MEMORANDUM

TO: ELON LAW STUDENTS
FROM: JANE LAW, REGISTRAR
RE: SPRING 2019 TRIMESTER COURSE INFORMATION
DATE: FEBRUARY 11, 2019 (FINAL VERSION)

Included with this memorandum are the following:

- Course descriptions for the courses to be offered in the Spring 2019 Session;
- The class schedule for the Spring 2019 Session;
- A “Confirmation of Faculty Advisor Meeting” form (for 2Ls only);
- A list of courses in various practice areas (Business/Transactional Law; Criminal Law; Civil Rights, Human Rights, and Public Interest Law; and Litigation/Advocacy) that faculty teaching in those areas deem to be essential in preparing for practice in those areas (not all the courses on the list are offered every trimester);
- A list of the textbooks required for courses offered in the Spring 2019 (with information Spring trimester)
- A list of anticipated courses for the two 2019 Summer Terms and the Fall 2019 Trimester (subject to change).

Adjustments to the class schedule may be made prior to the start of the spring trimester. The Registrar’s office will keep students updated as any adjustments occur.

1Ls are automatically registered for Lawyering, Leadership and Professionalism, Legal Method & Communication III and Property. 1Ls will register for either Business Associations or Evidence (4 credits each). You are only allowed to register for one of the courses. We will open registration up in our office on Thursday, February 14, 2018 at 12:45 p.m. Registration is on a first come-first serve basis. You must register in person, you may not have someone register you. If one of the courses fill up, all other students will be automatically registered for the other course.

2Ls - Online registration will begin on February 12, 2019 at 12:45 p.m. Online registration for all students will end on February 22, 2019. After February 22, 2019 at 5:00 p.m., you may update or change your schedule by emailing the Registrar, Ms. Law (jlaw@elon.edu). If there are updates or changes to the attached schedule, these will be e-mailed out as soon as possible. Most elective courses have enrollment caps and minimum enrollments. If a student attempts to register for a class and receives a message that the class has reached its cap, the student should email Ms. Law, to be placed on a wait list. If a class fails to meet the enrollment minimum, the enrolled students will be notified as soon as practical and allowed to register for other classes.

If you are scheduled to do your Residency during the Spring trimester, you must register for one additional course of either 2 or 3 credits, bringing students up to a full academic load for the term.

Students are encouraged to take an accompanying course related to their Residency and one that does not conflict with work hours. Some courses will be offered through distance learning technology, so that students have the possibility of completing a residency and the accompanying course away from the law school. The residency experience takes priority during the residency trimester. Thus, any student (either local or non-local) who elects to take a residency accompanying course during normal working hours (8:30am – 5:00pm), must obtain consent from the student’s on-site supervising attorney or judge confirming that the student will be allowed to miss residency-related work during times that the accompanying course meets. An MOU for this purpose is available on the Registrar’s website and must be completed, with signatures, and returned to Professor Adcock, preferably by registration and no later than the first day of Spring term. If the student’s work schedule will not permit the taking of the student’s chosen course, the student will have to enroll in a different accompanying course that does not conflict with work hours. The Law School’s in-house clinical residency placements have their own accompanying courses, and students in residencies there will be preregistered for those courses.

The drop/add period for all courses (other than clinical courses) ends on Friday, April 5, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. Students must seek permission from the clinic director to drop a clinical course after the online registration period ends.

2L students will register for courses by going online to OnTrack - <https://ontrack.elon.edu/WebAdvisor/WebAdvisor?&TYPE=M&PID=CORE-WBMAIN&TOKENIDX=7485788338>. 2L students are reminded that they must register for at least 10 hours to remain enrolled as full-time law students in the law school. Students may not register for more than 14 hours per trimester, absent special permission from the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

Textbooks for each course can be ordered from the Elon Campus Shop through OnTrack or by calling the Campus Shop at (336) 278-5400 or from popular sites such as Amazon.

If you have questions about the information in this packet, please contact the Registrar’s office at (336) 279-9330; (888) ELON-LAW, ext. 9330; thorn@elon.edu or jlaw@elon.edu.

