Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990: was signed into law in November of 1990. The U.S. Department of Education is committed to ensuring that postsecondary institutions are in full compliance with this act, and that enforcement of the act remains a priority. This act requires institutions participating in student financial aid programs under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 to disclose campus crime statistics and security information. The Act requires higher education institutions to give timely warnings of crimes that represent a threat to the safety of the campus community, and make public their campus security policies. To be in compliance each institution must meet four main obligations: policy, policy disclosure, records collection, and retention and information dissemination.

This report is prepared to fulfill the requirements of Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended in 1998, the provision of an Annual Security Report as described under §668.46. This report may be found at the Elon University Police web site:

<http://www.elon.edu/safety>. The report will be mailed to anyone requesting a copy.

Anyone may obtain a copy at the Elon University Police Department located at the McCoy Commons. Statistics in this report are obtained from the incident reports of the University Police, incident reports of other local law enforcement agencies and information from other campus officials designated by this Act as Campus Security Authorities.

Reporting includes off-campus, short-term programs taking place during the January term (winter term). Short-term programs at Elon are 1-3 week, faculty-led courses with an international or domestic traveling component.

Elon University students come from diverse backgrounds and are highly motivated individuals with a strong desire for involvement and achievement.

Freedom means many things to many people. All of us expect the freedom of personal safety and the right to enjoy a life free of crime. Unfortunately, violent crime continues to be prevalent in our society. Each of us must become aware of the precautions necessary to reduce the likelihood that we will become victims of crime. Remember that no one is free from the danger of crime on or off campus. You are the key to your own safety and the safety of others in our campus community. Elon University is concerned and understands its' responsibility in contributing to a safe and secure campus environment. Creating a safe campus environment is a community effort.

Although Elon has experienced a lower incidence of crime than surrounding areas, our community is not immune to crime. The number of incidents occurring on the campus can be reduced if all members of the community practice everyday precautions that will help to maintain a safe community.

The Elon University Police Organization consists of the following:

- Police Agency: 21 Officers Certified by NCJA and NC Attorney General's Office
- 14 Community Service Officers (CSOS) & Traffic Division Officers
- 6 Communications Dispatchers

University Police will respond in all cases of criminal activity. Any violation of criminal law can be investigated by the Elon University Police Department and could lead to criminal prosecution.

Campus Police Authority and Jurisdiction: Campus Police have comprehensive police authority to apprehend and arrest anyone involved in illegal acts on-campus and through mutual aid agreements in the areas adjacent to campus. Campus Police enforce North Carolina State Laws. Community Service Officers enforce rules and policies of the university. Minor offenses may also be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. Questions or concerns about the organization or operations should be addressed with the Director/Chief of University Police.

Daily Crime/Fire Log: May be inspected during normal business hours at the Campus Police Department, which is located at McCoy Commons in the Oaks. This log maintains a record of crimes and fires that have been reported (date & time occurred, general location and nature of crime and disposition of the incident, if known). It contains the information on the last 60 days.

Elon University Police Policies and Procedures: Safety and Security efforts on the Elon University campus are coordinated by the University Police Department. The primary responsibility of the University Police is to provide a safe and secure campus environment for students, faculty, staff and visitors to the campus. The Department is committed to reducing crime, disorder, and the fear of crime on campus. The Elon University Police provides security 24 hours per day, 365 days a year in the form of foot, vehicular patrol, and bike patrol. Through a modern communication network, patrol staff can contact additional emergency services directly from their radios. This gives the university immediate access to needed personnel in the event of an emergency. Campus police office dispatchers who communicate with university police officers and community service officers on patrol, monitor activities on the campus 24 hours daily. Additional patrol personnel are provided during times of increased activity on campus.

Stalking: as used in the FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to—a) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or b) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Stalking ~ North Carolina General Statute 14-277.3A.

(a) Legislative Intent. – The General Assembly finds that stalking is a serious problem in this State and nationwide. Stalking involves severe intrusions on the victim’s personal privacy and autonomy. It is a crime that causes a long-lasting impact on the victim’s quality of life and creates risks to the security and safety of the victim and others, even in the absence of express threats of physical harm.

Stalking conduct often becomes increasingly violent over time.

The General Assembly recognizes the dangerous nature of stalking as well as the strong connections between stalking and domestic violence and between stalking and sexual assault. Therefore, the General Assembly enacts this law to encourage effective intervention by the criminal justice system before stalking escalates into behavior that has serious or lethal consequences. The General Assembly intends to enact a stalking statute that permits the criminal justice system to hold stalkers accountable for a wide range of acts, communications, and conduct. The General Assembly recognizes that stalking includes, but is not limited to, a pattern of following, observing, or monitoring the victim, or committing violent or intimidating acts against the victim, regardless of the means.

(b) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Course of conduct. – Two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, is in the presence of, or follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.

