RESTRICTIONS GOVERNING FACSIMILE REPRODUCTION IN PRINTED FORM

Guidelines to follow for proper citation when publishing information from Belk Library Archives and Special Collections, Elon University

Note: The granting of permission to publish a facsimile reproduction of any materials in the Belk Library Archives and Special Collections requires the completion of this application form. All restrictions regarding the use and reproduction of any materials in the Belk Library Archives and Special Collections will be enforced.

In granting permission to publish a facsimile reproduction of an item(s) from the Belk Library Archives and Special Collections, we do not surrender our own rights to publish or to grant others the permission to publish. The granting of permission does not remove the author’s and/or publisher’s responsibility to guard against the infringement of copyrights that may be held by others. Elon University and Belk Library do not assume any responsibility for infringement of copyright by the author and/or publisher herein granted permission to publish a facsimile reproduction.

Credit is required on all facsimile reproductions of the materials in the Belk Library Archives and Special Collections. All reproductions and quotes from text should include the credit line, “[Name of item] courtesy of Belk Library Archives and Special Collections, Elon University, Elon, NC.”

Last updated: April 2012