World Traveler Interns will traverse the globe experiencing a number of travel adventures and showcasing their experiences daily via a journal/blog, video and podcasts. They will be responsible for describing everything they do and experience with the ultimate goal of inspiring other students and young people to become World Travelers! Responsibilities: Capturing amazing video footage and photos, interviewing fellow travelers and locals, and showcasing your travel experiences to other fellow travelers through video, travel journal/blogs, podcasts, song & dance, etc. You’ll travel through South America, Australia, Asia, and Europe capturing the essence of life as a World Traveler.
http://www.worldtravelerintern.com/about/

The Palm Beach Post has two 12-week reporting internships (1 metro, 1 business) in the summer of 2010, and three 16-week internships for fall 2010: two for photography, one for sports writing. Paid internship: $475/week. http://www.palmbeachpost.com/search/content/info/internships.html

The Burlington Royals Baseball Club, proud members of the Appalachian League, anticipates several internship positions available during the upcoming spring/summer of 2010. If you are interested in learning how a minor team league operates, this would be an excellent opportunity to develop your skills and knowledge in an atmosphere that encourages learning and active participation. Interns become involved in all aspects of the organization, including on-field promotions, media relations, ticket and promotional sales, community relations, and office management. If interested, please submit a cover letter and résumé to sbrice@burlingtonroyals.com www.burlingtonroyals.com

The Eastern Music Festival (Greensboro) is offering a summer internship in Public Relations and Marketing. The public relations and marketing intern will apply basic public relations techniques and communication skills to promote the Eastern Music Festival during its summer season. The PR/Marketing Intern will be involved in the preparation of press releases, the coordination of media coverage for the festival’s events, interaction with publicity representatives, public service announcements, internet coverage, mass email communication, media calls, print advertising, the distribution of collateral materials, and more. Stipend: $900 + room and board. To apply, visit www.EasternMusicFestival.org

Bayer Marketing Intern (Pittsburgh, PA). The Marketing Department is currently seeking an intern for the summer semester at its Pittsburgh, PA location. The primary responsibility of this role is to assist experienced team members with accounts, product lines and customer base within the company's many product lines. Also, assist marketing professionals and/or managers with servicing existing product plans or businesses, and participate in market research analysis. www.mybayerjob.com
Hyde Park Communications (Washington DC). Specialty public affairs/public relations firm specializing in health care, litigation and crisis communications is seeking a summer intern. Clients include leading pharmaceutical and health care companies, trade associations, financial companies and non-profit organizations. The paid intern will assist with client engagements and firm projects. Learn the public relations business through hands-on experience in a small, dynamic firm. www.hydeparkcomm.com
Email: humanresources@hydeparkcomm.com

Volunteering Solutions (Ghana) offers a unique opportunity for its volunteers to do an internship at a FM Radio Channel in Ghana. The program is particularly suited for those students who want to pursue their career in the field of journalism. Our electronic media program consists of placement as a new caster on a local FM station, a reporter with an FM station or a program host. Radio internship allows you to work as volunteer with a commercial local fm radio station in Kumasi. As an intern you will get to experience a variety of roles at the station, including reading news on the air, researching news stories, interviewing newsmakers, producing segments, writing copy for the air, and attending press conferences. http://www.oneworld365.org/company/volunteering-solutions/journalism-internship-program-in-ghana

NPR Radio (Washington DC) is seeking talented students to work in challenging internship positions throughout the organization. Our internships offer hands-on opportunities to impact NPR and public radio. And, we work with our interns to help them develop skills in their chosen areas and network with staff and individuals in their professions. We are now accepting applications for the summer, 2010 semester. The application deadline is February 15, 2010. http://www.npr.org/about/jobs/intern/

The Newspaper Track of the IHS Journalism Internship Program offers the opportunity to gain reporting experience and expand your professional network working for a daily newspaper. During the internship, you'll get to report rather than merely fetch coffee! The average intern walks away with at least twenty clips. The internships take place during the spring, summer and fall. Eight-week internship with a $3,200 stipend and a travel allowance (interns must obtain their own room and board). Also, includes participation in our weeklong summer workshop, Journalism & the Free Society (including travel assistance), and mentoring from IHS program staff. http://www.theihs.org/ContentDetails.aspx?id=547

The DC Film Alliance offers various intern positions throughout the year in arts administration, sales and marketing, and festival planning. Interns receive significant, hands-on experience working with our expanding and dynamic non-profit arts group. The DC Film Alliance serves and strengthens the media arts in the greater Washington DC region by bringing together filmmakers and the public to participate in diverse film, video, television, and multimedia programs. Major programs include the annual DC Shorts Film Festival, the DC Film Salon, and a web-based Central Film Calendar and Resource Bank. http://www.dcfilm.org/about/internships.html

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336