(2) Harasses or harassment. – Knowing conduct, including written or printed communication or transmission, telephone, cellular, or other wireless telephonic communication, facsimile transmission, pager messages or transmissions, answering machine or voice mail messages or transmissions, and electronic mail messages or other computerized or electronic transmissions directed at a specific person that torments, terrorizes, or terrifies that person and that serves no legitimate purpose.

(3) Reasonable person. – A reasonable person in the victim's circumstances.

(4) Substantial emotional distress. – Significant mental suffering or distress that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

(c) Offense. – A defendant is guilty of stalking if the defendant willfully on more than one occasion harasses another person without legal purpose or willfully engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific person without legal purpose and the defendant knows or should know that the harassment or the course of conduct would cause a reasonable person to do any of the following:

(1) Fear for the person's safety or the safety of the person's immediate family or close personal associates.

(2) Suffer substantial emotional distress by placing that person in fear of death, bodily injury, or continued harassment.

(d) Classification. – A violation of this section is a Class A1 misdemeanor. A defendant convicted of a Class A1 misdemeanor under this section, who is sentenced to a community punishment, shall be placed on supervised probation in addition to any other punishment imposed by the court. A defendant who commits the offense of stalking after having been previously convicted of a stalking offense is guilty of a Class F felony. A defendant who commits the offense of stalking when there is a court order in effect prohibiting the conduct described under this section by the defendant against the victim is guilty of a Class H felony.

Procedures for Reporting a Complaint

The University has procedures in place that serve to be sensitive to those who report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, including informing individuals about their right to file criminal charges as well as the availability of counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance and other services on and/or off campus as well as additional remedies to prevent contact between a complainant and an accused party, such as housing, academic, transportation and working accommodations, if reasonably available. The University will make such accommodations, if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to the Elon University Police Department or local law enforcement. Students and employees should contact the Dean of Student Health and Wellness, at (336)278-7200.

After an incident of sexual assault and domestic violence, the victim should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible at Moses Cone Hospital in Greensboro, NC. In North Carolina, evidence may be collected even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement. If the victim chooses not to make a report to law enforcement the evidence is still collected, the victim's name is concealed inside and preserved by LESS-Law Enforcement Support Services in Raleigh, NC. For more information visit:

<http://www.nccasa.org/resources/anonymous-reporting>

It is important that a victim of sexual assault not bathe, douche, smoke, change clothing or clean the bed/linen/area where they were assaulted if the offense occurred within the past 96 hours so that evidence as may be necessary to the proof of criminal activity may be preserved. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted disease. Victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications, and keeping pictures, logs or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to University hearing boards/investigators or police. Although the university strongly encourages all members of its community to report violations of this policy to law enforcement, it is the victim's choice whether or not to make such a report and victims have the right to decline involvement with the police. The University's Coordinator for Violence Response (336)278-5009, will assist any victim with notifying local police if they so desire. Elon University Police Department may also be reached directly by calling (336)278-5555, in person at 416 North Williamson Avenue Elon, NC. Additional information about the Elon University Police department may be found online at: <http://www.elon.edu/safety>

If you have been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, you should report the incident promptly to one of the University's Title IX Investigators, Mike Neiduski Leadership and Professional Development 106 2067 Campus box Elon, NC 27244 (336) 278-5787 mneiduski@elon.edu , Faith Shearer, Alumni Field House 239H 2500 Campus Box Elon, NC 27244 (336) 278-6790 email fshearer@elon.edu , Carla Ugboro Business Services 112 A 2070 Campus Box Elon, NC 27244 (336) 278-5560 cugboro@elon.edu, and Campus Police (if the victim so desires.) The University will provide resources to persons who have been victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and will apply appropriate disciplinary procedures to those who violate this policy. The procedures set forth below are intended to afford a prompt response to charges of sexual assault, domestic or dating violence, and stalking, to maintain confidentiality and fairness consistent with applicable legal requirements, and to impose appropriate sanctions on violators of this policy.

As time passes, evidence may dissipate or become lost or unavailable, thereby making investigation, possible prosecution, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining protection from abuse orders related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, he or she nevertheless should consider speaking with Elon University Police or other law enforcement to preserve evidence in the event that the victim changes her/his minds at a later date.

Elon University Student Conduct Process

Adjudication of Violations

Elon University views its role in the administration of institutional policy as one of both ensuring fairness and providing an educational opportunity for the student. This approach protects the campus community by providing a system of sanctions that are educational and hold students accountable for violating university policies. Sanctions are assigned to encourage the growth and development of students and support the practice of responsible behavior in a community. This educational approach requires a need for understanding and self-discipline on the part of the student as well as a respect for the rights and privileges of others.

