in September 2015. The deadline to apply is Friday, January 9, 2015. Finalists will participate in an expenses-paid, two-day judging process in Houston in April. The goal of the Hearst Journalism Fellowships is to recruit, train and retain the next generation of journalists – top-notch multimedia professionals from a diverse pool of talented reporters, copy editors, photographers, designers and graphic artists. Those selected for the program will work one-year rotations at two sites, assigned from among the Houston Chronicle, San Francisco Chronicle, San Antonio Express-News, Albany Times Union and Connecticut Media Group. Fellows receive competitive salary and benefits, including health insurance and moving expenses. Apply at www.hearstfellowships.com.

Entries are now being accepted for the White House News Photographers Association 2015 Student “Eyes of History” contest which honors the best in student produced video and photography. Winners will receive an invitation to the awards gala in May 2015, a portfolio highlighted in a traveling exhibit and a spread in the awards book. Contest submissions are open until February 1, 2015. For more details, please visit http://www.whnpa.org/contests/student-eyes-of-history/

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Nagatha Tonkins
Assistant Professor/Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: www.internetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternship