Bolt Public Relations (Raleigh, NC): Bolt Public Relations, a PR, marketing communications and social media agency in Raleigh, N.C., is seeking motivated and enthusiastic interns to join its team for the fall 2013 semester. Founded in January 2007, Bolt provides small businesses and start-ups with revenue-generating exposure, credibility and attention. If you’re looking to gain invaluable insight into the PR industry, while having a ton of fun, we encourage you to apply. Send a cover letter and resume to ncresume@boltpr.com. No phone calls or faxes.

The White House (Washington, DC): The application period for the White House Internship Program is now open. The application deadline for the Fall 2013 program is May 12, 2013. All application materials, including recommendations, must be submitted on or before the application deadline. Please read all of the following instructions and see Internship Timeline and FAQs before starting your application. Please click here to submit your application to the White House Internship Program.

American City Business Journals (Charlotte, NC) PAID: American City Business Journals (ACBJ), the largest publisher of local business news in the United States, is looking for a business development intern. The business development intern will help support the growth and development of new digital business initiatives within ACBJ. This will involve working with various departments that drive a successful business such as marketing, business development, sales, product, advertising operations, and finance. Qualified candidates apply via email contact: Jobs@bizjournals.com

Curtis Media Group (Raleigh, NC): Curtis Media Group owns and operates 25 radio stations, three networks and four Internet companies with coverage stretching across the state of North Carolina from the Atlantic coast to the Tennessee border. Summer positions are available, including internships in: News, Sports & Public Affairs, Programming, Sales & Client Marketing, Promotions & Station Marketing, Websites and Social Media, and Engineering/Operations. If interested, email Chris Atwell: catwell@curtismedia.com.

Carolina Biological Supply Company (Burlington, NC) PAID: Carolina Biological Supply Company is looking for a student in the School of Communications. This intern would help with the company’s website, social media, and video production. Interested students should contact James Scruggs directly: james.scruggs@carolina.com.
Southern Living Magazine (Birmingham, AL) PAID: Southern Living is seeking a graduating senior to gain experience in a yearlong internship position at the magazine’s headquarters. This opportunity gives recent grads experience and exposure to creating multimedia content— including print, tablet, video, and blogs— for the country’s seventh-largest monthly paid consumer title. Interested students should send a cover letter and resume to Lindsay@southernliving.com.

Discovery Communications (Chicago, IL) PAID: Discovery Communications is seeking a talented individual to participate in an internship program for the Strategy and Emerging Products team. Our team is part think tank, part product and partnership development group with the objective of delighting Discovery audiences across platforms (video, mobile, social media). We explore emerging technologies with the goal of identifying new ways to build compelling user experiences for our audiences and beyond. For more information, visit: http://discoveryhorizon.com. To apply, visit: https://careers-discovery.icims.com/jobs/7612/job.

DCInternships.org (Washington, DC): DC Internships offers a political journalism track for students who are interested in this field of study. DC Internships’ package includes a guaranteed internship placement, courses for transferable credit, furnished housing, a variety of guest lectures and briefings, as well as opportunities for professional development and networking. We truly provide the ultimate semester experience in Washington. The fall 2013 program will be held August 28—December 14, 2013. For more information and to learn how to apply, visit: http://www.dcinternships.org/?programs=cs-pj.

Invisible Children (San Diego, CA) STIPEND, HOUSING: Invisible Children is a social, political and global movement using the transformative power of story to change lives. By inspiring youth culture to value creativity, idealism and sacrifice, the movement fuels the most effective, adaptable and innovative programs in the world. This Internship Program is designed to be a learning opportunity for people who are interested in pursuing careers in various aspects of film, media, non-profit management, and/or international development work. Interns receive a small nominal stipend for living expenses and housing is provided in the IC Intern House. To apply, visit: http://bit.ly/JobsatIC.

Time out New York (New York, NY): Time Out New York is a comprehensive arts and entertainment multiplatform media business, delivering engaging features, local listings and critical reviews to active and informed residents and visitors of New York City. The goal of the Time Out New York internship for the fall semester is to provide students with valuable experience within the media industry. It is an opportunity for students to learn and develop marketable skills in several media related fields. For more information and to learn how to apply, visit: http://www.timeout.com/newyork/things-to-do/internships.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Nagatha Tonkins, Assistant Professor / Director, Internships
Elon University, 112 McEwen
cominternships@elon.edu, (336) 278-6336
Check out our blog at: www.internnetwork.wordpress.com
Follow us on Twitter: http://twitter.com/Cominternships#.