If a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking is reported to the University, the below are the procedures that the University will follow as well as a statement of the standard of evidence that will be used during any Student Conduct hearing on campus arising from such a report:

Incident: Sexual assault

1. Depending on when reported (immediate vs delayed report), institution will provide complainant with access to medical care.
2. Institution will assess immediate safety needs of complainant.
3. Institution will assist complainant with contacting local police if complainant requests AND complainant will be provided with contact information for local police department.
4. Institution will provide complainant with referrals to on and off campus mental health providers and an on-campus confidential violence response support person.
5. Institution will assess need to implement interim or long-term protective measures, such as housing changes, change in class schedule, "No Contact" directive between both parties.
6. Institution will provide written instructions on how to apply for Protective Order.
7. Institution will provide a copy of the Sexual Misconduct Policy to complainant and inform the complainant regarding timeframes for inquiry, investigation and resolution.
8. Institution will inform the complainant of the outcome of the investigation, whether or not the accused will be administratively charged and what the outcome of the hearing was.
9. Institution will enforce the anti-retaliation policy and take immediate and separate action against parties that retaliate against a person for complaining of sex-based discrimination or for assisting in the investigation.

Incident: Stalking

1. Institution will assess immediate safety needs of complainant
2. Institution will assist complainant with contacting local police if complainant requests AND complainant provided with contact information for local police department
3. Institution will provide written instructions on how to apply for Protective Order
4. Institution will provide written information to complainant on how to preserve evidence
5. Institution will assess need to implement interim or long-term protective measures to protect the complainant, if appropriate.

Incident: Dating Violence

1. Institution will assess immediate safety needs of complainant
2. Institution will assist complainant with contacting local police if complainant requests AND complainant provided with contact information for local police department
3. Institution will provide written instructions on how to apply for Protective Order
4. Institution will provide written information to complainant on how to preserve evidence
5. Institution will assess need to implement interim or long-term protective measures to protect the complainant, if appropriate

Incident: Domestic Violence

1. Institution will assess immediate safety needs of complainant
2. Institution will assist complainant with contacting local police if complainant requests AND complainant provided with contact information for local police department
3. Institution will provide written instructions on how to apply for Protective Order
4. Institution will provide written information to complainant on how to preserve evidence
5. Institution will assess need to implement interim or long-term protective measures to protect the complainant, if appropriate

The evidentiary standard for the above incidents is “preponderance of the evidence”

Student Conduct process for incidents involving sexual misconduct, relationship violence, or stalking

The Title IX Coordinator (or designee) will conduct an initial assessment to determine whether the alleged conduct presents a potential violation of the policies, identify needed resources for the complainant, and determine whether any interim protective measures are necessary to protect the safety of the parties or witnesses. The University will seek to balance the privacy needs of all individuals involved consistent with the need to conduct a careful initial assessment and response to the reported conduct. The Title IX Coordinator will determine if the University is able to maintain confidentiality when requested in accordance with the University's Title IX policy.

If the responding party is a student, an investigation team is appointed (comprised of the assistant dean of students or designee and at least one investigator). The reporting party and/or complainant, as well as respondent will each be interviewed separately to hear each participant. The investigation team will also interview other witnesses, collect additional information, and then draft a written report. (The investigation team determines which witnesses to interview including whether to interview those witnesses identified by either party and to the extent any witnesses' testimony is relevant and whether to include that information in the written report.) This report is presented to both parties for their review. Additional information or requests for witness interviews can be added by either party or the investigation team.

When the investigation is complete, an evaluation of the full investigation report is conducted by the investigation team and the assistant dean of students for student health and wellness and honor code. A finding of "responsible" or "not responsible" along with possible sanctions (when appropriate) is determined, and the decisions are communicated with the complainant and respondent. Both parties will be provided simultaneous written notification of the decisions, a rationale for the findings, any sanctions, and information related to the appeal process.

If either party appeals the decision and the request meets the allowable grounds for an appeal (see 6.I. – APPEALS AND APPEAL BOARDS – for more information), both parties may provide information to be considered in the review. At the conclusion of the appeal process, both parties will receive a final notification of the decision, a rationale for the findings, and any sanctions.

This process is typically completed within 60 days (not including any appeal process). When the academic calendar or a complicated incident requires going beyond this timeline, both parties will be kept apprised of the process and next steps.

Title IX

Reports of all domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking made to the University Police Department will automatically be referred to the Title IX Coordinator who will determine the most appropriate course of action to ensure prompt and equitable response regardless of if the complainant chooses to pursue criminal charges.

