Course Information: College Writing, ENG 110
Faculty Contact Information: Anne Cassebaum cassebau@elon.edu

Service Description:
This course requires students to serve 15 hours of direct service over the semester. Students will interact with clients and staff throughout the semester.

Service will provide students with the opportunity to see how they can serve the community, understand why polity changes are needed, and get motivated for writing. Students will be developing grant proposals for an identified need, based on observations and agency feedback.

Service Placements:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Agency</th>
<th>Agency Description</th>
<th>Hours</th>
<th>Availability</th>
<th>Contact Info</th>
<th>Directions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Boys and Girls Club</td>
<td>To enable all youth especially those from disadvantaged circumstances to reach their full potential as responsible and caring citizens. Service experiences are centered around tutoring children, working with children in a recreational environment and providing mentoring relationships to help meet individual needs.</td>
<td>Monday - Friday 2:30-6:00pm</td>
<td>2 students</td>
<td>Sherri Henderson 336-226-4462 sherri.henderson@uss.salvationarmy.org</td>
<td>Take Haggard Avenue past Elon Elementary and Danieley Center. At the light (intersection of new bypass), make a right onto Webb Ave (aka Hwy 100). Follow this past downtown Burlington, and across Church Street. Make a left onto Flanner St. (by the red, white, and blue Alamance Lumber building). Take a right onto Dixie Street and Boys and Girls Club will be at the intersection of Dixie and Stockard.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Caring Kitchen                | Offers meals to low income and elderly on weekends. Must schedule hours in advance-professional dress is required for service. Service experiences are centered around meal preparation and serving and involve direct contact with clients. Service will take place Saturdays and Sundays. | Prep:9:30am - 12:30pm
Serving:11:15am - 1:30pm S/S | 3 Students   | Ellen Burchell 226-3260 home
No email address. | Take Church Street past the movie theater and towards downtown Burlington. Turn right onto East Webb Street. You will cross Mebane street. Continue on Webb about 1/2 mile and look for Tucker street on your right. After several stoplights you will see The Burlington Assembly of God on the corner of Sixth street and Tucker street. Turn onto Tucker street. The Caring kitchen is in a brick building just beyond the church. |
| E. Bynum Education Center Program | This organization works with low income children and provides services through Smart Start funding. Service experiences are centered around tutoring children with homework and assistance/training children how to use computers. | Office hours
Mon-Fri 9:00am-6:00pm
3:00pm-6:00pm for tutoring | 2 students   | Ernestine Lewis 336.228.0840
ebynumec@aol.com | Take Williamson Ave. over the railroad tracks to intersection with Church St. (by Food Lion). Make a left onto Church Street. Pass the movie theater on your left. Stay on Church St. toward downtown Burlington. Pass Ham's Restaurant on your right. Just past Ham's and City park, bear right onto Main Street. There's no street sign for |
| Loaves and Fishes | This program’s goal is to feed the hungry in our area and stamp out hunger in this community. Students working here should expect to be making bags, stocking shelves, and making deliveries. Saturdays are often used as “peanut butter and jelly days” and include visiting low-income housing areas to distribute the sandwiches. | Mon - Fri 9am-3pm  Sat 9am-11:30am  2nd Sun 10am-1pm | 2 Students | Shannon Smith 336.570.4668  inglebingle@aol.com | Take Haggard Avenue, passing Elon Elementary school on your left. At the light at Sheridan Apartments, make a right onto Oak Street. This becomes Front Street. Take Front Street all the way into downtown Burlington to Lexington. Go two blocks to Lexington and Maple ave. corner building. Address: 509 South Lexington Ave. Burlington, NC 27216 |
| Positive Attitude Youth Center | An after school program working to help children mature physically, emotionally, and spiritually by offering school tutoring, recreational activities, and events for the entire family. Service learning experiences are centered around tutoring a variety of students including low-income students and some students with court involvement or are homeless or have been abused. Some referrals are from the school system for students who need extra tutorial assistance. | Monday - Friday 2:00pm - 6:00pm | 3 students | Eunice Richmond 336.585.0844  positiveattitude@bellsouth.net | Take East Haggard Avenue past McMichael and Sheridan and continue straight through the light. At the next light turn right onto Webb Avenue. PAYC is in the Glen Raven Shopping Center, across the street from CVS. In the same building as the post office. |