APCO Worldwide (Raleigh, NC): APCO Worldwide is looking for a client service intern for the fall semester. Assignments for this position may include: monitoring of issues or news, social media research, assisting with online community management, identifying and compiling lists of media contacts, researching topics and issues and analyzing findings, editing and proofreading of client deliverables and more. Applicants are expected to have excellent written and oral communication skills, experience successfully balancing multiple tasks and extensive knowledge of Microsoft Office. For more information about the position or to apply, please visit the following link: http://www.apcoworldwide.com/content/careers/internship_opportunities.aspx?nl=1&jvi=oKEvZfwC&Job&jvs=Indeed&jvk=Job. The deadline to apply is September 15th.

Aging, Disability, and Transit Services (Rockingham County, NC): ADTSRC provides a variety of supports and services to older adults, adults with disabilities, and their families – including Meals on Wheels, Home Care Services, Adult Day Care, a Center for Active Retirement, and a host of volunteer services. ADTSRC is currently seeking a media/video intern to help create a series of videos capturing the impact of their services on the day-to-day lives of the older adults in the community. They are also in need of someone to help create a robust collection of photos they can pull from for future marketing endeavors. For more information or to apply, please email Kristen Simmons at ksimmons@adtsrc.org.

RVD Communications (Williamsburg, NY): RVD Communications is looking for quick-witted and media savvy PR interns to join their team this fall. Do you love pop culture, the media and - most importantly - food? Do you obsessively refresh Grub Street, Eater, Serious Eats and The Infatuation? This is the job for you. RVD interns will help draft pitches and press releases, assist with content development for their clients’ social media feeds and blogs, build and maintain our media lists via Google Drive and My Media Info, and help with larger research projects and administrative assistance. Microsoft Office skills are a must; Photoshop, Keynote, My Media Info, Mail Chimp, Constant Contact and Cision are pluses. Interns are expected to work out of their office in Williamsburg between 10-15 hours per week, and will receive a travel stipend. For more information or to apply, please email rvd@rachelvandolsen.com.

Development Counselors International (Locations may vary) PAID: DCI is the leader in marketing places. Their exclusive Place Marketing Internship Program offers aspiring place marketers the opportunity to gain unmatched first-hand experience by working with diverse cities. DCI’s Place Marketing Internship Program places candidates in prime position for full-time hire. In fact, many place marketing trainees have transitioned into full-time employees. These paid internships are open to college seniors, recent graduates and graduate students. a presentation about their experience at DCI. They encourage all qualified aspiring marketers to apply. Send your resume and a cover letter explaining your interest in this internship program to Keegan.calligar@aboutdci.com. All qualified applicants will be asked for writing samples and a letter of recommendation. A phone and/or in-person interview is also required.

Battleground State Correspondent (Arlington, VA) NOT FOR CREDIT: Washington Weekly, the groundbreaking millennial-powered political and trending news magazine-styled show, is looking for self-starting student journalists. They are interested in students joining their news team for 2014 Midterm Election coverage. The ideal candidate possesses strong writing skills and is engaging on camera. Additionally, the correspondent must be enthusiastic about sharing the millennial generation’s point of view, follows politics and trending news and is interested in a career in digital/video journalism. Please send your resume, cover letter and link to reel/work samples to Danielle Hopkins danielle@globalvoicehall.com and Barrett Holmes Pitner barrett@globalvoicehall.com.

Other News:
The AAF’s Most Promising Multicultural Students (MPMS) program connects the advertising industry with the nation’s top minority college seniors. This premier event provides opportunities to recruit fresh talent, to further prepare advertising’s best young prospects and to help the industry’s workforce better reflect the multiculturalism of today’s society. The program is for seniors only and the deadline to apply is October 3rd. For more information or to apply, please visit the following link: http://www.aaf.org/default.asp?id=213. Professor Hal Vincent will work with you on application.

Sponsored by The Fund for American Studies, Capital Semester combines substantive journalism and communications internships, courses for academic credit, career development activities, site briefings and lectures led by top policy experts and journalists. This fast-paced, fifteen-week residential program provides undergraduate students from around the world with opportunities to gain the edge in today’s competitive job market and graduate school admissions, and experience the excitement of Washington first-hand. Students are guaranteed an internship for 30 hours a week while earning 12 transferable credits from George Mason University. The early deadline to apply for spring 2015 is October 1 to receive a 5% discount on the tuition balance as well as priority scholarship consideration and internship placement. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Dana Faught at dfaught@tfas.org or 202.986.0384.

NC A&T NABJ (Greensboro, NC) will be hosting an interest meeting TODAY, Sept. 11 at 5:30 pm. The meeting will be held in 215 Crosby Hall on A&T’s campus. Goals for the academic year will be discussed. We hope the journalism students from Elon will come to the meeting and seriously consider joining our chapter! Please feel free to check out our website as well: http://nabjncat.wix.com/nabjncat

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Assistant Professor / Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: www.internetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternship