

In the Student Senate
S.R. 09-4.2
April 23rd, 2009

A RESOLUTION TO ALLOW TWENTY-FOUR HOUR ACCESS TO ALL COMPUTER LABS DURING EXAM WEEK

- WHEREAS: The computer labs in Alamance, Duke, Powell, McEwen, Mooney, and the Koury Business Center close at 11:00 PM every night, and;
- WHEREAS: There is limited space and limited computers in Belk Library during exam week, and;
- WHEREAS: Many of the current computer labs that are open during exam weeks are often overcrowded, including spaces in Belk Library, and;
- WHEREAS: Many computer lab spaces in Alamance, Duke, Powell, McEwen, Mooney, and the Koury Business Center are closer to some student residential halls on campus, therefore;

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF ELON UNIVERSITY THAT:

- ARTICLE I: During exam week, starting with reading day and extending through the conclusion of the examination schedule, we recommend all computer labs in Alamance, Duke, Powell, McEwen, Mooney, the Koury Business Center, and all other locations deemed appropriate will be open twenty-four hours each day.
- ARTICLE II: The twenty-four computer lab period will occur three times a year: finals week for the Fall and Spring Semesters and for finals days during Winter Term.
- ARTICLE III: The classrooms without computer labs in the above listed buildings will remain locked.
- ARTICLE IV: Students will enter the above listed buildings through Phoenix Card swipe.
- ARTICLE V: At the conclusion of the examination period, the above listed buildings will return to normal hours of operation.
