NOTE: Summer 2019 registration opens Tuesday, March 12th at 12:45 p.m. In order to register for a Summer 2019 course, please complete Page 1 and return to the Registrar's Office on or after March 12th at 12:45 p.m. See course descriptions for more information.

If a student wishes to drop after the initial registration, s/he must drop the class before the posted add/drop deadline (Summer – Session 1: Tuesday, June 18, 2019; Summer – Session II: Thursday, July 25, 2019. There are no refunds beyond this date.

A student who takes a summer course at the Law School and is notified during the course that he or she has been academically excluded may be allowed to complete the course for credit or may withdraw from the course. If an academically excluded student withdraws from a summer school course after the drop-add period is over, no refund for tuition is available.

ABA RULE ON ONLINE COURSES: A law school may grant a student up to one-third of the credit hours required for the J.D. degree for distance education courses qualifying under this Standard. A law school may grant up to 10 of those credits during the first one-third of a student's program of legal education. Standard 206(e).

It is your obligation to ensure you do not exceed this amount. In calculating your total amount of credit from online courses, you should take into account any online course you have taken or might need to take as part of an accompanying course for your residency. Any credits taken in excess of the 28 credit hours will not count towards graduation. The number of online credit hours you have taken will be included on the Degree Audit that you receive from the Registrar's Office near the end of your 2L year.

TUITION: Tuition costs for the 2019 summer session are charged per credit hour. Tuition is $1,450 per credit hour. Students registered for the Law School Summer Session will receive a billing statement from the University. Payment in full or payment arrangements (e.g., confirmed financial aid) must be made by the payment due date on the billing statement to avoid cancellation of courses.

DROP/ADD DEADLINES: Students may add and/or drop classes through the posted add/drop deadline.

FINANCIAL AID: Students who are enrolled at least two (2) credit hours in either summer session are eligible to apply for financial aid for that session. Financial Aid forms are located in the Registrar's Office. If you have any questions regarding financial aid, please contact Lynette Lorenzetti at (336) 278-7640.

LAW693A Advocacy Fellows Externship Staff 3 credits
*The Advocacy Fellows Externship is designed to provide opportunities for students to gain practical legal experience while working under the supervision of a licensed attorney in an advocacy setting. Examples of advocacy settings would be litigation practices (e.g., district attorney, attorney general, public defender, legal aid or other law office that engages in courtroom advocacy, as well as judicial offices), or offices engaging in policy or social advocacy (e.g., non-profit organizations, government agencies, or other entities). The course requires a minimum of 135 hours of work. Registration is limited to Advocacy Fellows who are in compliance with all Fellows criteria. See Advocacy Externships FAQs here. Students may not receive any compensation for their work in the Externship course. Professional Responsibility is a prerequisite if placement requires the Extern to be certified under the North Carolina State Bar Limited Practice Certificate Program. This course will span across both Sessions I and II.
 Prerequisites: Available only to Advocacy Fellows
 Enrollment: No Minimum/ No Maximum
 Method of Evaluation: Pass/Fail
 Final Exam: None

LAW671A Commercial Law: Secured Transactions Dean Woodlief 3 credits
A study of the law of secured transactions, focusing on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. The course format is as follows: Each week, students will be assigned chapters in the textbook to read and work problems. Dean Woodlief posts recorded lectures online each week, as well as review problems. The work is largely at your own pace during the week, though students will need to have listened to the lectures and completed the problems by the weekly deadline. This course is completely online, which allows students to listen to weekly lectures, do the course reading and work on weekly assignments on their own schedule (subject to submitting them by the weekly deadline). The course can also be taken from anywhere in the world with Internet access. There are online chat forums/office hours twice each week, so students can connect with Dean Woodlief and ask any questions they may have about the material for the week. Dean

Woodlief is available other times during the week by appointment. Regular, weekly participation is an important part of the learning process in this course and is also a proxy for attendance. A component of the grade will be measured by participation (e.g., logging in and watching lectures, working textbook problems and answering review questions online, and submitting assignments). Students' participation will be monitored through the Moodle online course system and through students' submissions. Lack of consistent and timely participation in the course will result in a reduced grade in the course (detailed in syllabus). There will be at least one quiz and likely two, as well as a final exam. The quizzes will be submitted through Moodle (Elon's online course site), and the final exam will be through ExamSoft, so students do not have to be at the law school for the quizzes and exams. More specific details will be available in the course syllabus and on the course Moodle site.

LAW690A General ExternshipStaff*3 credits

The General Externship course is designed to provide opportunities for students to gain practical legal experience while working under the supervision of attorneys and judges. Students may earn 3 credits for 135 hours of qualifying work in the fall, winter or spring trimester or in the summer at a non-profit, government, judicial or in-house counsel office. Also in the summer, students have the option of earning 4 credits for 180 hours of qualifying work. Qualifying work is substantial lawyering experience reasonably similar to the experience of a lawyer advising or representing a client or engaging in other lawyering tasks under approved direct attorney or judicial supervision. In addition to the minimum hours of supervised work, the General Externship requires students to participate in sessions with a faculty advisor and with other externs -- in person, by phone or online via WebEx or some other medium -- and submit reflective written work and time records. Students are eligible for the General Externship course after completing three trimesters at the law school. Students must have their placements approved by the Director of Residencies in order to register for the course. Applications, stating all requirements, are available on the website at <https://www.elon.edu/e/law/academics/experiences/externships.html>. Students may not receive any compensation for their work in the Externship course. Professional Responsibility is a prerequisite if placement requires the Extern to be certified under the North Carolina State Bar Limited Practice Certificate Program. All placements must be pre-approved by the Externship Director. This externship will span across both Sessions I and II.

LAW689A Leadership Fellows: ExternshipStaff*3 credits

The Leadership Fellows Externship is designed to provide opportunities for Leadership Fellows to gain practical legal experience while working under the supervision of a licensed attorney or judge who is either 1) working full-time in public service or 2) is in private practice but plays a leadership role in the Bar, in pro bono service, or in the community. Examples of qualifying placements are state or federal government law offices, including all levels of attorney general, prosecutorial and public defender offices; state and federal governmental agencies such as the Social Security Administration, EEOC, and EPA; law offices of past and present officeholders in local and state bar associations; and law offices of members of the N.C. Pro Bono Society. The course requires a minimum of 135 hours of work. Like in other Externship courses, students are also required to participate in group and individual meetings with a faculty advisor (electronically if necessary) and to engage in reflective learning through journal entries, goals memos and assessments. Registration is limited to Leadership Fellows. Students may not receive any compensation for their work in the Externship course. Professional Responsibility is a prerequisite if placement requires the Extern to be certified under the North Carolina State Bar Limited Practice Certificate Program. This course will span across both Sessions I and II.
