UNC-TV (Research Triangle Park, NC) is looking for student interns with proficient design skills and artistic vision. The internship is for an in-house Broadcast Design Department, which services a wide variety of clients locally, state wide, and nationally. Sample projects include animation, logo design, creative briefs, broadcast layout and typography and more. Applicants must have experience in at least two of the following: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, AfterEffects, Final Cut Pro, Flash, InDesign, and MAYA. For more information contact Resa Toeller at rtoeller@unctv.org. Apply to Margaret White at mwhite@unctv.org.

TCL Institute (Cary, NC) is a medical education and communications company that works closely with a wide range of academic, professional and business organizations to create, disseminate and evaluate continuing medical education for physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and other healthcare professionals. The best candidate will have knowledge of online PR, use of social networking to drive traffic to a website, and will be able to work independently once given a clear understanding of the goals and resources. A science background and/or interest in healthcare public relations as a career is a plus. Send resume and cover letter to Nancy McMeekin: nmmcmeekin@gmail.com

Rock 92.3 (Greensboro, NC) Weather Dave is looking for an intern to help put on the 2010 Summertime Brews Festival. If you are a Jr. or Sr. in college, eligible for an internship and can get college credit, at least 21 years old, like PR, event planning or broadcasting...you’re eligible! Must be available for BOTH Summer sessions 20+hours/week! Will look great on a resume! Fill out an intern application and send to dave@rock92.com.

Religion and Ethics NewsWeekly (Washington, D.C.) is currently looking for full-time fall interns who would be interested in doing a little bit of everything here at R&E. R&E Interns go out on shoots with our producers, work on online stories that are published on our website, research stories and transcribe video for our weekly segments among other things. If you are interested in this type of internship or have any questions, please forward your cover letter and resume and contact information to Michael Scheidt at ScheidtM@religionethics.org

Jive Records (New York) is looking for a summer intern. Candidates must be hard working and dedicated and have a strong knowledge and interest in the music business. Send resume and cover letter to Nagatha Tonkins at cominternships@elon.edu
Trone Advertising (High Point, NC) The Broadcast Production Intern will assist the Broadcast Producer with all aspects of production. This intern will learn the basics of scheduling and time management, organization, the creative process, the production process and how production works with the agency overall. We anticipate that this intern will learn how to organize and maintain a reel library, maintain vendor list and capabilities, how to create production schedules and book vendor sessions, to update job files, work with copy scripts, record meeting notes and prep for shoots. Send resume and cover letter to Allison White at awhite@trone.com

Harbor Hospital Marketing and Community Relations Intern (Baltimore, MD) A junior or senior English, communications, public relations, marketing or related major who will assist the Harbor Hospital marketing and community relations department in the following areas: creation of news articles for internal publications, news releases, monthly health columns for local papers, fliers for internal promotion, support for community outreach seminars and Web updates. The intern’s responsibilities may be altered based on the needs of the department and the intern’s requests. The internship lasts one semester, and the intern is paid in the form of a stipend and school credit. Send resume and cover letter to megan.long@medstar.net.

WTVD-TV (Durham, NC) Interns working with the I-Team are chosen because they show initiative, intelligence and have a passion for investigative journalism. Past students who have interned with us say they look at their "real world" experience as one with great insight on building the components for an investigative story. Our interns have a variety of responsibilities including gathering research on breaking news and investigative stories, shadowing reporters working on daily stories, participating in "hidden camera" shoots, and generating and develop investigative stories. To apply, contact Silvia Gambardella at silvia.gambardella@abc.com.

The Center for Documentary Studies at Duke University is looking to fill two Web Marketing and Publicity internships this summer. CDS teaches, engages in, and presents documentary work grounded in collaborative partnerships and extended fieldwork that uses photography, film/video, audio, and narrative writing to capture and convey contemporary memory, life, and culture. CDS values documentary work that balances community goals with individual artistic expression. CDS promotes documentary work that cultivates progressive change by amplifying voices, advancing human dignity, engendering respect among individuals, breaking down barriers to understanding, and illuminating social injustices. CDS conducts its work for local, regional, national, and international audiences. Send resume to csims@duke.edu. Applications received by 6 p.m. on Wednesday, March 31 will be given preference.

Provident-Integrity Distribution (Franklin, TN) is seeking interns for Provident Music Group. Interns are needed for the following: Mainstream/Christian/International Sales & Marketing, Essential/Reunion/Flicker Records Marketing and Event Planning, Praise Hymn Soundtracks, Promotions, and Publicity. Go to http://providentmusic.com/pgs/interns.aspx for more information and for the application.

Check out the new blog: www.internnetwork.wordpress.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336