Assistant Professor of Education

The Department of Education at Elon University seeks an Assistant Professor of Education (Tenure-track) specializing in elementary mathematics and/or science education beginning August 2017. The successful candidate must hold an earned doctorate in Education or a related field. A record of collaborative work in diverse public school settings is highly desirable.

Responsibilities include teaching courses in elementary mathematics/science methods, other undergraduate and graduate education areas and Elon’s Core Curriculum Program. Candidates must demonstrate a record of, or potential for, excellence in teaching and a program of scholarly activity in STEM education.

Elon is a dynamic private, co-educational, comprehensive institution that is a national model for actively engaging faculty and students in teaching and learning. To learn more about Elon, please visit us at www.elon.edu. For more information about the department and its curriculum, please visit our website: www.elon.edu/education.

For full consideration, review of applications will begin on October 1, 2016. Applications must include letter of application, current vita, teaching philosophy, three letters of reference, and all transcripts. All materials must be sent electronically to: Dr. Terry Tomasek, Math/Science Search Committee Chair at mathsciencesearch16@elon.edu.

New employees paid by direct deposit only.

Elon University is an equal opportunity employer committed to a diverse faculty, staff, and student body and welcomes all applicants.