Required Courses for First Year Students

Lawyering, Leadership and Professionalism, 1 credit (Professor Leupold) LAW684

This course considers three aspects in the development of competent, leading lawyers: exercising problem-solving lawyering skills, developing a professional identity that guides students' selected career paths, and exhibiting professionalism as an active member of the bar and officer of the court. Together, these three components coalesce to provide a sound foundation for the acquisition and refinement of legal skills and support development of a competitive legal career. This approach enhances the learning experience for students while reinforcing that excellence in knowing the law and basic exposure to expert application of the law are essential personal priorities and critical outcomes from legal education. First-year students are automatically registered for their Spring Trimester Leadership course.

Legal Method and Communication III, 2 credits (Professors Cook, Gram, Liemer, Meredith, Noble, Ochs) LAW674

This course builds and expands on the skills taught in LMC I & II, as students hone their analytical and legal writing skills. Students will learn additional techniques for persuasive advocacy. They will write a brief to the federal Court of Appeals, and will prepare and deliver an appellate oral argument. In addition, students will learn to research legislative history and to include policy arguments effectively in their written and oral advocacy. First-year students are automatically registered for their Spring Trimester LMC course.

Property, 5 credits (Professor Haile and Visiting Professor Chapman) LAW640

A study of property rights and interests in personal property and real property. Topics covered include the acquisition of rights in property, possessory and non-possessory interests, estates in land, concurrent ownership, landlord-tenant relations and land-use regulation. First-year students are automatically registered for their Property course.

NOTE: 1L students will need to register for one of the two following courses. The course you do not take in the Spring 2019 trimester, you will automatically be registered for in the Fall 2019 trimester.

Business Associations, 4 credits (Professor Molony) LAW710A

A study of basic corporate law, including formation, management, and dissolution of corporations, and the rights and duties of those involved with corporations. The law related to business organizations such as partnerships and limited liability companies (LLC) will also be covered. A final examination will be administered in this course. (This course has an enrollment cap of 72.)

If you have an interest in business law, including either transactional work (meaning, assisting clients to enter into agreements) or business litigation (disputes between business entities), you may want to register to take Business Associations in the spring term. In Business Associations, we study the case law and statutes that govern the creation, operation, and dissolution of businesses. You will learn about how businesses make decisions and about the legal duties that those operating a business (managers or directors, for example) owe to those who own the business (shareholders, for example).

Evidence, 4 credits (Professor Dunham) LAW730A

The aim of this course is to develop familiarity with the techniques by which evidence of controverted facts is presented in litigation before judicial tribunals. The Federal Rules of Evidence, North Carolina Rules of Evidence, and common law rules will be examined. (This course has an enrollment cap of 72.)

If you are interested in working with litigation or litigation-related topics in your professional future, including working in public service positions such as District Attorney or Public Defender offices, please consider registering for Evidence in the Spring term. Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, and Evidence are the foundational topics for lawyers who want to engage in litigation and advocacy. In Evidence, students learn the Federal Rules of Evidence, rules applicable in civil and criminal trials, which are tested on the Multi-State Bar Exam and form the basis for every state's rules of Evidence. By taking Evidence in the 1L Spring term, you will be prepared to take the Trial Practice and Procedure course, the basic advocacy course, in the Fall of your 2L year. Also, for students aspiring to a residency placement in litigation environments, such as DA or PD offices, Evidence is an essential course.

Required Courses for Second Year Students

Students must take the following courses before the end of their second year:

- Constitutional Law II (Students not registered for a Winter Residency will automatically be registered for Constitutional Law II).
- Residency-In-Practice (Students that do not have a Winter residency will be automatically registered for the Spring residency).

Constitutional Law II, 3 credits (Professor Gaylord)

LAW 721A

A study of the principles of American constitutional law. The course will examine the concept of judicial review, as well as other specific provisions of the Constitution, including the Due Process Clause and the First Amendment. Constitutional Law II is a continuation of Constitutional Law I. Students not currently registered for a Winter Residency will automatically be registered for Constitutional Law II.

Residency-in-Practice, 7-10 credits (Professor Adcock and Other Faculty)

LAW890A

The Residency-in-Practice course requires 2L students to work 32 or 36 hours per week for 10 weeks in an approved governmental, judicial, non-profit, corporate, or private law firm, earning 7 or 8 academic credits. This academic requirement promotes “learning from practice” by providing students with opportunities for substantial lawyering experience reasonably similar to the experience of a lawyer advising or representing a client or engaging in other lawyering tasks, under direct attorney or judicial supervision at the field placement. By stepping in the role of a lawyer, students deepen their legal knowledge acquired in substantive courses, sharpen skills needed to be a successful lawyer, and make the professional connections and observations important to career development. Residents are assigned a Faculty Supervisor, who provides orientation to the program and guidance through written assignments, Affinity Group meetings that include other students, and individual conferences. Students will be awarded a grade on a Pass/Fail basis.

