Provost

Elon University seeks an exceptional Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Elon is a top-ranked liberal arts university that has built a national reputation for its commitment to student engagement and experiential learning. The academic program is distinguished by a strong foundation in the liberal arts and sciences combined with outstanding professional programs.

Elon's strong community includes more than 300 full-time faculty members and 5,000 undergraduates and 600 graduate students from 46 states and 45 nations. The university has five academic units: Elon College, the College of Arts and Sciences; the School of Communications; the School of Education; the Martha and Spencer Love School of Business; and the School of Law, located in downtown Greensboro. Elon offers 50 undergraduate majors and five graduate programs.

Founded in 1889, Elon is situated on one of the nation's most beautiful and historic campuses.

The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs is the chief academic officer, reports directly to the president, and oversees all of the university's academic, academic support, and student life programs.

Nominations and applications should be submitted electronically, in confidence, to Lucy A. Leske, the Witt Kieffer consultant assisting Elon University with this search, at ElonProv@wittkieffer.com. The committee will begin screening candidate materials Oct. 15, 2008.