The university disciplinary process is consistent with the institution's policy and will include a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution process transparent to the complainant and respondent. Usually, resolution of complaints of sexual misconduct are completed within 60 days of the report, however the proceedings timeframe allows for extensions for good cause with notice to the complainant and respondent of the delay and the reason for the delay. Investigators are trained annually on the issues related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking and taught how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of the victim and promotes accountability. The honor code provides that:

1. The complainant and respondent each have the opportunity to participate in the interview/investigation process with properly trained staff that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability;
3. The institution will allow for timely access to the complainant, the respondent and appropriate officials to any information that will be used after the fact-finding investigation but during formal and informal disciplinary meeting and hearings;
4. The institutional disciplinary procedures will not be conducted by officials who have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the complainant or respondent;
5. The institution provides the complainant and respondent the same opportunities to have others present during an institutional disciplinary proceeding. The accuser and the accused student each have the opportunity to be advised by a current faculty, staff, or student at any stage of the process and to be accompanied by that advisor at any meeting or proceeding. An advisor may only consult and advise his or her advisee, but not speak for the advisee at any meeting or hearing;
6. A student conduct decision is based on the preponderance of evidence standard, i.e. "more likely than not to have occurred" standard. In other words, the conduct process asks: "is it more likely than not that the respondent violated the university's honor code?"
7. The complainant and respondent will be notified simultaneously in writing of the result of any disciplinary proceeding, as well as any changes to those result or disciplinary actions prior to the time that such results become final; and
8. The complainant and respondent each have the right to appeal the outcome of the hearing by submitting a letter to the associate dean of students by 5 p.m. on the second working day after the initial decision is rendered. This includes the complainant in personal violation policies, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct and will be notified simultaneously in writing, of any change to the result prior to the time that it becomes final and of the final result after the appeal is resolved.

A person alleging sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking may also utilize the complaint and investigatory procedures set forth in the university's policy against Sexual Harassment (<http://www.elon.edu/e-web/students/saa/>) in order to remedy any hostile environment. When a complainant does not consent to the disclosure of his or her name or other identifiable information to the alleged perpetrator, the university's ability to respond to the complaint may be limited.

Confidentiality

The University attempts to balance the needs of the parties for privacy with the institutional responsibility of ensuring a safe educational environment and workplace. Confidentiality is an aspiration, but is not always possible or appropriate. An individual's requests regarding the confidentiality of reports of discrimination or harassment will be considered in determining an appropriate response; however, such requests will be considered in the dual contexts of the University's legal obligation to ensure a working and learning environment that is free from discrimination or harassment and the rights of the accused to be informed of the allegations and their source. Some level of disclosure may be necessary to ensure a complete and fair investigation.

In all cases, investigations that result in a finding of more likely than not that a violation of the honor code occurred will lead to the initiation of disciplinary procedures against the accused individual. See steps above in section "Adjudication of violations".

For students, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are violations of the honor code. Employees who violate this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are criminal acts which also may subject the perpetrator to criminal and civil penalties under federal and state law.

The Title IX Coordinator or their designee will determine whether interim interventions and protective measure should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those protective measures as soon as possible. Examples of interim protective measures include, but are not limited to: a University order of no contact, residence hall relocation, adjustment of course schedules, a leave of absence, or reassignment to a different supervisor or position. These remedies may be applied to one, both, or multiple parties involved. Violations of the Title IX Coordinator's directives and/or protective measures will constitute related violations that may lead to additional disciplinary action. Protective measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by Elon University.

The University will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by such institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as the result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this paragraph.

Sex Offender Registration

The federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, enacted on October 28, 2000, requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement agency information provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice, as required under State law, of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, volunteers services or is a student.

In North Carolina, convicted sex offenders must register with the North Carolina Department of Justice. You can link to this information, which appears on North Carolina Department of Justice website, by accessing <http://sexoffender.ncdoj.gov/>

Assistance for Victims: Rights & Options

Regardless of whether a victim elects to pursue a criminal complaint, the university will assist victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and will provide each victim with a written explanation of their rights. In North Carolina, a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking has the following rights:

Responsibilities of Law Enforcement to the Victim(s)

- Information about the availability of medical services.

- Information about crime victims' compensation.
- Contact information for the prosecuting District Attorney's office.
- Contact information for the investigating law enforcement agency to ask about an accused's arrest or release from custody.
- Information about an accused's opportunity for pretrial release.

Responsibilities of the District Attorney's Office to the Victim(s)

- Providing the victim with information that explains the victim's rights.
- Notifying the victim of the date, time and place of all trial court proceedings involving the accused, if the victim so desires.
- Providing a secure waiting area during court proceedings.
- Providing the victim with the opportunity to talk with the attorney prosecuting the case, before the case is disposed, about the victim's views of the disposition of the case.
- Providing the victim the right to make a statement telling the sentencing judge the impact the case has had on the victim, prior to disposition of the case.
- Informing the victim of the disposition of the case within thirty (30) days of the final proceeding.
- Telling the victim of any rights the defendant has to appeal the case. Submitting victim identification information to the court at the time of sentencing.

Protection Orders:

Elon University complies with North Carolina law in recognizing orders of protection Chapter 50B by: providing a "No trespass" (PNG) directive to accused party if deemed appropriate, any person who obtains an order of protection from North Carolina or any state should provide a copy to the University Police and the Office of the Title IX Coordinator.

