Elon University President Leo M. Lambert and the Lori and Eric Sklut Emerging Scholar in Jewish Studies Geoffrey Claussen cordially invite you to attend a lecture presented by

AMBASSADOR STUART E. EIZENSTAT

“The Future of the Jews: How Global Forces are Impacting the Jewish People, Israel, and Its Relationship with the United States”

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 2013 7:30 P.M.
Lakeside Meeting Room, adjacent to Moseley Center
A reception and book signing to follow

AMBASSADOR STUART E. EIZENSTAT has served in senior leadership positions in three U.S. administrations, including as Chief Domestic Policy Adviser in the Carter Administration and Under Secretary of State, Deputy Secretary of the Treasury and as U.S. Ambassador to the European Union in the Clinton Administration. He has played a leadership role in the Jewish community, most recently as the co-chairman of the Jewish People Policy Institute in Jerusalem. He successfully negotiated major agreements totaling more than $8 billion with Switzerland, Germany, Austria, France and other European countries on behalf of victims of the Holocaust and Nazi regime during World War II. His book chronicling those events, Justice: Looted Assets, Slave Labor, and the Unfinished Business of World War II, was translated into four languages. He has received seven honorary doctoral degrees and more than 100 awards from organizations and from the United States, French, German, Austrian, Belgium and Israeli governments. His current book is The Future of the Jews: How Global Forces are Impacting the Jewish People, Israel, and Its Relationship with the United States.

SPONSORED BY: the Department of Political Science and Policy Studies • the Department of Religious Studies • the Department of History and Geography • Jewish Studies • Middle Eastern Studies • International Studies • Peace and Conflict Studies • School of Law • the Isabella Cannon Global Education Center • and the Truitt Center for Religious and Spiritual Life