Students must register for one additional course of either 2 or 3 credits, bringing students up to a full academic load for the term. Students are encouraged to take an accompanying course related to their Residency and one that does not conflict with work hours. Some courses will be offered through distance learning technology, so that students have the possibility of completing a residency and the accompanying course away from the law school. The residency experience takes priority during the residency trimester. Thus, any student (either local or non-local) who elects to take a residency accompanying course during normal working hours (8:30am – 5:00pm), must obtain consent from the student’s on-site supervising attorney or judge confirming that the student will be allowed to miss residency-related work during times that the accompanying course meets. An MOU for this purpose is available on the Registrar’s website and must be completed, with signatures, and returned to Professor Adcock, preferably by registration and no later than the first day of Spring term. If the student’s work schedule will not permit the taking of the student’s chosen course, the student will have to enroll in a different accompanying course that does not conflict with work hours. The Law School’s in-house clinical residency placements have their own accompanying courses, and students in residencies there will be preregistered for those courses. If you are fulfilling your Residency requirement during the Spring 2019 trimester, you will automatically be registered for either 7 or 8 credits based on the number of credits of your accompanying course, for a total of 10 credits.

- Communications Requirement

Each student must also fulfill a Communications Requirement after the first year. The Communications Requirement is intended to develop communication skills and provide the student interim feedback on those skills. The Requirement may be filled by completing a law review note under faculty supervision, competing on a Moot Court or Mock Trial team, completing a Leadership Fellow Capstone Project, or taking a course designated by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs as a “Communications Course.”

A student may not satisfy both the Communications Requirement and the Upper Level Writing Requirement with a single course or experience; each requirement must be met separately. For example, if a course is designated a “Communications Course” and the course includes writing a paper that would meet the Upper Level Writing Requirement, a student may satisfy either the Communications Requirement or the Upper Level Writing Requirement by taking the course, but not both.

Communications courses offered during the Spring 2019 Trimester are:

Advanced Legal Research
Business Drafting
Client Interviewing & Counseling
Constitutional Litigation
Family Law
Humanitarian Immigration Clinic
Immigration Law
Negotiations

- Bridge-to-Practice Courses (Optional)

The Law School designates certain courses as “Bridge-to-Practice Courses,” or “Bridge Courses.” A Bridge Course is the culmination of the student’s transition from theory to practice and follows the student’s completion of a residency. Bridge Courses can be offered in any subject area, and students may choose the course that matches their area of interest. Bridge Courses may involve an extended simulation, a field component, or a live-client experience in the relevant practice area and could involve other educational approaches at the professor’s discretion. Bridge Courses will provide students opportunities to: (1) exercise professional judgment; (2) evaluate legal strategies; (3) build on and apply legal knowledge from other courses to novel factual situations; (4) synthesize legal knowledge from across doctrinal areas; and (5) practice advanced oral and written communication skills.

Bridge Courses offered during the Spring 2019 Trimester are:

Advanced Legal Research
Business Drafting
Client Interviewing & Counseling
Criminal Pretrial
Humanitarian Immigration Clinic
Immigration Law
Negotiations

Elective Courses for Second-Year and Third-Year Students

Note: Courses potentially tested on the NC Bar Exam (and most other states' bar exams) are marked with an asterisk (). Courses that may satisfy the upper-level writing requirement are marked with a dollar sign ($).*

Accounting for Lawyers, 2 credits (Professor Molony)

LAW711A

An introduction to the basic concepts of financial accounting. Intended for students with little or no accounting background, the course is designed to equip these students with the fundamental skills necessary to read and critically review a corporation's financial statements. This course is not open to students who have received credit for more than one undergraduate or postgraduate course in financial accounting. Enrollment in this course is capped at 30, with a minimum enrollment of 8. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Advanced Legal Research, 3 credits (Dean McLeod, Professor Watson)

LAW661A

Advanced Legal Research builds on skills introduced in the first-year legal research class. It will provide a more extensive discussion of the materials and tools available to perform the research required during their professional life. This course will look at both state and federal materials more extensively than covered in the first-year course. International and foreign material will be introduced with the majority of this segment looking at their relationship to the general practice of law, focusing primarily on US treaties and Inter-Governmental Organizations. Cost effective legal instruction will be emphasized throughout the course, focusing on when it is appropriate to use online versus paper resources. The credit hours will be dependent upon whether this is taught as a straight skills course (2 credit) with the assessment based on a series of research assignments or if there is a writing component and oral presentation component (3 credit). This course may permit synchronous participation online consistent with Law School technical requirements for such courses for students participating in the Spring 2019 Residency. Otherwise, this is an in-class course. Enrollment in this course is capped at 12, with a minimum enrollment of 4. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

* Bar Exam Foundations: MBE (Online) 2 credits (Professor Lane)

LAW833A

The primary goal of this course is to develop expertise in sound analytical processes necessary for multiple choice questions. Instruction will include strategies for answering Multistate Bar Exam style questions as well as deepening student knowledge about the substantive underpinnings of the law. Instruction will occur within the context of core courses, including Contracts, Torts, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Property, Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, and Evidence. All instruction is conducted on-line. This is a graded course. The final examination consists of a three-hour simulated Multi-State Bar Examination. All first-year courses are pre-requisites for this course. Enrollment in this course is capped at 25, with a minimum enrollment of 8.

* Bar Exam Foundations: Multistate Essays Exam (MEE) (Online) f/k/a Bar Exam Foundations: NC Essays/Distinctions, 2 Credits (Professor Splawn)

LAW835A

This course is designed to provide students experience in and practice with the essay portion of the Uniform Bar Exam (UBE). The course will promote legal analysis and communication skills needed to succeed on the Multistate Essay Exam (MEE). The course will present instruction in the most successful strategies and tactics for answering short essay questions and provide students opportunities for application and practice. This is a graded course and is offered fully online, making it available to be taken as a residency-accompanying course. The final examination will consist of a three-hour simulated MEE essay examination. All first-year courses are pre-requisites for this course. Enrollment in this course is capped at 25, with a minimum enrollment of 8.

Bar Exam Foundations: Multistate Performance Test (Online), 2 credits (Professor Cyr) LAW832A

The primary goal of this course is to introduce the student to the Multistate Performance Test portion of the Uniform Bar Exam (as well as the MPT administered in some non-UBE states). The skills necessary for assessing a client file, identifying issues, and reaching and communicating legal conclusions will be emphasized. All instruction is conducted on-line. This is a graded course. All first-year courses are prerequisites for this course. Enrollment in this course is capped at 25, with a minimum enrollment of 8. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

§ Business Drafting, 2 credits (Professor Gram)

LAW812A

This course will teach students the basic principles of contract interpretation, negotiation, and drafting. Emphasis will be placed on drafting contractual agreements that meet clients' needs and effectively anticipate potential legal problems. Students will read and analyze a variety of contracts and contract provisions and will work both independently and collaboratively to negotiate and draft a series of written contracts. Types of contracts to be studied and drafted may include contracts for the sale of goods, service contracts, employment contracts, sweepstakes rules, client letters, cease and desist letters and guest releases. Business Associations is a prerequisite to this course. (This course has a minimum enrollment of 6 students and a maximum enrollment of 18 students.) This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement. Please note, if you are registered for the Business Residency, you will be automatically pre-registered for this course as the accompanying course in the trimester of your residency.

Client Interviewing & Counseling, 2 credits (Professor Wasson)

LAW839A

This course covers the fundamental lawyering skills of interviewing and counseling – skills essential to the practice of law in any context. It will introduce the theories and techniques used in interviewing and counseling, utilizing simulations and role playing exercises designed to transfer the classroom discussions and theoretical readings into practical experience. Skills addressed in the interviewing segment include: active and empathetic listening, building rapport, fact gathering, question formulation, preliminary client goal identification, development of a case overview, theory development, and concluding the interview. The counseling segment will introduce the process by which the lawyer helps the client make decisions by clarifying the client's objectives, identifying potential strategies and solutions and their likely consequences and, when appropriate, providing advice. Throughout the course, we will discuss ethical and professionalism issues that often arise in lawyer-client interactions. Enrollment in this course is capped at 16, with a minimum enrollment of 6. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Constitutional Litigation, 2 credits (Professor P. Perkins)