A protection order issued in any state can be enforced in North Carolina as long as:

- It was issued to prevent violent or threatening acts, harassing behavior, sexual violence, or it was issued to prevent another person from coming near you or contacting you.
- The court that issued the order had jurisdiction over the people and case. (In other words, the court had the authority to hear the case.)

- The abuser received notice of the order and had an opportunity to go to court to tell his/her side of the story. It doesn't matter if he actually showed up in court; just that he had the opportunity to do so.
- In the case of ex parte temporary and emergency orders, the abuser must receive notice and have an opportunity to go to court to tell his/her side of the story at a hearing that is scheduled within a "reasonable time" after the order is issued.

A complainant may then meet with Campus Police to develop a Safety Action Plan, which is a plan for campus police and the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to: escorts, special parking arrangements, providing a temporary cellphone, and other remedies through the Office of Student Health and Wellness. Protection from abuse orders are to be sought by the victim through the Alamance County Magistrates Office 336-570-5219.

To the extent of the victim's cooperation and consent, university offices, including Office of Student Conduct, Office of Student Concerns and Outreach, Office of Violence Response, Registrar's Office, Campus Safety and Police, Academic Advising will work cooperatively to ensure that the complainant's health, physical safety, work and academic status are protected, pending the outcome of a formal university investigation of the complaint. For example, if reasonably available, a complainant may be offered changes to academic, living, or working situations in addition to counseling, health services and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement and the Office of Student Concerns and Outreach. Additionally, personal identifiable information about the victim will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons with a specific need to know who are investigating/adjudicating the complaint or delivering resources or support services to the complainant. The University does not publish the name of crime victims nor house identifiable information regarding victims in the campus police departments Daily Crime Log or online. Victims may request that directory information on file be removed from public sources by request to the Registrar's Office at (336)278-6677.

PRINCIPLES FOR PREVENTION OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Elon University provides educational opportunities to students, faculty and staff about sexual violence prevention through the Department of Health Promotion. You can get more information by visiting the website at <https://www.elon.edu/e-web/students/health-promotion/> or contact the Coordinator for Health Promotion by calling 336-278-7285 to get more information or get trained in the following prevention efforts. Elon recognizes that preventing sexual violence is the responsibility of our entire community. The following steps are suggestions on how you can contribute to a safe and healthy community.

Actively disrupt rape culture and lead cultural change.

Rape culture describes a culture where rape is both commonplace and tolerated. Rape culture can be disrupted by being active bystanders, supporting survivors of sexual violence, being critical consumers of media, defying traditional gender norms that force gender upon people depending on their sex, talking openly about positive sexual experience so that sexual violence can be more readily identified and educating others about rape culture.

Support victims and survivors of sexual violence.

Elon University believes in supporting every survivor who comes forward by providing options and resources. The US Department of Justice states that 98% of victims/survivors are truthful, yet survivors of sexual violence are doubted more than any other victims of violent crime. At Elon University, we are committed to providing anyone who comes forward with an experience of sexual violence the support and resources needed for their own healing process. Survivors may face many barriers when coming forward or seeking support after an incident of sexual violence, including a cultural tendency to blame the victim/survivor for the assault itself. Elon University is dedicated to opposing all forms of victim-blaming, and to empowering the victim/survivor to make their own decisions regarding actions to take in the wake of sexual assault. Whatever action the victim/survivor decides upon (including no action at all), support that decision and help the victim/survivor find the resources necessary to implement it.

Know the components for consent and ask for consent every time.

Consent is given freely and willingly with clear communication by unimpaired partners every step of the way, and is always subject to change. It is everyone's responsibility to ask for and receive consent from their partner(s) before sexual activity occurs. Consent is never assumed. Learn the components of consent and how to ask for it. If someone is intoxicated to the extent they are incapacitated (i.e. slurring words, unresponsive, turning away, unconscious, or vomiting) or if the person is saying yes under pressure of any kind then they are not consenting. If you don't know if the person you are with is in a state of mind to consent you should wait until you are sure they are able to clearly communicate consent.

Elon University is dedicated to opposing all forms of victim-blaming, and to empowering the victim/survivor to make their own decisions regarding actions to take in the wake of sexual assault. Whatever action the victim/survivor decides upon (including no action at all), support that decision and help the victim/survivor find the resources necessary to implement it.

How to be an Active Bystander

Be an active bystander by recognizing a current or potentially harmful or hurtful situation and decide to take action. Assume good intentions but step in when you see someone trying to take advantage of someone else using coercion or substances. You can intervene by using a distraction, dodge a comment by changing the subject or delegate others who you feel could better handle the situation or have a more immediate impact.

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are "individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice of intervene, speak up, or do something about it." We want to promote a culture of "community & accountability" where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list of some ways to be an active bystander. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.

- 1. Watch out for your friends and fellow students, employees, and colleagues. If someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
- 2. Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
- 3. Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.
- 4. Listen attentively to someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.

5. Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance.

