Sol Productions is a TV/Film production company looking for a highly motivated individual, with excellent writing skills, looking to develop TV & Film projects. Interns will work directly for one of the producers and assist the manager of development. The company is currently working on the 2nd season of one of TLC's top shows, Miami Ink. The company is also about to go into production for another show for the Discovery Channel and a pilot for VH1. You must be able to work at least 3 days a week. Although the company is based in New York, we are currently located in South Beach, Florida, where the internship will take place. We will provide you lunch and class credit. If interested please send a cover letter and resume to tommy@seasonoflights.com.

The Carolina Woman Magazine, the monthly magazine for women in the Triangle, is looking for an advertising/marketing intern, a journalism intern, and a graphic design intern. The unpaid internship is available to students at accredited colleges and universities. Applicants must be able to fulfill the minimum requirement of 12 hours a week during the fall or spring semesters and 20 hours a week during the summer. Our office, which is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., is located in Raleigh. Resumes and cover letters may be submitted via e-mail to projects@carolinawoman.com.

944 Magazine and 944.com offer a highly competitive program that provides interns with the opportunity to work alongside Editorial, Advertising, Marketing, Online and Corporate Departments. Interns must be Junior or Senior college students with a demonstrated interest in media/publishing. Please send resume, writing samples to: Kiracoplin@944.com. Spring Semester Internship (Deadline for Applicants: December 15 / Start Date: January 15-May 15). Summer Internship (Deadline for Applicants: April 15 / Start Date: May 25-August 7). 944 Magazine & 944.com - Los Angeles

ACC Tournament Sales & Marketing is looking for interns from January to May to work in the sales & marketing department of the Greensboro Coliseum. This internship would be for class credit only and is a minimum of 10-15 hours a week. Required skills are strong interpersonal skills and the ability to multi task, Microsoft, Word, and Excel proficiency. The contact person is Elizabeth Colamarino, ACC Tournament Sales & Marketing Manager, Greensboro Coliseum, (336) 433-7261 Phone. (336) 209-3765 Cell, Elizabeth.colamarino@greensboro-nc.gov

Creative Minds in Cannes internship program is now accepting applicants for its summer 2010 program. Creative minds in Cannes is a film program that provides an opportunity for participants to work internships that will allow them to connect with companies that can launch their careers while providing a platform to create a short film that will be showcased for industry professionals. For more information go to www.creativemindsincannes.com January 18, 2010 is the deadline for general applications.

Philadelphia 76ers is seeking interns. If your ultimate ambition is a career in the sports and entertainment industry, this program is an excellent first step. Nearly 20% of our interns have been selected for full-time employment, and many continue their professional growth & development within the company. To apply, http://comcast-spectacor.teamworkonline.com/teamwork/jobs/jobs.cfm?supcat=429&supcat_name=Internships#25661
FremantleMedia Enterprises is looking for a show prize intern. College students will be exposed to hands-on work experience in a game show television prize department. The Prize Department primarily serves to purchase and trade-out prizes on all episodes of Let's Make A Deal on CBS. Interns will get exposure to one of the leading entertainment companies, a major television network and the inner workings of how to run a prize department. To learn more about Fremantle Media go to http://www.fremantlemedia.com/home.aspx. For more information contact Kristin Hegel at Kristin.Hegel@fremantlemedia.com

The National Journal Group, a sub division of The Atlantic Media Company, is looking for an intern in Washington D.C. National Journal Group is known in Washington for creating must-attend events which draw audiences including key decision makers, influential media insiders, advocacy leaders, senior Capitol Hill staff, and government officials. This position is an integral part in the preparation and implementation of such events. For more information and to apply go to http://tbe.taleo.net/NA1/ats/careers/requisition.jsp?org=ATLANTICMEDIA&cws=1&rid=814. Interested parties should contact Jordan Hostetter, Senior Manager for Events jhostetter@nationaljournal.com

The Boston Bruins Communications Internship Program is now looking for summer interns to work in a variety of roles within the Bruins Communication Department. This is a writing-intensive position as prospective candidates will publish stories on the Boston Bruins website and should possess strong writing backgrounds. The deadline for summer internships is 4/1/10. Interested candidates should mail (please do not fax or email) a resume and cover letter to: Eric Tosi, Manager of Media Relations, Boston Bruins, 100 Legends Way, Boston, MA 02114. For more information go to http://bruins.nhl.com/club/page.htm?bcid=19676

The United Nations of Greater Boston is looking for interns interested in learning all aspects of producing and coordinating programming in a non-profit organization. Internships could be in any one of the following departments: Events, Advocacy/Communications, Memberships Development, Education, or Graphic Design. Students interested in applying should submit a resume and cover letter to United Nations Association of Greater Boston, 44-46 Temple Place, 5th Floor, Boston, MA 02111 or email to info@unagb.org. Deadline for summer internship application is March 15, 2010. For more information go to http://www.unagb.org/about/abt_interns.cfm.

Sirius XM is offering a summer internship program. It offers a multitude of exciting opportunities for our interns, from the broadcast booth to behind-the-scenes and everything in between. Internship opportunities range from music production to Music Marketing. The summer program runs 12 weeks, between June and August. Recruiting begins in March. The internship is for credit only. For more information go to http://www.sirius.com/careers.

Atlanta Magazine is looking for winter/spring and summer Editorial or Publishing interns. Editorial interns would be responsible for fact-checking, proofreading, occasional writing etc. Publishing interns would be responsible for assisting in creating and executing communications and marketing strategies, arranging PR activities, coordinating special events etc. Deadline for winter/spring is December 15, summer is April 15. For more information go to http://www.atlantamagazine.com/internships.aspx.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Director, Internships / External Relations
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336