MAIP Fellowship (Various locations) – MAIP allows multicultural students to work at prestigious advertising agencies on various accounts, interact with advertising professionals on a day-to-day basis, and gain valuable professional credentials. Students selected for the annual 22 week fellowship program (12 weeks of virtual online training and a 10-week agency internship experience) will hone their skills in one of many advertising disciplines, including account management, public relations, digital/interactive design, and more. For more information on the program and how to apply, follow this link. Mrs. Tonkins will assist with applications.

T. Howard Foundation Internship Program (Various Locations) – The T. Howard Foundation provides paid, full-time summer internship opportunities for diverse college students at some of the world's largest media and entertainment companies, with positions across several disciplines, including broadcast journalism, graphic design, production, and public relations. Potential internship placement locations include New York, Los Angeles, Atlanta, and more. For more information, go to the Internship Program page on their website.

Dow Jones (New York, NY) – Dow Jones is a global provider of news and business information, delivering content to consumers and organizations around the world across multiple formats, including print, digital, mobile and live events. Summer interns working with the marketing team will gain hands-on experience on a variety of projects from planning WSJ/DJ hosted and third-party events to helping develop strategies for marketing campaigns, assisting on media plans and executing on social media projects. For more information, click here.

Anthropologie (New York, NY) – Anthropologie, the popular women’s clothing, accessories and home décor retailer, is searching for a summer 2017 public relations intern. Intern responsibilities will include managing media relations, assisting with event planning and set-up, tracking press and news coverage of the company, and more. Interns will also gain firsthand product knowledge through promotional work and special collaborations. To learn more about the position and how to apply, click here.

Digital Turbine (Raleigh, NC) – Digital Turbine is looking for two graphic designers to join their marketing team for the fall semester. The successful candidates will have an ambition to pursue a career in graphic design, extensive experience with professional design software, and the ability to produce high-quality work while meeting deadlines. Interns will create and optimize new display advertising campaigns, produce marketing collateral, and more. For more information, click here.
Capstrat (Raleigh, NC) – Capstrat is a strategic communications firm covering interactive, marketing communications, public affairs and public relations areas. They are offering a paid, full communications internship, where interns will get hands-on experience working in an agency setting, with focuses in the healthcare, technology, education, public affairs, and professional services industries. To apply, send resumes and cover letters to careers@capstrat.com for consideration, or view their post on the Elon Job Network.

Pace Communications (Greensboro, NC) – Pace Communications, one of the largest content marketing agencies in the country, is accepting resumes for a fall editorial intern. Pace regularly works with household-name companies, including Southwest Airlines, Verizon Wireless, and Wells Fargo. As an editorial intern, you will research story ideas, topics, and events, work with a digital team to post print content to magazine website, and assist with editing, proofreading and copywriting. Click here to apply.

The Walt Disney Company (Burbank, CA) – Disney Corporate Creative Resources Group is an internal, full-service agency with graphics, design, digital, video and live event divisions serving the Corporate segment of The Walt Disney Company, and are searching for a spring videographer and editor intern. Duties include supporting video production and editing activities using industry standard applications, filming in both studio and on-site environments, assisting in managing digital media assets, and more. For more information, click here.

SmithBucklin (Washington, DC) – SmithBucklin is an association management and services company searching for interns in various departments, including advertising and sales, corporate marketing, event management and government relations. The organization works with several industries, such as business and trade, healthcare, and technology. For more information, please visit their careers website.

ABC11 (Raleigh, NC) – ABC11 News offers college students the opportunity to work in the newsroom as an intern during spring, summer and fall semesters. Though the deadline for fall internships has passed, can still apply for spring and summer internships! For more details about the internship and directions on how to apply, please visit their internship page.

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Nagatha Tonkins
Assistant Professor/Director, Internships
Elon University, 101D McEwen cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: http://www.internnetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternship