Carolina Hurricanes (Raleigh, NC): The Carolina Hurricanes are currently seeking a qualified digital media intern for the 2014-15 season. This position will work with the web producer and social media marketing specialist to assist with coordinating, producing and moderating content for CarolinaHurricanes.com and the team’s official social media accounts. For more information or to apply, please visit the following link: http://hockeyjobs.nhl.com/teamwork/r.cfm?i=72031.

The Boston Globe (Boston, MA): The Boston Globe runs one of the top programs in the nation, giving 11 interns the opportunity to work as reporters, or as a photographer, designer or copy editor. The 12-week paid internship places reporter-interns in our Metro, Business, Living/Arts, Health/Science and Sports departments. The photo intern shoots stills and video for all sections, the design intern creates sections fronts and information graphics for print and online, and the copy editing intern works on local and regional, national and foreign and business copy. We provide direction and feedback, as well as a writing coach who is dedicated to the interns. Globe interns produce every day and finely polish their journalism skills over the summer. The application deadline is Nov. 1. More information on the program and an application can be accessed from the following link: www.bostonglobe.com/newsintern.

Caterpillar (Cary, NC): Caterpillar Inc. is looking for a communications intern for the spring of 2015. As a communications intern you work in a fast-paced environment with clients both at a divisional level and within our global facilities. The intern will also be challenged with real world projects and assignments that add value and experience to your field of study. A communications intern is typically involved in the following assignments: creating and executing communication plans, writing and editing articles, producing electronic newsletters, developing presentations, posters, displays, educational materials, assisting in the production of videos and/or photo shoots, and managing website content. To apply: https://caterpillar.taleo.net/careersection/cat+university+cs/jobdetail.ftl?lang=en&job=444826. The deadline to apply is October 12.

Story Driven Media Group (Durham, NC): Story Driven Media Group is looking for a fall video production intern. The intern will be responsible for all aspects of video production including shooting and editing. Applicants must have an e-portfolio that showcases their video production work. Don’t miss this opportunity to be one of Story Driven Media Group’s fall interns! For more information or to fill out the application, please visit the following link: http://www.wearestorydriven.com/about/internship/.
Schneider Electric (Raleigh, NC): Schneider Electric is looking for a communications intern to pilot the review and update of the promotional tools like website, catalogs, and information newsletters. For more information or to apply, please visit the following link: https://schneiderele.taleo.net/careersection/2/jobdetail.ftl?lang=en&job=486818.

Gannett (varies) Applications for Gannett’s 2015 Talent Development Programs are OPEN for the January 2015 Class. They will begin taking applications again on September 15, 2014 for the January 2015 Class. The TDP provides recent college graduates with an opportunity to begin a career through a program that focuses on you. As part of the TDP program you will be exposed to the following: On-the-job training supplemented with webinar training sessions, membership to an existing, company-wide network of progressive young professionals, mentorship from TDP alums and leaders within the company, and ongoing one-on-one professional development planning support. For more information or to apply, please visit the following link: http://www.gannett.com/article/9999999/CAREERS07/120106001/Talent-Development-Program-

T GROUP (Los Angeles, CA): T GROUP is a premier reality television production company that develops, sells, produces and licenses shows and formats domestically and internationally. We are a leading content producer with projects at MTV, E!, Food Network, Syfy, TLC, VH1, Discovery, Tru TV, and History. They are looking for a production intern for spring 2015. This internship focuses on several departments within the company: production, development, operations, production management, finance and business affairs. This position is unpaid, but it will give interns a comprehensive, hands-on experience in the production of reality television shows. When applying, please indicate which area mentioned above interests you the most. Send resume and cover letter to jsciortino@tgroupmail.com.

Other News:
Project Yellow Light (PYL) is a national film competition scholarship program and students are invited to create short videos to warn their peers of the dangers of distracted driving. This competition is open to high school juniors and seniors as well as fulltime college students in the U.S. PYL is a film competition where students can shoot and submit a short film (:25 or :55 in length) and enter the competition. Short videos will be accepted from October 31, 2014 until April 1, 2015. First prize is $5000, second is $2000 and third prize is $1000. In addition, the first place winners in both college & high school categories will have their short films developed into Public Service Announcements (PSAs) by The Ad Council, distributed to over 1600 TV stations and run for a full year cycle. You can read more by visiting PYL’s website www.projectyellowlight.com.

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Assistant Professor / Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: www.internnetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternship