Self-guided walking tour

This tour will guide you through Elon’s main campus.

Inman Admissions Welcome Center
The Inman Admissions Welcome Center is Elon’s home for prospective students and families. The center includes offices for undergraduate and graduate admissions, and financial planning.

Belk Library
Belk Library is an information resource center including Media Services, the Writing Center and the Tutoring Center. The library also includes six group study rooms and two computer labs.

Moseley Center
Moseley Center is a hub of campus life. The building houses the Student Professional Development Center, student organizations, administrative and student life offices.

McEwen Communications Building
McEwen houses the School of Communications, which offers degrees in communications and journalism and is accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications. After you enter the main doors, continue through the next double doors, and push the button on the wall located next to the flat-screen TV to view a video explaining the school.

Moseley Center
Moseley is designed to face Young Commons. Turn right and then stay right at the pedestrian roundabout. Enter Lakeside Dining Hall through the main entrance.

Lakeside Dining Hall
This two-story eatery is the university’s newest dining facility and includes a free central culinary station, including one with a weekly international theme.

Center for the Arts
This building houses the Music and Performing Arts departments. Facilities include the Black Box Theatre, McCrary Theatre, a scenery shop and Yeager Recital Hall. There are various music rehearsal rooms and dance studios. Expanded facilities for arts majors are housed in Arts West. See map.

McKoon Integrated Science Center
This building is located on Elon’s historic central campus and includes classroom and academic department offices.

Colonnades Neighborhood
This neighborhood houses students in all four class years. It’s home to multiple living-learning communities, and is heated and cooled by a geothermal system in the ground beneath the neighborhood commons.

Koury Business Center
This is the home of Elon’s Martha and Spencer Love School of Business, which is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. The school offers degrees in accounting, economics, entrepreneurship, finance, international business, international economics, management and marketing as well as a Master of Business Administration degree, a Master of Science in Management degree and business dual degree programs in Germany and France.

Koury Admissions Welcome Center
This is also located in the Academic Village. Unless otherwise noted, all maps indicate the main entrance of the dining hall and turn right. You’ll soon find yourself in the Colonnades Neighborhood.

Academic Village
The Academic Village is the home of Elon College, the College of Arts and Sciences. The centerpiece of the Academic Village, Lindner Hall, has achieved LEED Gold certification for sustainability. The multidisciplinary, Elon’s math and science building, is also located in the Academic Village. Unless otherwise noted, all maps indicate the main entrance of the dining hall and turn right. You’ll soon find yourself in the Colonnades Neighborhood.