LAW851A

Constitutional tort law operationalizes the Constitution by providing a vehicle for holding state, local, and federal officials, local governments, and private parties operating under color of state law liable in damages for violations of people's constitutional rights. The course will examine, at both a theoretical and practical level, the litigation of constitutional torts through 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and Bivens actions, including elements of a claim, immunities, procedural defenses, remedies, and attorney's fees. The study of constitutional litigation calls for advanced application of constitutional, tort, and civil procedure principles. Enrollment in this course is capped at 16, with a minimum enrollment of 6. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

§ Criminal Pretrial Litigation, 3 credits (Adjunct Professor Meinecke)

LAW803A

This course will focus on the pretrial strategy and tactics employed by trial lawyers in federal criminal cases. The course will require students to conduct pretrial criminal procedures by following simulated cases. The cases will involve the prosecution of criminal offenses in federal court. Student will alternate handling segments of the case as both a prosecutor and as defense counsel. Students will complete five to six graded homework assignments that will be handed out and turned in over the course of the trimester. The assignments will consist of researching and writing appropriate court documents (e.g. motion to suppress evidence, motion to compel discovery, etc.). Students also will be prepared to interview witnesses (including the defendant), argue motions, and make charging decisions. Knowledge of Criminal Procedure and Evidence is helpful, but not required. Enrollment in this course is capped at 24, with a minimum enrollment of 8. This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Adjunct Professor Terry Meinecke is an Assistant United States Attorney in the Middle District of North Carolina. In that role, he prosecutes crimes ranging from gun and drug related offenses to armed robbery and homicide. Mr. Meinecke is a Major in the United States Army Reserve JAG Corps. He received his J.D. from the University of Nebraska School of Law.

 Criminal Procedure, 3 credits (Adjunct Professor Meinecke) LAW732A

The major constitutional restraints upon the criminal justice process are the focus of this course. Particular attention is given to the provisions of the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendments to the United States Constitution, including such specific issues as arrest, search and seizure, interrogations and confessions, the exclusionary rule, and the right to defense counsel. Overall consideration is given to the impact of Fourteenth Amendment Due Process requirements throughout state and federal criminal justice systems. Enrollment in this course is capped at 40, with a minimum enrollment of 8. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

§ Drug Use: Criminal Law, Policy, and History, 2 credits (Professor Cook) LAW856A

This course will introduce students to the major legal and policy issues regarding illegal drug use. In doing so, it will first provide a historical background on drug use within the United States and then spend the majority of its sessions considering the laws and policies that govern illegal drugs. Alcohol, tobacco, and caffeine regulation will also be considered. While focused on drug use in the United States, the course will also address drug law and policy internationally. Enrollment in this course is capped at 30, with a minimum enrollment of 6. This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement. This course may permit synchronous participation online consistent with Law School technical requirements for such courses for students participating in the Spring 2019 Residency. Otherwise, this is an in-class course. [Online participation to be approved by faculty].

 Family Law, 3 credits (Professor Wasson) LAW775A

This course will cover the variety of laws impacting the family unit and defining the rights and duties of family members. Topics covered will include marriage, annulment, separation, divorce, support, custody and equitable distribution. Course requirements may also include other writing assignments/group activities to provide the students with a sense of the practical side of the practice of family law. (This course has a minimum enrollment of 8 students and a maximum enrollment of 32 students.) This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

General Externship, 3 credits (Professor Adcock) LAW690A

The General Externship course is designed to provide opportunities for students to gain practical legal experience while working under the supervision of approved attorneys and judges for 135 hours over 10 weeks. As part of the Externship work, students may observe client conferences, staff attorney meetings, negotiations, plea bargains, motion arguments, appellate arguments, trials, conferences, and other aspects of the legal process while under the supervision of an attorney or judicial officer. In addition, the student may research legal and procedural matters and perform such other tasks to support the legal functions, as the supervising attorney or judicial officer may require. In addition to the minimum hours of supervised work, the Externship course requires students to participate in sessions with an Affinity group and a faculty advisor and to submit reflective written work and time records. Students are eligible for the General Externship course after completing the first year of law school. Students are responsible for securing their own placement but may seek advice from the Director of Residencies or the Office for Career and Student Development. All placements must be approved by the Director of Residencies in order to register for this course. The application form is available on the Registrars' webpage <https://www.elon.edu/e/law/academics/experiences/externships.html>. (This course has no minimum enrollment and a maximum enrollment of 24 students.)

