Get ready to tackle the whitewater of West Virginia’s beautiful Gauley River with Elon’s Young Alumni Adventure trip.

September 27-28, 2008

This two-day adventure will excite both beginners and seasoned rafters. Make plans now to join fellow young alumni and tame the Gauley with Class VI Rafting, the Gauley’s premier adventure outfitter.

The Details

Saturday

Once arriving on Saturday morning, you will be outfitted with a wetsuit package (included in the cost of the trip) while enjoying hors d’oeuvres and complimentary beverages. You’ll then spend the afternoon rafting the Upper Gauley, which boasts the most adventurous rafting in West Virginia. After working up an appetite, you’ll be treated to a hot riverside lunch.

That evening, you will stay at The Canyon Doors Camp, Class VI’s riverside campground. Class VI will transport your luggage to camp prior to your arrival. Enjoy a surf and turf dinner of steak and salmon prepared by an on-site chef, as well as hot showers, hot tubs and gatherings around the fire pits. Limited beverages will be provided at camp. You can either bring your own sleeping bag and tent, or rent from Class VI for an additional fee.

Sunday

Wake to a hot breakfast prepared by the on-site chef before rafting the Lower Gauley, which features magnificent views. A gourmet deli lunch will be served riverside. At the conclusion of rafting that afternoon, the group will be transported back to Class VI’s base camp before departing for home.

All rafts are guided by highly trained trip leaders who are OEC certified and experienced in swift-water rescue.
