Washington Journalism Center (Washington DC) There is no better place or time to be for hard-hitting news than in Washington, D.C., and there is no better way to get your foot in the door than with an internship with the National Journalism Center. The 12-week program combines weekly seminars, assigned reporting drills, and working journalism through internships. Interns typically work 3-4 days per week at a news outlet, which could include evening and weekend hours, and spend one day per week at the National Journalism Center participating in the training workshop. Fall Deadline: April 1. http://www.wcpj.org/application/application.asp

Cartoon Network Digital Production (Atlanta, GA) Intern will assist producers with various production activities as needed. Handle archiving, asset organization, retrieval and distribution of assets for producers; attend meetings; assist in distribution of information among team members and to external vendors; help with the production of online events and/or new product development; retrieve and organize stats for various online events; log issues in bug tracking system; light QA testing of products on the live site. https://careers.timewarner.com/en/asp/tg/cim_jobdetail.asp?partnerid=391&siteid=36&AReq=116620 BR&Codes=NDEM

Cox Communications (Atlanta, GA) Fantastic Summer Intern opportunity to learn about the broadband telecommunications and entertainment industries with the nation’s 3rd largest cable television company. The intern will assist Cox’s New Media Product Development team with daily operations, with a focus on our New Product Development group. The intern will be required to utilize Microsoft Office for communications, data input and retrieval and perform related work as required. The internship offers access to strategic product development and execution that will support employment candidacy upon graduation. http://www.cox.com/coxcareer/career_mktg.asp

Summer Work Immersion Program (Seville, Spain) This program is ideal for students looking for a six week international internship over the summer (120 hours of work in situ) and have intermediate to advanced Spanish language skills. GlobalEd’s summer internship program in Seville, Spain provides work opportunities in a variety of fields performing a wide range of projects. http://www.internabroad.com/listingsp3.cfm/listing/64505

Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Los Angeles, CA) The Summer Internship Program provides more than 40 industry-wide internships to college and graduate students from across the country, and has been hailed for more than a decade as one of the top ten internships in the country. The program is designed to provide college students with in-depth exposure to professional television production during an eight-week summer period in Los Angeles. http://emmysfoundation.org/how-apply-0

Northrup Grumman (Rolling Meadows, IL) Assist Manager of Division Communications and her team with related campus activities supporting the VP & GM to include special events, employee service activities, and community outreach activities in addition to one or two special projects. Additional duties will include assisting the employee communications, employee services and marcommunications trade show leads with the following: writing for the News, Intranet postings, Circuit magazine, drafting releases, database activities for community outreach programs, etc. Also some miscellaneous clerical activities will be needed.

Follow Productions (New York, NY) We are looking for several individuals to intern in our production office ASAP. We are a TV production company that produces lifestyle TV shows. Job will include office work, answering audience requests, running errands, research, assisting with production preparation and a myriad of other things required to get a show up and running. No experience necessary. Just an upbeat, fresh attitude is all we require from you. See Mrs. Tonkins to apply.

http://www.entertainmentcareers.net/Follow_Productions/Internship/job/104914

The Harold Burson Summer Internship (HBSI) Program (Washington DC) is a paid internship where students work closely with experienced industry professionals. HBSI interns are given the opportunity to work as a team member, while gaining valuable work experience. Colleagues from different specialty areas of Burson-Marsteller conduct seminars for interns each week. Interns are also grouped into teams where they work on a special HBSI project, which they present to a senior management panel for review at the conclusion of the internship. The summer internship offers an invaluable career-development experience that can often lead to an employment opportunity with us after graduation. Deadline has passed, but application materials should be sent immediately to alum Megan Kirkpatrick at mekirkpat@gmail.com. Application information is available at http://burson-marsteller.com/Careers/Internships/Pages/The_Harold_Burson_Summer_Internship_Program(US).aspx.aspx)

Wilson Realty Group (Raleigh, NC) is looking for a PR/social media intern. Some tasks will include working on the company’s website, using social media to reach out to the public, creating press releases, a blog, and video testimonials/video blogs. Send cover letter and resume’ to Ashley Wilson at ashley@wilsonrealtygroupnc.com.

Noah’s Ark Whitewater Rafting Co. (Buena Vista, CO) The position requires filming for marketing purposes, and for an end of the summer staff video that has become a staple of the staff experience. Intern may film rock climbing groups or backpacking groups to encapsulate the people we are trying to market. Interns usually meet with our operations manager, river manager, and adventure program manager to see what customer groups will be in that week that would be good to film. The rest of the duties have to fit around that. When they are not getting that footage they can be getting B-roll or editing. If interested, email cover letter and resume’ to amy@noahsark.com.

WQED Multimedia (Pittsburgh, PA) offers comprehensive, challenging non-paid internships in TV Production, Radio, Communications, Business & Revenue, Educational Resources, and Publishing to college students seeking knowledge and experience in the Multimedia industry. Internships are offered for college credit, and past interns have been offered positions with the company when available.

http://www.wqed.org/about/interns.php

Check out the new blog: www.internnetwork.wordpress.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336