§ Humanitarian Immigration Clinic, 3 or 4 credits (Professor Reynolds)

LAW768A

The Immigration Clinic provides students with practical experience in the areas of client interviewing, cloud-based case management software, and preparing an application for federal immigration benefits. Students will be given great autonomy to assist refugees and asylees in filing for family reunification, adjustment of status (green card), and naturalization (US citizenship). Students will also have the opportunity to conduct legal research and writing and represent clients in federal benefits hearings at USCIS Field Offices. Prerequisites: Students must have completed all of the first-year requirements. Professional Responsibility must be completed prior to or taken concurrently with this clinical course. Immigration law is not a prerequisite, but is encouraged and may be taken concurrently. Clinical Hours; For three (3) credits, students must complete 100 hours of clinical work as part of the requirements for satisfactory completion. Performance in the clinic is also used to determine whether the student earns a High Pass/Pass/Low Pass/Fail. If you are completing your Upper Level Writing requirement as a part of HILC for an additional credit hour—for a total of four (4) hours, the requirements for the ULW will be separately addressed with your supervising faculty member. Enrollment in this course is capped at 8, with a minimum enrollment of 2. This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement if you register for the 4-credit course. After registration, students must seek permission from Professor Reynolds to drop this course.

§ Immigration Law, 3 credits (Adjunct Professor Yanez)

LAW740A

This course will examine United States immigration and naturalization law. Federal statutes and regulations addressing admission of foreign nationals, removal, citizenship, and employment will be addressed. Enrollment in this course is capped at 12, with a minimum enrollment of 5. This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Income Taxation, 3 credits (Visiting Professor Chapman)

LAW712A

A study of the basic principles of federal taxation of income. This course focuses primarily on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code addressing taxation of individuals. Concepts such as adjusted gross income, exemptions, deductions, and tax credits will be examined. Enrollment in this course is capped at 50, with a minimum enrollment of 8. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Independent Study, 1-3 credits

LAW999

This course will allow students to engage in independent legal research and writing under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. The work must involve the production of a significant research paper or comparable project. Students may not enroll in an Independent Study without written permission by the supervising faculty member and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. The written permission must identify the number of credits to be awarded to the student upon satisfactory completion of the course. A student may not receive more than four credits through Independent Study courses during their time at Elon Law.

Law Review, 1 credit (Professor Fink)

LAW996A

Subject to approval by the Elon Law Review faculty advisor, students on the Elon Law Review may receive one credit for each academic trimester in which they successfully fulfill their duties as a member of the Elon Law Review staff or Editorial board. The Editor-in-Chief and Managing Editor receive two credit hours for each academic trimester in which they successfully fulfill their duties. No student may receive more than two credits for law review activities per trimester. Law review credits are awarded on a pass/fail basis. All Elon Law Review staff members are required to submit an article-length note of publishable quality by the end of their first year as members on Elon Law Review. The note must be written independent of a class; students may not submit a paper that was also written for class credit. Prior approval from Professor Fink is needed before registration for this course.

$ Mergers and Acquisitions, 3 credits (Adjunct Professor Baynes) LAW814A

This course explores the principal legal issues and also the practical realities of negotiated corporate acquisitions and mergers. Business deals will be analyzed from inception to closing, with the focus on the lawyer's role in each phase of a transaction. The class will provide students with the opportunity to complete tasks that junior transactional associates are commonly expected to undertake. Throughout the trimester there will be various simulations and fact patterns that will allow students to see and participate in many aspects of a basic business transaction. Students will review and discuss due diligence materials and an example acquisition agreement as well as participate in other aspects of a hypothetical transaction. Business Associations is a prerequisite to this course. Enrollment in this course is capped at 20, with a minimum enrollment of 6. This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Moot Court, 1 credit (Dean Woodlief) LAW900A

Credit is awarded to students who successfully complete at least three semesters of service on the Moot Court Board and who compete in at least one interscholastic Moot Court competition, whereby they independently or as a member of a team prepare an appellate brief, practice regularly with faculty coaches and advisors for oral argument and present an oral argument in the competition. Successful completion of these requirements above and participation in one competition will receive 1 credit. Students who complete in two competitions will receive 2 credits. This course is graded on a pass/fail basis. Prior approval from Dean Woodlief is needed before registration for this course. This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement with approval of Dean Woodlief.

$ Negotiations, 3 credits (Adjunct Professor Baroff) LAW759A

All lawyers must negotiate. Whether you plan to be a commercial lawyer, a family lawyer, a criminal lawyer, a government lawyer or any other type of lawyer, you will be negotiating with other attorneys, clients, and court personnel. This class, combining theory and practice, aims to improve both your understanding of negotiation and your effectiveness as a negotiator. Students will engage in multiple negotiations. Drawing on negotiation scholarship from both legal and non-legal perspectives, the readings, lectures and discussions will provide students with strategies and techniques for negotiating more effectively and a framework for analyzing their own negotiating ability. (This course has a minimum enrollment of 10 students and a maximum enrollment of 20 students.) This course is available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement.

Adjunct Roy Baroff is an experienced attorney, mediator, arbitrator and ombuds. His background includes Federal, NC Superior Court, and Industrial Commission (workers' compensation claims) litigation. He's an experienced and thoughtful negotiator who has also served as mediator for litigated cases for over 20 years. He is past Chair of the North Carolina Bar Association Dispute Resolution Section. He is a graduate of UNC School of Law.

Remedies, 3 credits (Dean Woodlief) LAW795A

This course examines the various remedies available to claimants in civil litigation. It will cover damages, including compensatory, punitive and statutory damages. Equitable remedies such as injunctions and accountings will also be covered. Restitutionary remedies will also be addressed. The course format is as follows: Each week, students will be assigned chapters in the textbook to read and work problems. Dean Woodlief posts recorded lectures online each week, as well as review problems. The work is largely at your own pace during the week, though students will need to have listened to the lectures and completed the problems by the weekly deadline. There are online chat forums/office hours twice each week, so students can connect with Dean Woodlief and ask any questions they may have about the material for the week. Dean Woodlief is available other times during the week by appointment. Regular, weekly participation is an important part of the learning process in this course and is also a proxy for attendance. A component of the grade will be measured by participation (e.g., logging in and watching lectures, working textbook problems and answering review questions online and submitting assignments). Students' participation will be monitored through the Moodle online course system and through students' submissions. Lack of consistent and timely participation in the course will result in a reduced grade in the course (detailed in syllabus). There will be at least one quiz and likely two, as well as a final exam. The quizzes will be submitted through Moodle (Elon's online course site), and the final exam will be through ExamSoft, so students do not have to be at the law school for the quizzes and exams. More specific details will be available in the course syllabus and on the course Moodle site. This course is not available to satisfy the upper level writing requirement. This course is completely online, which allows students to listen to weekly lectures, do the course reading and work on weekly assignments on their own schedule (subject to submitting them by the weekly deadline). The course can also be taken from anywhere in the world with Internet access. Enrollment for the Spring 2019 Term is limited to Residency Students Only!

 Wills and Trusts, 3 credits (Adjunct Professor Ervin)

LAW770A

This course explores the gratuitous transfer of property at death, including intestate and estate succession. It also examines the nature, establishment, management, and termination of inter vivos and testamentary trusts. (This course has a minimum enrollment of 10 students and a maximum enrollment of 50 students.)

Adjunct Professor Ervin is an attorney licensed in North Carolina and Florida. He is a partner with the firm of Johnson, Peddrick & McDonald, PLLC, where he practices estate planning, estate administration, and guardianship law. He completed a double-major in Business and French at UNC Greensboro, then went on to graduate cum laude from Elon University School of Law and earn an LL.M. (Master of Laws) in Tax Law from the University of Florida. While at Elon Law, he practiced estate planning in the Wills Clinic, externed for Guilford County District Court Judge Sue Burch, interned for the District Attorney in Rockingham and the Public Defender in Charlotte, as well as studied Chinese business law in Beijing and Spanish language and culture in Madrid. He continues to be involved with Elon Law, including mentoring law students throughout their studies, teaching as an adjunct faculty member, and occasionally guest lecturing and speaking on panels.
