

Faculty Handbook Section II-2 5. Minimum Teaching Expectations

Faculty members periodically receive release time and reassigned time to support their teaching, university service and professional activity. In the event of an accumulation of release and reassigned time (including 499 and other accrued supervision), all full-time faculty are expected to teach a minimum of 12 semester hours each academic year, with at least one course each fall and spring term. An exception may exist for sabbaticals and extraordinary university duties or projects, with approval of the appropriate dean.
