Department of Environmental Studies
Based on nine-month post-graduation survey results

75% Employed
11% Accepted to Graduate School
7% Employed and Accepted to Graduate School
7% Seeking Employment

Number of Graduates: 28

Where Are They Now?
Class of 2013 graduates of the Department of Environmental Studies can be found working and earning advanced degrees at prestigious graduate schools throughout Florida, North Carolina, Massachusetts, Missouri, Washington D.C., and Connecticut.

What Employers Say
“At Elon, we find candidates with the leadership experience, record of achievement, and commitment to excellence and equity that prepare them to make a meaningful impact in the classroom and beyond.”

Kay Jacobs
Recruitment Associate, Teach for America

Sample Employers
Environmental Quality Resource
AmeriCorps
Mission Hospital
Ocean Conservancy
Princeton in Africa
SAP

Sample Position Titles
Certified Nursing Assistant
Energy Solutions Engineer
Environmental Scientist
Event Presentation Assistant
Water Quality Technician

Sample Graduate Schools
Indiana University
Oregon State University
University of Central Florida
University of Illinois-Urbana Champaign
University of North Carolina- Asheville

Academic Internships
Destination Science
Natural Science Center of Greensboro
The Conservators’ Center
The National Aquarium
Timberlake Farms

ELON UNIVERSITY
Student Professional Development Center
careerservices@elon.edu telephone: 336-278-6538

www.elon.edu/careers toll free: 1-877-356-3566

The Student Professional Development Center, Office of Career Services, surveys each graduating class with regard to their post-graduation placement. Graduates are surveyed 3 months and 9 months after graduation. For the class of 2013, there was a final response rate of 93% per 9-month survey.