RISK REDUCTION

Elon University Police Department believes it is more beneficial to prevent crimes than to react after the fact. A primary vehicle for accomplishing this goal is the department's comprehensive crime prevention strategy. This strategy is based on a multi-layered approach that includes proactive area patrol of the campus, crime prevention education and training, building and area surveys to assess risk and recommend compensatory measures, and property registration.

- Be aware of your surroundings.
- Walk or jog with a friend.
- Make sure your cell phone is charged and accessible.
- Avoid putting music headphones in both ears.
- Trust your instincts.
- Watch out for your friends, and vice versa.
- If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.)
- If you observe suspicious activity or wish to report any criminal act, immediately call police at 911.
- Use emergency phones: Campus Blue Light and Call Box Phones are located throughout campus to provide assistance to anyone in distress.
- Tell a friend where you are going and when you will return.

Safe Rides: The University offers a SAFE RIDES program, coordinated by the Elon Volunteers office. Student volunteers provide free rides to students within a one mile radius of campus. SAFE RIDES operates Thursday evenings, 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. and Friday and Saturday evenings from 10:30 p.m. to 2:30 a.m. SAFE RIDES can be reached during operating hours by calling 336-278-RIDE (7433).

E-Rides: The E-ride program provides one way rides for students from on-campus to off campus residences within a mile and a half range from the Moseley Center. The E-ride program operates Monday-Thursday 7pm-2am and Friday 7pm-12pm. A ride may be requested by calling Campus Safety and Police at X5555.

Blue Light Phone System is a series of emergency alarm stations strategically located throughout campus to provide assistance to anyone in distress. A blue beacon shines above each alarm station. When an individual presses the alarm button, they can communicate directly with the communication officer at the University Police Department.

Callbox Phones are phones located inside buildings and can be used for assistance to anyone in distress.

Security Escort Service is available from 7pm-7am to and from on-campus locations. Students may request an escort by calling University Police at (336)278-5555.

Engrave or register your valuables through Campus OPERATION-ID program.

Members of the community are encouraged to report suspicious activity or unsafe conditions immediately and accurately.

All crimes should be reported to Elon University Police for the purpose of making a Timely Warning Notice and for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

Facility and Residence Hall Security and Access Policy:

Most campus academic and administrative buildings and facilities are generally accessible to members of the campus community, guests, and visitors during normal business hours, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays. Certain facilities may also be open during designated hours on weekends.

Exterior doors on campus buildings are locked and secured each evening by Security personnel. Building directors or department heads may submit After-Hours Authorization Forms to Security to allow individuals access to areas beyond the normal building hours. Special areas on campus, such as designated computer labs, may be open 24 hours a day.

Residence hall exterior doors are generally locked 24 hours. Entrance may be gained by use of a valid Phoenix ID card, or contacting Residence Life staff.

Security, Residential Life and Facilities staff are encouraged to report all door or security hardware problems for immediate repair. The staff of the offices of Campus Safety & Police and Physical Plant inspects campus facilities regularly to monitor security concerns. Any condition which affects the safety and security of the campus such as broken windows or locks, burned-out lights and mal-functioning fire safety equipment are reported immediately and repaired. If you see unsafe conditions, please report it immediately to Campus Police (336-278-5555) or Physical Plant (336-278-5500). You can achieve this by logging into the university's FIX-IT website:

<http://www.elon.edu/e-web/bft/physicalplant/>

Maintenance of Campus Facilities Campus Lighting is another important part of the Elon commitment to safety and security. There are two campus lighting tours conducted each year. Lighting problems or inefficiencies are immediately reported to Facilities for corrective action and a comprehensive survey of all exterior lighting is conducted annually by members of Facilities and Security. Landscaping on campus is maintained by trimming shrubbery and trees to enhance safety and security.

Student and Residence Life Programs: The University's Residence Life staff throughout the academic year also offers programs on safety/security and crime awareness, including Residence Life Staff Training, Greek Life Staff Orientation and Greek Life Alcohol Awareness Training.

Residence Life advises the Student Safety Committee, which considers a number of safety issues including campus lighting, self-defense training, etc. Residence Life works with Physical Plant and Campus Safety & Police to schedule the lighting walkthroughs each semester and gather information on lighting needs and issues.

Student life also trains (RA's, Head Residents and Housing Assistants) on the following issues:

- Crisis Management
- Emergency Response
- Confrontation
- Listening/Counseling Skills
- Greek Life: Training for House Captains Training includes:
- General Risk Management
- Counseling styles
- Fire and Safety
- TIPS Training/Alcohol Awareness
- Presidents, Risk Managers and Social Chairs receive Event Management Training.
- Student Government Association: sponsors a variety of programs annually

Residence Hall Safety:

- Keep your room door locked at all times.
- Do not lend your key or key card to anyone.
- Report a lost or stolen key to Campus Safety & Police and to Resident Life staff immediately.
- Do not prop doors open.
- Do not allow strangers to follow you into buildings.

