Greensboro Grasshoppers (Greensboro, NC): The Greensboro Grasshoppers are now accepting applicants for their winter and spring production internship program. The intern must be able to commit long hours per week and must have a general knowledge of baseball and professional sports. He or she needs to be able to understand and work with Adobe Creative programs, including Photoshop, Illustrator, Encore, Premiere, and After Effects. Candidates must be able to work 90% of home games. This is a wonderful internship experience for anyone wanting to go into live sports production. To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to Shawn Russell, Director of Production and Gameday Entertainment at srussell@gsohoppers.com.

Camping World (Colfax, NC): Camping World is looking for a promotions intern for the spring of 2015. The intern would work directly with the business development center in particular, in which they would be on hand helping to take pictures of units and transitioning them into our website. Other duties include helping to assist in generating additional traffic into the store via many different avenues including marketing, promotions and advertising. For more information or to apply, please email Scott Brendle at mbrendle@campingworld.com.

The Children’s Museum of Alamance County (Graham, NC): The Children’s Museum of Alamance County is seeking a public relations intern to assist the marketing and special projects supervisor. This internship entails assisting and implementing all PR strategies by developing various elements essential for the growth of the organization. The deadline to apply for the winter internship program is the second week of November. The deadline to apply for the spring internship is the second week of December. To apply, submit resume and cover letter to Inda Luciano, Marketing & Special Projects Supervisor at inda@childrensmuseumofalamance.org. All resumes should be emailed as a Microsoft Word document or PDF, saved as “Last Name_First Name.” Please indicate in your email (preferable in the subject line) the position you are applying for along with the term.

Reingold (Arlington, VA) PAID: Reingold has communications internship opportunities for students and recent graduates who are serious about pursuing a career in public relations or digital marketing. Interns will work directly with experienced, award-winning consultants on client projects. Duties may include: drafting materials for clients, providing internal support, conducting Internet research, media pitching, creating social media content, assisting with event planning and execution, and performing other tasks depending on your skills and our needs. To apply, please email (as attachments) a cover letter, resume, and two writing samples. No phone calls, please. Send materials to: Mark Custer and Shannon Tucker at internships@reingold.com.

American Society of Magazine Editors (New York or Washington): The American Society
Washington Redskins (Ashburn, VA): The Washington Redskins Communications Department offers summer, season-long and spring internships. The intern will have the opportunity to learn about the responsibilities of a National Football League communications staff while working as a member of the department and assisting in its day-to-day functions. Communications intern responsibilities include: oversee daily newspaper clips and their distribution, help with production and editing of the team’s media guide, research statistical information for management, coaches, scouts and more. For more information about the position or to apply, please visit the following link: http://footballjobs.teamworkonline.com/teamwork/r.cfm?i=73976&sid=27.

Weber Shandwick (New York, NY) PAID: Weber Shandwick is a leading global public relations firm with offices in 81 countries and they are looking for a PR intern for the summer of 2015. Interns are selected to work in a specific practice area (Consumer, Creative, Strategic Planning, Digital, Reputation Management, Technology PR, Business Marketing, Corporate and Executive Positioning, Travel and Lifestyle, Corporate Issues, or Healthcare) for the duration of the summer. For more information on the position or to apply, http://ch.tbe.taleo.net/CH15/ats/careers/requisition.jsp?org=CMGRP&cws=37&rid=3379&source=indeed.com.

Motion PR (Chicago, IL) An internship with Motion PR offers real world, hands-on experience in the world of media jobs in Chicago. The projects we assign to our interns are required and important work for our clients. http://motionpr.net/public-relations-internships-chicago/

Other News:
Hearst is accepting applications for their Journalism Fellows, who will begin in September 2015. The deadline to apply is Friday, January 9, 2015. Finalists will participate in an expenses-paid, two-day judging process in Houston in April. The goal of the Hearst Journalism Fellowships is to recruit, train and retain the next generation of journalists – top-notch multimedia professionals from a diverse pool of talented reporters, copy editors, photographers, designers and graphic artists. Those selected for the program will work one-year rotations at two sites, assigned from among the Houston Chronicle, San Francisco Chronicle, San Antonio Express-News, Albany Times Union and Connecticut Media Group. Fellows receive competitive salary and benefits, including health insurance and moving expenses. Apply at www.hearstfellowships.com.

The School of Communications strives to provide accurate information to students from legitimate employers. Because of the volume of internship postings received by our office, we cannot screen every listing. We do not endorse the products or recommend the services of any of the employers listing internships through our office. We are not responsible for the safety, wages, working conditions or other employment aspects of any internship listed here. Students are urged to use common sense, caution, and practice due diligence in researching employers before applying for any internship positions within a business or organization.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Assistant Professor / Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: www.internetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternship