McDonald’s (Oak Brook, IL): McDonald’s is the leading global foodservice retailer and is looking for a communications intern for the summer of 2014. The intern would assist with the product consulting services team. Daily tasks include data tracking and working in a team environment. For more information or to apply, please visit the following link: https://sjobs.brassring.com/TGWEbHost/jobdetails.aspx?jobId=351617&partnerid=25516&siteid=5221&codes=JB-Indeed

Seacrest Studios at Levine Children’s Hospital (Charlotte, NC): Seacrest Studios is a closed-circuit radio/television-multimedia center located inside Levine Children's Hospital. The Seacrest Foundation, developed by Ryan Seacrest, aims to help sick and injured children in the healing process through entertainment. Seacrest Studios is looking for communications or broadcast majors to apply for their summer 2014 internship program. A student meeting will be held with Seacrest Studios for the summer of 2014 on Monday, February 10th at 5p.m. at Levine Children’s Hospital in Charlotte. If you would like to learn more about the internship program, please visit the following link: http://ryanseacrestfoundation.org/intern-volunteer/. To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to LCHSeacrestStudio@carolinashealthcare.org.

D.C. Internships (Washington, D.C.): Have you always wanted to spend the summer interning in Washington, D.C.? The comprehensive programs sponsored by The Fund for American Studies include a guaranteed internship placement, courses for transferable credit, and furnished housing in downtown Washington. Students have the opportunity to be placed in companies that specialize in the following areas: international affairs organizations, media outlets, public affairs firms, government relations offices, and nonprofit organizations. More information on the program may be found at www.DCinternships.org. Applicants are encouraged to apply for the priority deadline of February 10, 2014 in order to receive preference in admissions and scholarship consideration.

Lilith Magazine (New York, NY) PAID: Lilith Magazine is a Jewish feminist magazine now in its 20th year and it is looking for interns. Interns at Lilith Magazine will be involved in every aspect of magazine publishing. Interns will receive a small stipend. If interested, please Contact Lilith Magazine, Internship Program, 250 W 57th St., Suite 2432, New York, NY 10107, 212-757-0818.

District of Columbia Office on African Affairs (Washington, D.C.): OAA’s internship program provides undergraduate students the opportunity to work in the public service sector. OAA is currently recruiting interns for the following positions: program intern, communications intern, special assistant intern, grants and research intern, and outreach intern. To learn more about internship opportunities, please visit the following link:
United Methodist Communications (locations may vary): United Methodist Communications is looking for interns for the summer of 2014. Interns will be granted the opportunity to work in their Nashville, New York, or Washington office. Interns may work in the following areas: communications resourcing, editorial, news writing, editing production, and more. If interested, please email Newtonia Coleman at ncoleman@umcom.org.

Wrigley (Chicago, IL): The Wrigley company is known for their product range including Extra®, Skittles®, Starburst®, Life Savers® and more. They are looking for a corporate affairs intern for the summer of 2014. The corporate affairs intern will work directly with the global corporate affairs team. This team plays an integral role at Wrigley by minimizing company risk. In interested, please visit the following link to learn more: http://mars.taleo.net/careersection/wwy2010/jobdetail.ftl?lang=en&job=568007&src=JB-11201

National Lesbian & Gay Journalists Association (Washington, D.C.): The National Lesbian & Gay Journalists Association (NLGJA) is looking for interns for the summer of 2014. This is an ideal opportunity for anyone interested in non-profit management, news media and/or LGBT issues. The intern will be responsible for assisting with the planning of various NLGJA events, manage their social media accounts, respond to inquiries from NLGJA members or the public, and perform daily administrative tasks. For more information on the program or to learn how to apply, please visit the following link: http://www.nlgja.org/students/internship

FleishmanHillard (New York, Chicago, and more!): FleishmanHillard is the world’s most complete global communications firm, specializing in public relations, public affairs, marketing, paid media, and social content. They are looking for applicants for their summer 2014 internship program. They are offering internship opportunities in the following areas: corporate & public affairs, business to business, media relations, video production, digital, and new business. For more information or to apply, please visit the following link: http://fleishmanhillard.com/careers/internships/

Elon Office of Health Promotion (not for credit) PAID: The Elon Office of Health Promotion is looking for a student to help create their department logo. The office is offering $200 for someone to design the logo. Guidance on conceptual ideas will be given, but graphic design/creative skills are necessary and. If you are interested in helping please email Amanda Parker at aparker19@elon.edu with some of your design examples.

Other News:
Mark your calendars! Spring is here and that means Three Great Internship Fridays are right around the corner. INTERNSHIP PREP SEMINARS are REQUIRED for all first academic interns. Come network with communications professionals at the Speed Networking & Lunch March 14, and gain insight into the world of communications. The dates for TGIF are: March 14th, April 4th, and May 9th. Registration is available at the Internship website. Stay posted for more details!

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Assistant Professor / Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: www.internnetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternships