HOT INTERNSHIPS!
September 7, 2009

Carolina Biological Supply Co., Curriculum Division, is looking for a new intern. Technical skills required include: general MS Office skills, Adobe InDesign and Illustrator, use of Quark Express (if possible). Also needed: ability to assist with creating and editing designs and layouts, and ability to perform other duties as assigned. Send resume and sample design work to Jamie East: jamie.east@carolina.com or call 336-586-4447. For more information visit http://www.carolinacurriculum.com

WPCM Radio needs intern to set up and announce for High School Football, coordinate and voice PSAs. Contact Byron Tucker at 260-0177.

The American Heart Association is seeking two public relations / communications students for internship opportunities in its Greensboro office. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, writing press releases and media alerts, developing press kit concepts, creating cause marketing opportunities, applying graphic design elements, working with local media outlets and assisting with special event planning, organization and communication coordination. Interns are expected to work a minimum of 10 hours per week and schedules are flexible around classes. To apply, send resume, cover letter and two writing samples to Sarah Fedele, Director of Communications and Marketing, at sarah.fedele@heart.org

U.S. Department of State internships are excellent preparation for future careers in both the Civil Service and the Foreign Service. Interns may write reports on human rights issues, assist with trade negotiations, assist with citizen’s services or visa work, help Americans in distress abroad, or organize conferences or visits of high level officials. Others may research economic or environmental issues, write news stories, work on web pages or help produce electronic journals. The U. S. Department of State is the official international relations arm of the President of the United States. http://careers.state.gov/students/selection.html#SIP Deadlines are: SUMMER INTERNSHIP - NOVEMBER 1, FALL INTERNSHIP - MARCH 1, SPRING INTERNSHIP – JULY 1

The Multicultural Advertising Internship Program is seeking interns in digital/interactive design public relations, broadcast production, copy writing, print production and more. Through the Multicultural Advertising Intern Program (MAIP), students work at real advertising agencies, take on real job responsibilities, and learn from real-world business situations and industry professionals. Students selected for the annual 10-week paid summer internship program, which runs from early June to mid-August, will hone their skills in advertising. Dec. 4, 2009 deadline. http://www.adunity.aaaa.org/page/students-1
Piedmont Community College Film and Video Production Technology Program is offering practical hands on experience during an 8 to 16 week unpaid internship. Responsibilities may include, but are not limited to: Assist PCC faculty and students during pre production and on set in the production of narrative film and HD video projects; help the producers, production manager, and production coordinator with all day to day aspects of the production; assist with casting, locations, logistics and transportation; assist set technicians (grip, electric, camera, sound, art department, makeup, wardrobe etc.); assist with publicity including behind the scenes photography and video; assist other crewmembers in the performance of their duties. E-mail: corbetm@piedmontcc.edu

USDA offers internships, fellowships, and scholarships to students to help them to excel in their chosen fields. Internship programs are geared toward combining academic studies with on the job training and experience. Scholarship programs are in place to support exemplar students with financial assistance. http://www.usda.gov/wps/portal/ut/p/_s.7_0_A/7_0_1OB?navid=INTERN_SCHOLAR&parentnav=USDAEMP_SERVICES&navtype=RT

AMERICAN JUNIOR GOLF ASSOCIATION COMMUNICATIONS INTERNSHIP. The AJGA is looking for qualified applicants to serve as tournament communications interns. The interns will travel extensively throughout the United States during the internship and will help conduct national junior golf tournaments. $200 per week (All tournament related expenses paid by Association). Go to www.ajga.org/internships to complete the online application and bio.

The IRTS Summer Fellowship Program teaches up-and-coming communicators the realities of the media industry and business world through a nine-week, expense-paid fellowship, which includes practical experience and career-planning advice. Fellows gain full-time, "real world" experience at New York-based media companies. In addition, the Fellowship provides the opportunity to network with industry professionals, take related field trips, and attend panels, lectures and group discussions. For detailed eligibility information, log on to our website www.irts.org and follow the link to "College Programs."

COST: Travel, housing and living allowance included.

The Houston Astros internship program provides a “realistic and hands on opportunity to work in a sports environment; therefore, helping interns achieve future career goals. The internship program also provides the organization with a pool of talented candidates for future employment.” The announcements were made by Human Resources Vice President Larry Stokes. Currently, 18% of the Astros full time staff members are former interns. Their positions with the club range from coordinator to Director. Please go to the Astros website and submit your resume or you may send your cover letter, resume and areas of interest to internships@astros.com.

Walt Disney World Media Relations is currently accepting applications for summer interns. From writing and special event support to photo/video shoots and research, the Media Relations Professional Internship gives students an in-depth and hands-on opportunity to develop important skills for the future in a fast-paced environment that is uniquely Disney. For more information, candidates should log on to www.disneycareers.com. Keyword: Media Relations Internship.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, School of Communications
112 McEwen
cointernships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336