

Department of History and Geography Spring 2012 Events

FEBRUARY 25: ELON SCHOOL OF LAW CONFERENCE

Dr. David Crowe will be hosting a conference at the Elon School of Law on February 25th. The conference is titled "War Crimes, Human Rights, and Immigration." It will feature panels on "War and the Question of "Command Responsibility," "War Crimes and Human Rights," "Human Rights, Corruption, and Poverty," and "Immigration and Human Rights." A number of Elon graduates from the History & Geography department will deliver papers and the conference will feature a luncheon speech by Angolan human rights activist, Rafael Marques de Morais. This event is open to Elon students and faculty.

FEBRUARY 23 (12:15PM-1:30PM) BROWN BAG LUNCH SESSION-

RYAN KIRK (SPEAKER) Bring your lunch and join us in Lindner 110 as we discuss Dr. Ryan's work in Geography. Topic of discussion TBA

APRIL 4TH: (5:30PM-6:45PM) PHI ALPHA THETA/GAMMA THETA

UPSILON INDUCTION DINNER This event is by invitation and is for honor society officers and inductees into the History (Phi Alpha Theta) and Geography (Gamma Theta Upsilon) honor societies. This event will be held at the Cannon Room, Center for the Arts.

APRIL 12TH: (12:15PM-1:30PM) BROWN BAG LUNCH SESSION-

AMY JOHNSON (SPEAKER) Bring your lunch and join us in Lindner 110 as we discuss Dr. Johnson's work on colliding expectations of slavery between planters and enslaved Africans in the early British Caribbean.

MAY 2ND: (5:30PM-6:45PM) SENIOR DINNER FOR HISTORY MAJORS

The Department of History and Geography will host its annual Senior Dinner honoring our graduating history majors. This event will be held at the Cannon Room, Center for the Arts.