

Department of History and Geography Fall 2011 Events

Sept. 24th: Departmental Family Weekend Events, 9:30am

Parent/Guardian-Professor meetings and mini courses begin at 9:30am.

Oct. 4th: College Coffee: Phi Alpha Theta/Gamma Theta Upsilon Book Sale

Get great deals on lightly used hardback and paperback fiction and non-fiction. All funds raised help support our department's honor societies, including Phi Alpha Theta's annual History Paper Prize.

BOOK SALE

Oct. 12th: Phi Alpha Theta/Gamma Theta Upsilon Inductions, 5:30-6:45 pm

This dinner is by invitation and for honor society officers and inductees into the History (Phi Alpha Theta) and Geography (Gamma Theta Upsilon) honor societies.

Oct. 22nd: HOMECOMING reception in Lindner 112, 10:30-11:30am

Please join us for a reception for graduates and current students with a major or minor from the Department of History and Geography. See our beautiful building, tell your professors how you're doing, and find out about life at and after Elon.

Nov. 1st: Meet Historian & Elon ('85) Alumnus, Dr. Steve Sabol, 7:30pm

Join students in Lindner 102 as they gather to hear Dr. Sabol, Associate Professor of History at UNC-Charlotte to speak about "The First World War as Global Revolution". If you are a major or minor in our department, ask Marnia Gardner in Lindner 112 to put you on the list to join our guest speaker for dinner. Places are limited, so please place your request early.

Nov. 17th: Brown Bag Series on Scholarship, Lindner 110, 12:25-1:35pm

Bring your lunch and join us as we discuss Dr. Ryan Kirk's work on Agricultural History in Southern Appalachia.

