If a male passer completes a legal forward pass to a male receiver or a female passer completes a legal forward pass to a female receiver, the next legal forward pass must involve either a passer or receiver of the opposite gender. To be considered legal, the forward pass must cross the line of scrimmage in the air.

10.4. During the offensive team’s possession, there may not be two consecutive completions from a male passer to a male receiver or a female passer to a female receiver. This applies to the point after touchdown attempt.

“Open and Closed” Plays
