Leaders Impacting Values-based Experiences (L.I.V.E.)
2016-2017

The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life has created a theme house for five Greek-affiliated residents to positively contribute to Loy Neighborhood's impact within the University's residential campus initiative. Students will live in the Loy P house and collaborate with Loy neighborhood residents, chapter members, FSL staff, and the faculty co-chair to develop programs and educational opportunities for the community. Positions are reflective of the chapter growth and development program adopted to guide our efforts as values-based organizations, which includes diversity and inclusivity, leadership, service-learning, health and wellness, and faculty involvement.

Applying for a L.I.V.E. Director Position

- Complete and submit application to the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life; first priority will be given to students who apply by February 17
- Upon receipt of your application, you will receive an email regarding scheduling an interview

Contact Jordan King, jking37@elon.edu, for additional information

Director Position Description

All L.I.V.E. directors will be expected to collaborate with each other on various programming and event planning initiatives throughout the school year. Initiatives will be focused on the five aspects of the Chapter Growth and Development model:

- Effective Leadership
- Responsible Citizenship
- Inclusive Environment
- Health and Wellness
- Faculty Engagement

General Responsibilities

- Promote and foster Greek affiliated students' understanding of their impact on the community through active participation
- Each director will lead/develop one program or workshop for the community per semester
- Collaborate with various departments and programs on campus, which could include the Student Professional Development Center, Kernodle Center for Service Learning and Community Engagement, CREDE (Center for Race, Ethnicity, and Diversity Education), Campus Recreation, Student Health and Wellness
- Create opportunities for faculty/staff members to interact with residents and chapter members in the Loy Neighborhood; and develop and support educational activities and academic initiatives
General Eligibility

- Directors will live in the Loy P.L.I.V.E. theme house – all residents must pay the applicable single or double room rate and have the required meal plan, just as other on campus residents
- Maintain full-time student status of 12-18 credit hours per semester
- Must be affiliated with an Elon fraternity/sorority
- Be in good standing with Elon University

COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITIES

- General
  - Take primary responsibility for developing an active, inclusive, and cohesive residential community
  - Serve as a role model, abide by all federal, state, and institutional laws/policies, and support the mission of Elon University
  - Report all maintenance concerns/requests to Physical Plant in a timely manner
  - Maintain a consistent presence in the residential community
  - Maintain the appropriate cleanliness and upkeep of the house

- Meetings
  - Attend bi-weekly L.I.V.E. director meetings
  - Participate in monthly 1:1 meetings with the House Captain Coordinators

- Communication
  - Maintain ongoing communication with the Assistant Director, House Captain Coordinators, House Captains and other FSL staff members
  - This includes, but is not limited to, checking your mailbox, phone messages, and campus e-mail messages on a daily basis

TRAINING AND IMPORTANT DATES

- Attend Spring 2016 initial planning meeting (TBD) and fall training on Monday, August 29
- Students are expected to attend ALL meetings/training sessions unless written requests have been submitted and approved by the Assistant Director of Fraternity & Sorority Life prior to training
Please complete the entire application carefully and thoroughly. Please type or print legibly. Your answers will be used in assessing your qualifications for the position. First priority will be given to students who submit applications to the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life, Moseley 224, by 5:00 pm on Wednesday, February 17, 2016.

Some applicants may be contacted to schedule a 15 minute interview with the Fraternity & Sorority Life staff.
