The Roommate Agreement is a tool to help you identify personal needs and desires for your living environment as well as recognize potential issues of disagreement. The Roommate Agreement is also used to help you set guidelines for the living environment based on respect and compromise.

This form should be completed only after both roommates have completed the individual survey (found online at the Residence Life website). Upon completion, a copy of this form will be turned into your Resident Assistant and another copy should be posted in your room.

Use of Room:

We designate the following environment for study (noise, times for studying, guests)...

We designate the following times for sleep and fun...

Guests are welcome in the room during the following times...

Out of town guests are welcome under the following conditions (times, days, frequency)...

Significant others are welcome under the following conditions (times, days, frequency)...

The cleanliness of the room/bathroom will be as follows:

Smoking in the room (in accordance to University policy)...

Drinking in the room (in accordance to University policy)...

We decided the following when it comes to sharing personal belongings (TV, stereo, computer, clothes, food)...

Communication:

We decided that phone messages will be handled in the following manner...

Phone usage, both cell phone and landline, in the room will be as follows...

Private time for each roommate will be as follows...

We have agreed to handle confrontation with each other in the following manner...

As roommates we agree to follow the aforementioned guidelines and expectations. We understand that Elon University expects us to review this agreement before Fall Break and to discuss any issues or violations to this agreement.

We also understand that this agreement will be used in any roommate conflicts where a roommate is contemplating a room change. No room change is allowed at Elon University until roommate mediation occurs with a staff member.
