DIVERSITY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Be prepared for the experience of a lifetime as you discover the PGA TOUR from the inside. The PGA TOUR Diversity Internship Program runs for ten to twelve weeks, depending on your location. This program will give you the opportunity to learn the business side of golf in the most critical areas of the organization, such as Business Development, Communications, Event Management, Marketing and many more.

If the opportunity to work with the best in the sports industry isn't enough, this paid internship comes with plenty of perks. Interns will receive golfing privileges at TPC Sawgrass and other top golf venues, merchandise discounts, networking opportunities, and friendships that last a lifetime.

You don't even have to know how to play golf to be here! All students, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, religion, national origin, or disability are encouraged to apply. Just be willing to learn, work hard, and have some fun!
