Department of Performing Arts Graduates
Based on nine-month post-graduation survey results

- 71% Employed
- 2% Accepted to Graduate School
- 2% Employed and Accepted to Graduate School
- 11% Seeking Employment
- 14% Other

Number of Respondents: 63

Where Are They Now?

Class of 2015 graduates of the Department of Performing Arts can be found working and earning advanced degrees from prestigious graduate schools throughout Canada, Norway, North Carolina, Florida, New York, Montana, Virginia, Missouri, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, Illinois, and Washington D.C.

What Employers Say

“From engaging in mock interviews, to resume review sessions and practicing how to negotiate my first salary, the SPDC served as a professional development haven during my four years as an Elon student. I am still using strategies and tips provided by the SPDC team as I navigate my way through the work force as a Millennial.”

Dani Biggs
Class of 2015

Sample Employers

- Artpark
- Audiofire Studios
- Brooklyn Academy of Music
- Compass Creative Dramatics
- Elsie Management
- HeadVoice NY Music Festival
- Inside Out Solutions
- Karge + Ross Casting
- Lion King Tour
- Lululemon Athletica, Inc.
- Music Theater of Wichita
- Newseum
- North Carolina Governor’s School East
- Orlando Shakespeare Theater

Sample Position Titles

- Actor
- Audio Technician
- Casting Assistant
- Documentary Filmmaker
- Production Assistant
- Technical Operations Specialist

Sample Graduate Schools

- Lesley University

Academic Internships

- Alvin Ailey Dance Theater
- American Dance Festival
- Arts Council of Princeton
- Daily Front Row Magazine
- Durham Performing Arts Center
- McCarter Theater
- The Dance Project: School at City Arts

The Student Professional Development Center, Office of Career Services, surveys each graduating class with regard to their post-graduation placement. Graduates are surveyed 3 months and 9 months after graduation. For the class of 2015, there was a final response rate of 97% per 9-month survey.