- Report all security-related maintenance problems: locks, doors, windows, exterior lights in need of replacement, shrubbery in need of trimming or other unsafe condition should be reported immediately to the Facilities Management Service Line at 336-278-5500 or on-line at <http://www.elon.edu/physicalplant>. Campus Facilities and landscaping are maintained in a manner to minimize hazardous condition. Any conditions found are reported to Environmental Services.
- Identify your valuables using OPERATION ID. Campus Police offers you the ability to register your valuables with them so that in the event that they are lost or stolen, they will be immediately identifiable. This service is available at the McCoy Commons building in the Oaks residential neighborhood.
- Register your bicycle with campus police. They will issue a registration sticker to affix to your bicycle to deter theft and aid in recovery if it is stolen. Campus Police strongly recommends a U-style bike lock. A registered and properly locked bicycle is much less likely to be stolen. Bicycle registration is fast and free.

Workplace Safety:

- Keep personal items (purses, book bags) locked up.
- Secure the work area when no one is in it.
- Report suspicious people to the police. Call 911

CAMPUS WIDE EMERGENCY

To aid in the establishment of a more safety-conscious community, Chief of Elon University Police (or his/her designee) issues alerts to notify university community members of serious crimes and other situations that may represent a danger to students, faculty and staff of the University. These alerts may be reports of on-campus incidents reported to Elon University Campus Police or those in proximity to campus that are reported to the Elon Town Police. Campus Safety alerts are usually distributed by those methods listed below:

A. Notification of a CAMPUS WIDE EMERGENCY or a disaster will be made to the campus community by using one or more of the following communication channels:

- Campus wide voice mail.
- Campus wide email.
- WSOE and/or other local radio or TV stations.
- Public address system announcements from Campus Police.
- Person to person in academic and administration buildings through faculty and administrators, physical plant employees or building coordinators.

- Person to person at Resident Life buildings through Residence Life staff.
- Text alert and E-alert

The alert will include the nature of the incident, description of incident or persons, location of the incident, instructions or actions to be taken, and the name of the entity sending the alert.

B. What You Should Do in an Emergency:

Depending on the type and extent of the emergency, you will be instructed to evacuate a building or a portion of the campus and move to a safe area, or you will be instructed to remain in the building and await further instructions. In the unlikely event that the entire campus needs to be evacuated, you will receive instructions on how to leave the Elon University and surrounding metropolitan area via a pre-designated evacuation route.

SHELTER IN PLACE: WHAT IT MEANS TO SHELTER IN PLACE

Sheltering in place provides protection from external hazards, minimizes the chance of injury and or provides the time necessary to allow for a safe evacuation. This should be done by selecting a small, interior room if possible, with no or as few windows as possible. When authorities issue directives to shelter in place, do not walk outdoors, take refuge indoors immediately.

A shelter in place order may be issued for several reasons:

- Active Shooter
- Severe weather
- Hazardous materials
- Civil Unrest
- Hostage situation

Or any situation where it is best for you to stay where you are to avoid any outside threat.

When this occurs:

- Remain Calm.
- Faculty should recommend to students and others not to leave and to outside.
- If you are in dorm rooms, remain there.
- Select a small interior room with no or few windows as possible.
- Close and lock all windows, exterior doors, and any other openings that lead to the outside.
- Stay away from all windows, doors.

- Plant Operations personnel or trained Crisis Coordinators should shut down all building ventilation fans and air conditioners, when and if appropriate.
- If you are told there is danger of explosion, close the window shades, blinds, or curtains.
- Select interior room(s) above the ground floor, with the fewest windows or air vents.
- Room(s) should have adequate space for everyone to be able to sit down comfortably.
- Avoid overcrowding by selecting several rooms when necessary.

For severe weather and civil unrest:

- Stay inside and move away from windows.
- Close and lock all exterior doors and offices.
- For extreme weather, relocate to lower levels in the building

For external chemical, biological or radiological incidents:

- Stay inside and move to an inner corridor or office.
- Physical Plant personnel or trained Crisis Coordinators may shut down all building ventilation fans and air conditioners, when necessary and appropriate.
- Since many chemical agents are heavier than air, and tend to hold close to the ground move to higher levels of the building if possible to reduce the transfer of contaminated air from outside to inside.
- Remain alert for instructions and updates as they become available from the emergency personnel and university administrators.

C. Campus Emergency:

- Remain Calm.
- Listen carefully to instructions.
- Move out of the building you are in and go to other campus buildings/areas as instructed or
- Remain in the building and await further instructions.
- Do not return to your resident life building or office in another building to retrieve personal possessions unless you are instructed to do so.
- Stay in the building until the emergency has passed and you receive instructions that it is safe to leave.

