ABC7, the number one station in Los Angeles, is seeking News Apprentices for freelance employment. Responsibilities include supervising printing and distribution of newscast scripts, courier duties (own car required), and other production duties as required by newscast producer. Shifts are varied and work will include some evenings, early mornings and weekends.
http://abclocal.go.com

The Carolina Hurricanes Career Fair will showcase variety of sports internships at the RBC Center on February 26, 2009. Don’t miss this opportunity to meet with leaders of professional sports franchises, sports marketing and broadcasting companies, as well as staffing and recruiting agencies. Organizations in attendance will include the Carolina Hurricanes/RBC Center, Charlotte Bobcats, Lowe’s Motor Speedway, Durham Bulls, USA Baseball, Wolfpack Sports Marketing, 99.9 The Fan, Charlotte Knights, Atlanta Hawks, Atlanta Thrashers, Westaff, Corestaff, Quality Staffing, Unicorn Staffing, Staff Masters and many more! Register online before it fills up!
http://hockeyjobs.nhl.com/teamwork/r.cfm?i=23001

Cox Enterprises, one of the nation’s leading media companies and providers of automotive services, offers paid part-time corporate communications internships beginning in May/June 2009 and January 2010. This is a fun team environment and provides great experience in a corporate setting. Responsibilities include both external and internal communications writing assignments, media monitoring, event assistance and administrative support. Current public relations, communications and journalism students preferred. Send resume and three writing samples to Jami Buck at jami.buck@coxinc.com. No phone calls please.
www.coxinc.com

The Freedom Forum offers internship opportunities beginning in June, September and January in both its Arlington (VA) and Nashville (TN) locations. The Freedom Forum is a nonpartisan foundation dedicated to free press, free speech, and free spirit for all people. Applicants should have education and interest in the news media, broadcasting, history, the First Amendment, diversity or event planning. Freedom Forum interns will be paid $11 per hour. Please send your resume, a letter of interest and the names and contact points of three references to the appropriate Human Resources department:
internsarlington@freedomforum.org

Georgia Aquarium, the world’s largest aquarium, seeks individual with excellent written and oral communication skills and strong computer skills for internship. Internship responsibilities include researching and writing internet marketing pieces, press releases, newsletter articles and web site content; assisting in photo and film shoots, media interviews and site visits; coordinating promotional opportunities with media; updating databases; participating in department and staff meetings; and attending special events. Applicants must be of junior or senior status with major coursework toward a degree in Public Relations, Communications, Journalism or English. Interested candidates should email cover letter and resume to Ashley Payne at apayne@georgiaaquarium.org. Deadline: March 1.
www.georgiaaquarium.org

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336 (More internships on back)
The Jedi Academy Program at LucasFilms (California) is a summer internship program that runs between May and September for up to 16 weeks in each of the Lucas companies. We are looking for junior undergraduate students to work across our divisions at three of our Bay Area locations: The Presidio in San Francisco, Skywalker Ranch and Big Rock Ranch in Nicasio, California. Internship positions include game programming and engineering, game art, R&D engineering, software engineering, information technology, web development, marketing, licensing and production. All internship positions are paid. All applicants must apply online by completing a profile at http://jobs.lucasfilm.com. Deadline: February 28. www.lucasfilm.com

Mullen’s Winston-Salem, NC office seeks undergraduates & graduate applicants for the 2009 Summer Internship Program. A summer intern will work with a specific department, partner with a designated employee who will serve as their mentor, attend presentations by agency leaders, and participate in a mock new business pitch. All summer interns will be paid. Deadline for submission is March 2. No phone calls, please. http://www.mullen.com/winston_salem/jobs/internships

The Niche Publications Department of the Winston-Salem Journal is looking for a summer intern to write stories for the annual City Guide, a publication about Winston-Salem and its surrounding communities. This internship is writing-intensive, with responsibilities including. The candidate should be detail-oriented and have strong writing skills, knowledge of AP style and a commitment to accuracy. The internship usually runs from mid-May through mid-August. Interested applicants should send a resume and at least three writing samples. For more information and to apply please email Tammy Holoman at tholoman@wsjournal.com.

Northside Hospital’s Marketing & Public Relations Department (Atlanta, GA) offers internships throughout the year for current students and recent graduates. Duties include writing articles/taking photos for hospital publications, writing press releases, designing flyers and planning and implementing special events. Candidates must have good academic performance and excellent written and oral skills. Desktop publishing/design experience required. Junior and senior applicants only. Send cover letter, resume and writing/design samples for consideration to katherine.watson@northside.com

Solvay Pharmaceuticals (Atlanta, GA) seeks a full-time Corporate Communications summer intern to assist with external communications, internal communications, community relations, Web site content management and intranet support. The internship offers extensive writing opportunities and the chance to learn about the pharmaceutical industry. Internship lasts 10 weeks and is paid. Sophomore, junior and senior candidates with a degree in public relations or communications are encouraged to apply. Resumes and strong writing samples are due by March 20, 2009 to Jessica Riley at Jessica.riley@solvay.com.

Spectrum Science Communications (Washington, DC and New York City), a full-service health communications public relations firm, seeks both Public Relations and Public Affairs/New Media interns at their Washington, DC and New York City offices. All internships are full-time and paid. Visit http://www.spectrumscience.com. Deadline: April 1.

The St. Pete Times Forum & Tampa Bay Lightning (Tampa, FL) is Tampa’s premier entertainment venue. Home to the 2004 Stanley Cup Champion Tampa Bay Lightning and five-time Arena Bowl Champions Tampa Bay Storm, the arena hosts the top music acts, family shows, and college athletics. Students participating in the internship program will receive hands-on learning experiences on the operations of a professional sports team and arena. All positions will be expected to work 32-37.5 hours per week. http://lightning.nhl.com/

Twix is looking to award a college student with a week-long internship with TBS at the “Very Funny” Festival in Chicago this summer (hosted by Ellen DeGeneres). Perfect for future comedians, actors, communications majors and the like. A $3000 prize will be awarded to the funniest video submission. Applicants can sign up and upload their video at www.funnieststudent.twix.com. Please contact Judith A. Heath at jheath@dow.com for more information http://www.hahaha.com/en/festival_tmp/70/

The Burlington Times-News offers internships year round on both editorial and online teams. For summer and fall semester internships, job responsibilities would include: Shooting and editing video, updating Web site, writing stories and taking photos. Basic web design and video skills will be taught. Anyone interested can contact Online Editor Alex Kreitman at 336-506-3037 or by e-mail: alex_kreitman@link.freedom.com.