

Second Annual!

Documentary

Film
Shorts

Competition

North Carolina Campus Compact invites students to create a 5 to 15 minute documentary short based on the theme
"Campus-community partnerships positively impact local problems."

One grand prize winner will receive:

- $250
- A screening of the film at the CSNAP student conference at Central Piedmont Community College, November 2, 2013
- One free conference registration
- Critique of their film from a distinguished panel of judges

Two additional entries are eligible to be the "People's Pick."

Possible Topics:

- Community outreach programs or on-going service projects
- Community-based research projects
- Social Entrepreneurship
- Philanthropy
- Advocacy/awareness campaigns

Other ways in which your campus is addressing local community challenges.

Visit www.nccampuscompact.org to see the 2012 winning videos and to learn more about the 2013 competition. You will see the Film Competition icon on the main page.

Questions? 336.278.7278 or lgarvin@elon.edu

Submission Deadline: September 20, 2013

North Carolina | Campus Compact