

Sun-e Briefs • April 2011

---

NCOGC News

Elon University student files lawsuit against Elon

An Elon University senior filed a lawsuit against his university and Attorney General Roy Cooper for withholding Campus Safety and Police records concerning the arrest of a student last year. Read more HERE and HERE.

UNC loses open records case

A Wake County superior court ruled that the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill withheld documents that should been released in response to an open-records lawsuit filed by several media groups. Read more HERE.

Sunshine Amendment runs into snag

An amendment that would have made it more difficult for governments to close public meetings or exempt records for public inspection stalled in the state House and Senate. Read more HERE.

It was a busy month for open government news, so check our website at <http://ncopengov.org> for much more information from around the state. And follow us on Twitter @NCOpenGov for more immediate news content.

---

Sun-e Briefs are a service of the Sunshine Center made possible through a grant from the Knight Foundation. This monthly news update will keep you in the open-government loop by bringing you news about access issues from across the state and updates on the Sunshine Center and North Carolina Open Government Coalition. Coming to you from Elon University, home of the Sunshine Center, we think you'll find Sun-e Briefs a valuable addition to your inbox. If you would like to contact us to let us know about a story or to remove your name from our list, please write ncopengov@elon.edu.

© 2011 N.C. Open Government Coalition
Elon University
School of Communications
CBX 2850
Elon, NC 27244
(336) 278-5506
ncopengov@elon.edu