LIN Television Corporation is offering the LIN Minority Scholarship and Training Program designed to educate and train outstanding minority students interested in a career in broadcast television. LIN Television will pay the following: University expenses not to exceed $20,000 per school year for tuition and fees, books, and room and board. LIN will also provide paid internship and post graduation employment at a LIN station. The student will sign a 4-year contract with LIN, 2 years as an intern and a minimum of 2 years as an employee. Applications must be postmarked by March 15, 2010.

For more information about LIN Television go to its site at www.lintv.com or contact Rosetta Rolan at (757) 673-5314 or rosetta.rolan@lintv.com

Although the deadline has passed, Trone is still looking for an Elon intern! The internship would last between August 31 and December 4, 2009. Interns at Trone can expect to work closely with an account or department and will be exposed to the ins and outs of not only the agency world, but also the client’s business. They undergo a variety of assignments and tasks to make sure they have a broad and fulfilling experience. http://www.trone.com/index.php/our-culture/employment/internship-program/

Kristy Kennedy, Account Executive, Trone, 336.812.2054, k kennedy@trone.com

Abasto Magazine will reach 50,000 Latin American restaurants and tiendas across the country. Please visit www.abastoonline.com. Interns are needed to interview and write restaurant reviews in the local Greensboro and Elon area. Travel expenses will be paid. Please contact Justin Chin at j chin@abasto.us about this opportunity.

WGHP-TV Fox8 in High Point is searching for fall sports interns who will help with Friday Night Football! Get lots of hands on experience and build your resume’ tape by contacting Timmy Hawks at 336 821-1181 or send your resume’ to tim.hawks@wghp.com.

Social Media Internships with Ivars, Inc. Located in Graham, NC, IVARS deals with delivering brand visibility to its clients. Contact Corbin Sapp, 336-227-9683. Check out its NEW and IMPROVED website www.ivarsinc.com http://ivarsinc.logomall.com

Leapfrog Marketing, PR, and Design is a firm that takes pride in a unique and progressive approach to integrated communications; it is also a firm noted for fostering an outstanding work-life balance. Think you’re ready to land in Leapfrog Marketing, PR and Design? Please send a cover letter (including salary requirements) and resume to: Amy Pitts, Leapfrog Marketing | PR | Design, 3406D West Wendover Avenue, Greensboro, NC 27407. (W) 336.544.2903

(More on back)
Fall sports interns needed at WFMY News 2 in Greensboro. Enterprising individuals who have a general knowledge of editing (will be taught Avid), a general knowledge of writing for the web, and of course a dedication to the profession and their future. Must work Friday nights, as it’s our Friday Football Fever Show. It’s hard work, but a great way to boost your resumes’. Call Brian (336) 675-7275 or email at bformica@wfmy.com

City of Greensboro-Channel 13 Station: An intern’s duties would include updating the on-air bulletin board, assisting on video shoots and live meetings, logging tapes, writing scripts, editing and various other production responsibilities as needed. Contact David Brown, Channel 13 Station Manager, Public Affairs Department, City of Greensboro, PO Box 3136, Greensboro, NC 27402 Phone: (336) http://www.greensboro-nc.gov

Institute for Humane Studies is offering an eight week PAID reporting internship for students interested in radio, broadcast, or print journalism. Past placements include 20/20, Orange County Register, MSNBC, CNN, New York Sun. Spring deadline: Nov. 1; Summer deadline: Jan. 31. www.TheIHS.org/journalism.

The Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press seeks student journalist interns to write about U.S. Supreme Court cases involving press freedom and related issues for our magazine, The News Media and the Law, our Web site, www.rcfp.org and our guidebooks that assist working journalists to navigate the law in their reporting. $2,000 stipend. Applications are best sent by January 31 for the Summer term; May 31 for Fall; and October 31 for Spring, but are accepted anytime on a rolling basis until all positions are filled. Apply at www.rcfp.org/interns.html

Scripps Howard Foundation Semester in Washington Program is seeking six interns, including one international student, to work as reporters for the Scripps Howard Foundation Wire in its downtown Washington bureau. Stipend and free housing in furnished apartments in Northwest Washington near the National Zoo are provided. The deadlines are Oct. 1 (for the January-April term), and March 1 (for the June-August term). http://shfwire.com/

Associated Press offers a highly selective, 12-week PAID, individually tailored training program for students who are aspiring business, financial, human resources, marketing and technology professionals. A minimum of two of the positions are offered to photographers or photo editors. The application deadline for the summer 2010 program is Nov. 13, 2009. http://www.ap.org/apjobs/internship.html

Washington Center for Politics & Journalism has full-time, 16-week internships at major news bureaus in Washington, D.C. Twice-weekly seminars in all aspects of politics, featuring top national political reporters, elected and party officials, political consultants and operatives, and interest group leaders. $3,000 stipend. No tuition or fees. http://www.wcpj.org/application/poster.pdf

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins
Director, Internships / External Relations
School of Communications
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336