The Multicultural Advertising Intern Program (MAIP) is offering a 10-week paid summer internship program. It runs from early June to mid-August, and interns will hone their skills in one of the following advertising disciplines: Account Management, Art Direction, Copy Writing, Broadcast Production, Print Production, Digital/Interactive Design, Media Planning and Buying, Public Relations, Program Management, Strategic/Account Planning, Traffic. Applications and details for the 2010 program will be available at http://www.adunity.aaaa.org/page/students-1. Applications must be received by 5 pm EST December 4, 2009.

CM Communications in Boston is a great place to learn more about the industry while gaining meaningful experience working with seasoned professionals. If you are a college or graduate student interested in a Public Relations internship with CM please email or fax a resume and cover letter to Human Resources at the address/number below. We do not offer internships in our advertising department.

internships@cmcommunications.com Fax: 617-536-3424

George Town is now accepting applications for its Summer 2010 Institute on Philanthropy and Voluntary Service in Washington, DC. This academic internship program focused on the nonprofit sector is held in partnership with Georgetown University and provides students with the opportunity to gain valuable professional experience. Students are encouraged to apply by the early deadline of December 4 to receive a 5% discount on their tuition balance. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact Emily E. Hill at ehill@tfas.org or by phone at 800-741-6964. The Institute will be held in June & July, 2010. Applications will be accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis until March 5, 2010. For more information and to begin an online application, please visit the website www.DCinternships.org/IPVS <http://www.dcinternships.org/IPVS>.

The Destination Publishing Group of Pace Communications (local) is looking for a spring intern. This internship would be for credit and would be about 10-15 hours a week. The application deadline is November 20, 2009. Possible responsibilities would be fact checking and doing some writing. Go to Elon’s Job Network for more details.

Boston magazine has a limited number of editorial, online, art, advertising, and marketing internships for college students. Send a resume and writing samples to the internship coordinator, specifying which areas you are interested in. The deadline to apply for a summer internship is February 15. The deadline to apply for a fall/winter internship is July 15. http://www.bostonmagazine.com/corporate/contact

IBM is looking for a marketing and technical writer/ editor co-op. This is an internship located in Durham, NC, and is part time or full time. This role specializes in editorial support and creative writing in the production of collateral materials produced on behalf of IBM clients. Writer/Editor is responsible for editing and/or producing persuasive marketing copy in line with corporate messaging and legal standards that will meet demanding quality levels. For more information go to https://jobs3.netmedia1.com/cp/search_results.jsp
Red Hat (local) is seeking a winter/spring semester intern for a marketing/communications position. Red Hat is the world's leading open source and Linux provider and is headquartered in Raleigh, N.C. The Customer Reference Intern will work closely with the Customer Reference team with writing/editing press releases and case studies, managing the database with new updates and existing references, developing and editing collateral, and much more. Please send resumes with cover letters to swhite@redhat.com. For more information look at E-Net.

News Day is now accepting intern applications for spring and summer internships in its Long Island newsroom. We’re looking for editorial interns to work on the news desk as reporters, editors on the Web site, videographers, multimedia editors and Web developers. To apply, please send cover letter, resume, application, and up to six writing samples to: Internship Coordinator, Newsday, 235 Pinelawn Road, Melville, NY 11747-4250. Questions can be sent to jobs@newsday.com. For more information and to download the application, go to http://www.newsday.com/services/about-newsday/newsday-internships-1.1532621

The ABC News Political Unit is now seeking full-time spring 2010 interns in Washington, D.C. The paid internship begins Monday, Jan. 4, 2010, and runs through Friday, June 4, 2010. Political Unit interns attend political events and contribute to stories for the politics page of ABCNews.com, plus many more responsibilities. You also must be able to work eight hours per day, Monday through Friday. Interns will be paid $8.50/hour. Send a cover letter and resume to Teddy Davis, ABC News’ Deputy Political Director, at teddy.davis@abc.com, by Sunday, Nov. 22, 2009, with the subject line: “INTERN” in all caps. Please indicate in both your cover letter and the body of your email your student status and the specific dates and hours of your availability.

WABC, which includes “Live with Regis and Kelly” & “Like It Is” in New York is searching for interns. Interns are also needed for its Emmy-award winning newscasts along with departments in promotions, operations/production, sales, marketing, and 7online.com. Contact Linda Henderson @ 212 456 3862.

The NAA (local) is currently looking for a social media intern for a unique opportunity. You would work directly with the CEO & President of National Agents Alliance – Andy Albright. We are in need of someone with an interest in Mass Media and knowledge of Social Media. This individual will work directly with Mr. Albright, marketing him through his different social media outlets. Mr. Albright’s first book is to be released in January of 2010 so it is extremely important for him to be very visible to the general public as well as all of the NAA agents. This opportunity could also lead into a paid position for the right individual. Contact Mrs. Tonkins, if interested in this internship.

Redeye Distribution in Haw River (local), independent music for the independently minded, is looking for interns. For more information contact Josh Wittman at josh@redeyeusa.com.

APCO Worldwide is now looking for spring and summer interns for corporate marketing and communications in DC. The corporate marketing team handles the challenging and exciting task of positioning the company in the marketplace and promoting APCO as the global communication consultancy of choice. If you are interested in opportunities for the summer of 2010, we are accepting applications through April 9, 2010. Please send a cover letter and resume as Word document or PDF to internships@apcoworldwide.com with "client service group" in the subject line. No phone calls please. For more information go to http://www.apcoworldwide.com/content/careers/internships_americas.aspx#marketing/

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336