Since opening in 2006, the School of Law has enrolled three talented and diverse classes. The school gained provisional approval from the American Bar Association in June 2008, the earliest possible time allowed under the ABA Standards. Elon Law has built on Elon University’s national reputation for excellence in engaged learning and leadership education. Graduates of the school attain the knowledge and skills they need to be effective lawyers and are also thoroughly grounded in leadership skills. Elon’s goal is the development of exceptional lawyer-leaders working for the betterment of their profession and society.

Like the University, the School of Law is committed to providing an exceptional education at a reasonable cost. While the School of Law’s tuition is reasonable in comparison with that charged by other exceptional private law schools, Elon recognizes that this expense represents a significant financial investment by our students. Elon will endeavor to keep costs as low as possible, while providing our law students with dynamic learning opportunities, excellent professors and state-of-the-art facilities in which to learn.

The purpose of this advisory is to outline the costs associated with the School of Law’s program and to provide you with the available financing options to assist in meeting those costs. If, after reading this advisory you should desire additional information, please contact Elon’s Office of Financial Planning.

PROGRAM COSTS

Direct charges for the Law program for the 2009-2010 academic year are as follows:

| Tuition | $30,750 |

Additional expenses for the 10-month academic year, which will vary from student to student, include rent and utilities, meals, books, supplies, transportation, health and rental insurance, parking.
and miscellaneous personal expenses. These additional expenses are estimated to be a maximum of $22,000, subject again to each student's individual budget and spending decisions. In determining a student's eligibility for student loans and any other financial aid, the university has established $52,750, as the total annual Cost of Attendance (COA) of the Law program. Costs for future academic years have not been set at this time.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

While the University’s Office of Financial Planning will assist applicants and students with securing loans, the School of Law’s Scholarship Committee administers the law school’s scholarship program. Merit scholarships will be awarded based on applicants’ potential for outstanding contribution to the law school, the legal profession and society.

Applicants interested in receiving a scholarship should apply by writing a letter to the Scholarship Committee requesting consideration for an award (suggested length two pages or less). While no specific form or content is required, applicants should consider using the letter to explain why their aptitude, achievements or other qualifications merit a scholarship award. While awards will be merit-based, the scholarship committee will assess merit within the context of an applicant’s significant and distinctive financial need, if explained in the application letter. Applicants may also be invited to interview with the scholarship committee for certain scholarships.

Applicants admitted under the Early Decision option, who have submitted a scholarship application letter by December 1, will be informed of law school scholarship awards prior to the January 15 confirmation deposit deadline. Other scholarship awards will be made on a rolling basis throughout the year, with the majority of awards made in early spring through mid-summer. Some scholarships may require a minimum level of academic performance for retention of the award. These requirements will be outlined in the scholarship award letter.

In spring 2009, the law school instituted the Leadership Fellows Program. In addition to monetary scholarship awards, other perquisites will be available to Leadership Fellows. For example, Fellows will engage in special meetings with leadership guests. Leadership Fellows will also have an opportunity to serve in a public sector organization through a summer externship that will be offered with course credit and a scholarship covering the tuition for the externship course and living expenses. Applications for the Leadership Fellows program are available on the law school’s Web site, law.elon.edu.

STUDENT LOAN PROGRAMS

The Federal Stafford Student Loan Program

The primary source of financial assistance for Law students attending Elon University is the federal Stafford Student Loan Program. Stafford Loans are either subsidized or unsubsidized. A subsidized loan is awarded on the basis of financial “need”. The federal government pays the interest on the loan (“subsidizes” the loan) until the student begins repayment. The maximum subsidized loan for graduate and professional study is $8,500 per year.

An unsubsidized loan is not awarded on the basis of need. The student is charged interest from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. If the interest is allowed to accumulate, it will be capitalized – that is, the interest will be added to the principal amount of the loan and will increase the amount the borrower will have to repay. If the choice is made to pay the interest as it accumulates, the total interest charges paid during repayment will be considerably less. The maximum unsubsidized loan for graduate and professional study is $20,500 per year less any amounts borrowed under the subsidized loan program described above. The combination of subsidized and unsubsidized loans cannot exceed $20,500 per year.

The total amount a graduate or professional student may borrow from all Stafford Loans combined is $138,500 (no more than $65,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans). The graduate borrowing limit includes any Stafford Loans received for undergraduate study.

Under current law, the interest rate charged on Federal Stafford Loans disbursed after July 1, 2006 will be fixed at 6.8%. There may also be origination and guarantee fees associated with each loan up to 1.5%. These fees are deducted “up front” and thus lower the actual amount of each disbursement.

Repayment of Stafford Loans begins six months after graduation or withdrawal from the Law School. This is called the “grace period.” During the grace period on a subsidized loan, no payment of any principal is due, and no interest will be charged. During the grace period on an unsubsidized loan, no payment is due, but interest will be charged.

Federal Stafford Loans are disbursed in two payments; one at the start of the academic year, and one at the midpoint of the year. The loan funds will be sent to the university in two equal disbursements.

For information on how to obtain a Federal Stafford Student Loan proceed to the Financial Aid section of our Web site at www.elon.edu/finaidborrow.

The Federal Graduate PLUS Loan Program

For students who need financial assistance beyond the $20,500 Stafford Loan maximum, there is the federal Graduate PLUS loan program. The PLUS loan allows for the deferment of repayment while the student is enrolled in the Law program. The PLUS loan carries a fixed 8.5% interest rate. The maximum amount a student may borrow from the PLUS Loan program is $52,750 (Elon’s Cost of Attendance for the Law Program – see first page); less any Stafford Loans and other forms of financial aid a student may be receiving. For information on how to obtain a Graduate PLUS Loan proceed to the Financial Aid section of our Web site at www.elon.edu/finaidborrow.

WHEN TO APPLY FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Students should apply as early as possible, and certainly no later than July 1, 2009, to insure that loan proceeds will be available at the commencement of the fall 2009 term. Students who do not apply prior to the start of the fall 2009 term may still do so during the academic year. You do not need to wait until you have been admitted into the School of Law to begin the financial aid application process. However, students will not be notified of aid eligibility until they are admitted.
BILLING AND PAYMENT PROCESS

For the 2009-2010 academic year, students will receive a bill from the Bursar’s Office in mid June for $15,375 which will be due on August 7th. A second bill for $15,375 will be sent in mid November and is due on December 19th. For questions regarding billing, please contact the Bursar’s Office toll-free at 877-729-3566.

HOW TO APPLY FOR STUDENT LOANS

2. Complete and submit the 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA should be filed electronically online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Elon’s Federal Title IV School Code is 002927.

3. Students may now complete and electronically sign the Stafford and Graduate PLUS Loan applications online at each preferred lender’s Web site. All borrowers are required to complete student loan entrance counseling, which is available at each lender’s Web site or by visiting www.mappingyourfuture.org. Students who borrowed Stafford Loans as undergraduates and still have an outstanding balance may wish to use the same lender.
