Living Learning Communities @ Elon

Student Directed Housing

Do you and your friends share a common interest or passion?
Are you interested in living with a cohort made and designed by you and living in premier housing?
Want to “lock in” your housing for 2015-2016?

Then create YOUR OWN Student Directed Community!

What you need to know:
- Upperclass students will connect under a theme of their choosing, one student will take the lead as Student Directed Program Coordinator.
- Students should share a passion – social, service, academic, or intellectual. It is totally up to you!
- The groups selected will be provided a budget to support their planned programs and activities.
- Student Communities can be single sex or co-ed.

What you need to do:
Complete the following information and return it to Laura Arroyo in Residence Life, Global C 103, in person or via email to llc@elon.edu no later than Feb 5, 2016. If approved, you will work with Residence Life in the spring to develop your theme and determine next steps for planning.

1. What will your community name be? Remember to tie in your theme to your house name!

   Name of Community: ___________________________________________________________

2. Interest Statement — Please describe the purpose for your Student Directed Community. What will you learn from living in your themed community? What are the activities/programs in which they will engage?
