Department of World Languages & Cultures Graduates

Based on nine-month post-graduation survey results

89% Employed
11% Employed and Accepted to Graduate School

Where Are They Now?

Class of 2013 graduates of the Department of World Languages & Cultures can be found working and earning advanced degrees at prestigious graduate schools throughout Spain, France, North Carolina, Massachusetts, Georgia, and Washington D.C.

In Their Own Words

“Career Services has been extremely helpful in my efforts to find a job abroad. In addition to helping me edit my resume in a way that would highlight my international experience, they taught me how to utilize a variety of online resources with international job listings.”

Lily Siegal
Class of 2014

Sample Employers

Central Motors
Ecole Jean Moulin
GlaxoSmithKline
Global Communications Firm
Gobierno de Espana
Teach for America
United States Air Force
YWCA

Sample Position Titles

2nd Lieutenant
Account Manager
Client Relations Representative
Language and Culture Assistant
Primary Teacher
Sales Consultant
Senior Scientist
Teacher

Sample Graduate Schools

American University
Loyola University of Maryland

Academic Internships

Center for New North Carolinians
Elon in Costa Rica
Fulbright Program
Jordanian Embassy
Middle East Policy Council
National Council on US-Arab Relations

www.elon.edu/careers
toll free: 1-877-356-3566
careerservices@elon.edu
telephone: 336-278-6538

The Student Professional Development Center, Office of Career Services, surveys each graduating class with regard to their post-graduation placement. Graduates are surveyed 3 months and 9 months after graduation. For the class of 2013, there was a final response rate of 93% per 9-month survey.