In the event that an emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health and safety of students or staff exists on campus, Elon University Police, after confirmation of the emergency by University officials, medical personnel, fire officials, Town Police or University Police officers on scene, will activate all or part of the E-ALERT SYSTEM to notify the community. Due to the size of the campus, typically notifications will be sent out to all recipients. However, in the event that the immediate notification message is segmented to a particular portion of the campus, that will be the determination of University Chief of Police will without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification system, however, notification would not occur if, in the judgment of the authorities, efforts to assist a victim, contain, or respond to the emergency would be compromised. Annually each system will be tested with prior notice to the university community by email. Outside the University, Town of Elon Police and Fire Departments and Elon Elementary School, along with other neighborhood associations will be contacted so they may inform their members. Alert test (s) will be documented and re-reported to the community. Additional tests may be conducted if deemed necessary. Each system was successfully tested in 2016. During an emergency, follow-up messages may come from one or all of the alert systems depending on the situation.

Emergency Manual: <http://www.elon.edu/e-web/bft/safety/emergency.xhtml>

Missing Student Procedure: In addition to registering a general emergency contact, students residing in on campus housing have the option to identify confidentially an individual to be contacted by Elon University in the event the student is determined to be missing for more than 24 hours. If a student has identified such an individual, Elon University will notify that the individual no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. A student who wishes to identify a confidential contact can do so through the Elon University Registrar's Office at (336)278-6677. A student's confidential contact information will be accessible only by authorized campus officials and law enforcement during the investigation. If anyone believes that a resident student is missing they should immediately contact the Elon University Campus Safety & Police at 911. University Police will begin an investigation and notify Residence Life. If Campus Police determine that the student is missing for 24 hours they will notify the Town of Elon Police Department, all local and state law enforcement agencies for assistance in locating the student within 24 hours, regardless if the student has a registered confidential contact, is above the age of 18 or is emancipated. If the student is under 18 years of age and is not emancipated, Elon Campus Police will notify the student's parents or legal guardian and any other designated contact person within 24 hours.

FIRE SAFETY

Fire Drills: will be performed 4 times a year in on-campus residence halls and twice a year in houses used for student residences.

Individual Student Responsibilities: Wear shoes and something to protect you from the elements. Close all windows and doors and exit quietly and orderly. Leave through the pre-assigned exit or alternate and report to the determined evacuation area.

Steps for reporting a fire: Activate the fire alarm/pull station. Evacuate the building. Call 911 and provide the following information: your name, your building, location of fire, nature of fire. Inform officials of any students unable to evacuate. Go to your evacuation area so Residence Life staff will know you evacuated. Wait for further instructions from emergency personnel or Residence Life staff.

Fire Extinguisher Use: at no time should you risk your own safety by attempting to extinguish a fire or to return to a burning building!

Fire Incident Report: all fires (active or extinguished) and false alarms must be reported to the University Police by calling 911. Elon University Police and the Town of Elon Fire Department will be dispatched. The Fire Department will assure that everything has been properly extinguished. In addition this will allow for University Police to include the fire in the annual fire statistics as well as the fire log.

Be thoroughly familiar with your building, the fire lanes around your building and emergency procedures. Your attitude and knowledge towards fire safety helps create a safety conscious student body

Housing Policies

Elon University's Residence Hall Staff will perform Inspections for health and safety conditions and property inventory will be conducted by residence life staff periodically. The H&S inspections are primarily designed to find and eliminate safety violations. Students are required to read and comply with the housing policies, which include H&S inspections and all other rules and regulations for residential buildings. Fire safety is everyone's responsibility, so remember to only use heavy duty UL approved extension cords. The University reserves the right to impose reasonable requirements with respect to the use of appliances or equipment in campus housing. Some examples of items not permitted in campus housing are listed below. However, this list is not all-inclusive. If students have questions about specific items not listed, they are directed to Residence Life for clarification. Those items not allowed include: halogen lamps, microwave (except in Danieley Center and the Oaks housing kitchen area) or toaster ovens, hot plates, deep fat fryers, gas or charcoal grills, power tools, amplifiers (may be stored in student's rooms, but not used), ceiling fans, track lighting, mopeds, motorbikes, or motorcycles. Also, live Christmas trees, candles, halogen lamps, non-electric fuel lamps and lanterns, simmer pots, and incense may not be used or kept in campus housing. Residents who are in violation of this policy will be charged $50 and the item will be confiscated and held until it can be removed from campus.

Elon University Residence Life Housing Policy:

Fire Safety Training and Education

Residential Assistants and Area Directors are trained by Residence Life on fire safety protocol during summer training sessions. During the training policies, protocol, and locations are reviewed for each neighborhood's (evacuation) in case there is a fire.

At the beginning of every fall and spring semester Residence Life Staff reminds and familiarizes student residents of fire safety procedures and evacuation plans during fire drills. This is discussed in the floor meetings at the start of the semester and then all students briefed again during fire drills in the fall and in the spring. There was one Clery reportable fire on 03/01/2016 at Station at Mill Point Housing resulting in $100-$150 in damages.
