- MGT 411 (4) – Process, Systems and Technology
- MGT 412 (4) – Advanced Organizational Behavior

Project Management Career Track

Organizations succeed or fail in today’s dynamic environment based on the ability to bring quality products and services to market in a timely manner. Without skilled project managers leading these efforts, organizations are challenged to deliver projects on time, on budget, and within scope. Regardless of the industry or mission, project management is the value driver that helps organizations maximize the use of their resources and achieve strategic goals.

Required Courses:
- ECO 301 (4) – Business Economics
- MGT 410 (4) – Project Management
