In his two years at the helm of the Elon football program, Pete Lembo has taken the Phoenix from the bottom of the Southern Conference to quickly becoming a championship contender and a top 25 program in the FCS national polls. Lembo has rejuvenated the Phoenix program while building support and bringing energy to the entire Elon University community.

In 2007, the 23rd ranked Phoenix knocked off two top 25 teams, secured the program’s first winning season in SoCon play and broke numerous Elon, SoCon and NCAA records en route to an exciting 7-4 finish. Lembo was honored as the Southern Conference Coach of the Year for his efforts and finished 6th in the voting for National Coach of the Year honors.

Off the field, the Elon football program has made noticeable improvements in the areas of academic progress, recruiting, alumni relations, home game attendance, scheduling, community outreach and fund raising under Lembo’s guidance.

At 38 years of age, Lembo remains one of the youngest head coaches in all of Division I football. His career record of 56-24 (.700) ranks him as one of the most successful active coaches at the FCS level in terms of overall winning percentage.

Lembo was hired as Elon’s 19th head football coach on December 19, 2005. He came to Elon from Lehigh University, where he compiled a career record of 44-14 in five years as head coach. During his tenure at Lehigh, the Mountain Hawks won at least eight games every season, were nationally ranked every year, won two Patriot League championships and won a home playoff game in 2001.

In 2002, Lehigh knocked off a FBS team for the first time since 1987 and climbed to as high as #2 in the national polls. Lembo’s 2001 team had an undefeated regular season. finished 5th in the country and won the prestigious Lambert Cup as the top FCS team in the East. For his efforts, Lembo received the Eddie Robinson Award as the 2001 National Coach of the Year. Lembo’s career winning percentage of .759 is the highest in Lehigh football history.

Lembo is a 1992 graduate of Georgetown University, where he was a four-year starter and a team captain. The former center and business major has also coached at Dartmouth College, the University at Albany and Hampden-Sydney College. He and his wife Jennifer reside in nearby Gibsonville with their three children Sophia (8), A.J. (5) and Victoria (2).

“The coaching staff and I are excited to work with young players from the greater Burlington area this summer. Our camp will be fun, educational and stress the fundamentals of the game. We look forward to developing skills and connecting our campers with the Elon football program.”

FOOTBALL and FUN
June 16th - 19th

Instruction:
Teaching the basic fundamental skills in a safe and fun atmosphere is the goal of our youth football camp. Rookie or veteran, we will develop your skills on offense, defense, and special teams. You will enter the season with stronger fundamental skills, more confidence, and a better understanding of the game of football.

Coaching Staff:
Pete Lembo and the Elon University Football Staff will teach youth campers the position-specific skills that will give you the edge this coming fall. Campers will be exposed to the finest coaching in Division I football. Participants will have an opportunity to try different positions or master their favorite position. All drills will be supervised by the Elon University Athletic Training/Sports Medicine Staff.

Camp Details:
This is a non-contact camp open to boys and girls ages 7-12 from June 16th - 19th. Practice sessions will be conducted in t-shirts and shorts. Football cleats are strongly recommended. The cost of camp is $110 if pre-registered and $125 on first day of camp. Included in the camp tuition is four sessions of top notch instruction, lectures from guest speakers, the Ultimate Football Championship Tournament, and an Elon football t-shirt. Full tuition is requested with each application.

Groups of 15 or more campers will receive a $15 discount. A parent or coach must be the contact person and submit all registration forms and payment of $95 per camper. Please contact the football office at (336) 278-6721 or email us at petelembofcamp@elon.edu with any questions.

Our camp store will allow for the purchase of sports drinks, energy bars, snacks, and tickets for the Elon Football / NFF memorial raffle at the conclusion of camp. An account may be set up in the camp store to allow for purchases without the day-to-day handling of cash.
