Department of Biology Graduates

Based on nine-month post-graduation survey results

54% Employed
35% Accepted to Graduate School
11% Employed and Accepted to Graduate School

Number of Respondents: 26

Where Are They Now?

Class of 2014 graduates of the Department of Biology can be found working and earning advanced degrees from prestigious graduate schools throughout New York, North Carolina, Georgia, California, Washington D.C., and Connecticut.

In Their Own Words

“I wish I had connected with the SPDC earlier in my college career. The resources along with the staff combine to create a comfortable and informative environment in which you can explore your future.”

Bridget Moffet
Class of 2015

Sample Employers

BackCountry Safaris
Bristol-Myers Squibb
Comprehensive Rural Health Project
Concord Oil Co.
Conservators’ Center
Emergency Medical Associates (EMA)
Intervarsity Christian Fellowship
National Institute of Health
University of Copenhagan

Sample Position Titles

Clinical Information Manager
Immunology Research Technologist
International Project Coordinator
Research Technician
Vet Assistant
Wildlife Biologist

Sample Graduate Schools

Boston University
Duke University, School of Medicine
University of Central Florida
University of Pennsylvania
Wake Forest University, School of Medicine
Yale University, School of Public Health

Academic Internships

Interdisciplinary Affective Science Lab, Northeastern University
Kernodle Clinic
NC Office of the Chief Medical Examiner
National Park Service Appalachia
National Multiple Sclerosis Society
North Carolina Botanical Garden