September 4, 2015

Carolina Hurricanes (Raleigh, NC) The Carolina Hurricanes are looking for a marketing and digital media intern to assist their Web Producer and Social Media Marketing Specialist with coordinating, producing and moderating content for the 2015-2016 season. Interns will work to produce content for CarolinaHurricanes.com as well as the team’s social media platforms. To apply, visit the NHL career page.

National Women’s Law Center (Washington, DC) The National Women’s Law Center is looking for spring and summer media interns who is interested in public policy, media and women’s issues. Interns would work with the Communications staff on media monitoring and analysis, maintaining press lists, writing press documents and media research projects. If interested, visit the company's careers page for more information. To apply, submit a cover letter, resume, three supervisory or academic references and the semester you are applying for to humanresources@nwlc.org with the position title in the headline.

Atlantic Media (Washington, DC) AtlanticLIVE, the live events and conference arm of The Atlantic Magazine, is looking for a dynamic and creative editorial events intern to assist in the development, marketing and production of a wide range of editorial events. Interns will learn the business behind media industry events and experience first-hand the critical role that communications, research and organization play in their execution. Minimum of 20 hours per week is required. If interested, visit the company’s careers page for more information and to apply.

LewisPR (Burlington, MA) LewisPR is looking for an ambitious, self-motivated intern to join one of the fastest growing tech PR agencies in the United States. Interns must have outstanding written and verbal communications skills with an interest in media and technology. A commitment of at least six months is required. For more information and to apply, visit the company’s careers page.

Michael Kors (New York, NY) Michael Kors is looking for a fall public relations intern to assist their public relations team with press clippings, company reports, print/digital content and much more. Candidates must be highly skilled with Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint. Minimum commitment of 4-5 days a week preferred. For more information and to apply, visit the company’s career page.

Scripps Network (New York, NY) The Food Network and Cooking Channel is looking for a PAID fall public relations intern. Applicants must be a junior or senior with a minimum GPA of 3.0. Must have strong writing and communications skills and photography experience/knowledge is a plus. Applications are due by September 24. If interested, visit the company’s internship page for more information and to apply.
Mashable (New York, NY) Mashable is looking for an ambitious and motivated corporate communications intern for their PAID fall 2015 internship program. Interns will learn the fundamentals of corporate communications, media relations and strategic communications. Must be able to work 40 hours/week. For more information and to apply, visit the company’s careers page.

Zappos (Las Vegas, NV) Zappos is already looking for summer 2016 marketing and public relations interns. Must be willing to relocate to Las Vegas for the summer, but housing is provided along with free food and drinks on campus, social events throughout the internships and a 40% discount on zappos.com Interns will get a front row seat to everyday functions of marketing, public relations and brand awareness by helping the team plan and execute media outreach, create comprehensive marketing plans, launch meaningful brand integrations and much more. For more information, and how to apply visit the company’s careers page.

LiveNation Entertainment (Hollywood, CA) Live Nation Entertainment is looking for a content marketing intern who is interested in copy writing, photo editing, platform and custom content management systems. Interns will receive first-hand experience with live music research, writing blog posts and contributing to editorial ideas and community management. Interns must have an avid interest in the music industry, and be willing to work 20-40 hours per week. To apply, visit the company’s careers page.

Miramax (Santa Monica, CA) Miramax is looking for a fall 2015 development intern. Interns will be responsible for the discovery of projects with artistic and commercial potential, organizational projects and research, script coverage, film screenings and much more. Must be able to work 20-25 hours per week. To apply, send cover letter and resume to internships@miramax.com and include Fall ’15 Development Intern in the subject line. For more information, visit the company’s careers page.

STARZ (Beverly Hills, CA) STARZ is looking for a spring 2016 program publicity intern to support the press, events and promotions of STARZ and ENCORE programming. Interns will be responsible for maintaining mailing and email lists for press, assisting with mass distributions of materials to guilds, supporting events and much more. If interested, visit the company’s careers page for more information and to apply.

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins
Assistant Professor/Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: http://www.internnetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternship