Scripps Howard Entrepreneurship Grant (NY, varies) PAID: Interested in entrepreneurship? The Scripps Howard Foundation has again provided the SOC with one grant for an entrepreneurial internship. The selected student will receive a $3,000 grant and a $500 scholarship. Last year, our SH intern was at DreamIt Ventures, a New York accelerator company (http://www.dreamitventures.com). DreamIt Ventures has agreed to host another Elon student this year; however, you are not limited to this company. Please email cominternships@elon.edu for an application. The deadline to apply is April 11.

The White House (Washington, D.C.): The White House Internship Program is now taking applications for the fall of 2014. The program provides a unique opportunity to gain valuable professional experience and build leadership skills. This hands-on program is designed to mentor and cultivate today’s young leaders, strengthen their understanding of the Executive Office and prepare them for future public service opportunities. The White House Internship Program’s mission is to make the “People’s House” accessible to future leaders from around the nation. To learn more about the program or to apply, please visit the following link: http://www.whitehouse.gov/about/internships.

The Chautauquan Daily (Chautauquan, NY): The Chautauquan Daily is looking for journalism students to apply for their summer internship program. As the official newspaper of the Chautauqua Institution, the Daily reaches a group of informed and critical readers like no other community newspaper in the United States. They need interns interested in news and feature writers, photography, news design and copy editing from June 10–Aug. 22. For more information on the program or to apply, please visit the following link: http://chqdaily.com/.

The Network- A Marcus Graham Project PAID: TBWA\Chiat\Day is part of a network of 267 creative shops throughout the world. They seek to create and manage brand behavior through disruptive ideas brought to life across the Media Arts landscape. They are behind iconic brands and legendary ad campaigns such as Apple and Pepsi. They are looking for a social media intern for the summer of 2014. The intern will be responsible for conducting trending topic reports, researching the competitive landscape, brainstorming ideas for social media strategy, and more! If interested, please send your resume, cover letter, @TwitterName and #InstagramUsername to Darren.Nesbitt@tbwachait.com. The Office of University Communications is looking for two full-time students to work on publications projects this summer. They are looking for strong writers and editors who have been through the media writing program. Journalism or strategic communications majors are best suited. If you would like to learn more about this opportunity, please contact Dan Anderson at andersd@elon.edu.

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.
